

The background of the book cover is a painting. It depicts a red apple hanging from a dark, leafy branch. The apple is positioned in the center of the frame. Above the apple, a thin, horizontal arrow points from left to right. The sky is a deep blue with some lighter, wispy clouds. In the upper right corner, a small, pale crescent moon is visible. Seeing the World and Knowing God Paul S. Fiddes, 2013-07-25 This book aims to create a Christian theology of wisdom for the present day in discussion with two sets of conversation partners The first are writers of the wisdom literature in ancient Israel and the Jewish community in Alexandria Here special attention is given to the biblical books of Proverbs Job and Ecclesiastes The second conversation partners are philosophers and thinkers of the late modern age among them Jacques Derrida Emmanuel Levinas Julia Kristeva Paul Ricoeur and Hannah Arendt In the late modern period there has been a reaction against an inherited conception of the conscious and rational self as mastering and even subjugating the world around and there has been an attempt to overcome the consequent split between the subject and objects of observation Paul S Fiddes enters into dialogue with these late modern concerns about the relation between the self and the world proposing that the wisdom which is indicated by the ancient Hebraic concept of okmah integrates a practical wisdom of handling daily experience with the kind of wisdom which is attunement to the world and ultimately to God as creator and sustainer of all Fiddes brings detailed exegesis of texts from the ancient wisdom literature into interaction with an account of the subject in late modern thought in order to form a theology in which seeing the world is knowing a God whose transcendent reality is always immanent in the signs and bodies of the world He thus argues that participation in a triune relational God shapes a wisdom that addresses problems of a dominating self and opens the human person to others Dialogue and
