The Making Of Pakistan By Kk Aziz:

The Making of Pakistan Khursheed Kamal Aziz, 1967 The Making of Pakistan Khursheed Kamal Aziz, 1967 The Pakistan Paradox Christophe Jaffrelot, 2016-06-16 The idea of Pakistan stands riddled with tensions Initiated by a small group of select Urdu speaking Muslims who envisioned a unified Islamic state today Pakistan suffers the divisive forces of various separatist movements and religious fundamentalism A small entrenched elite continue to dominate the country's corridors of power and democratic forces and legal institutions remain weak But despite these seemingly insurmountable problems the Islamic Republic of Pakistan continues to endure The Pakistan Paradox is the definitive history of democracy in Pakistan and its survival despite ethnic strife Islamism and deepseated elitism This edition focuses on three kinds of tensions that are as old as Pakistan itself The tension between the unitary definition of the nation inherited from Jinnah and centrifugal ethnic forces between civilians and army officers who are not always in favour of or against democracy and between the Islamists and those who define Islam only as a cultural identity marker Imagining Pakistan Rasul Bakhsh Rais, 2017-08-30 Imagining Pakistan argues that the creation of Pakistan is a result of Muslim modernism in the Subcontinent as it defined the struggle for identity nationalism and empowerment of Muslim communities This modernist movement represented the ideals of inclusivity equal rights a liberal constitutional framework and a shared sense of political community among diverse ethnic and regional groups However while this modernity was the ideal of Pakistan's founders it faced resistance from Islamists obsessed with recovering a past legacy of lost Muslim glory A major threat to political modernism also came from the military that wanted to create a strong and secure Pakistan through controlled democracy Multiple interventions by the military and deviations from the foundational republican ideas left Pakistan in the rough sea of power struggles causing institutional decay and creating space for the rise of radical Islam Imagining Pakistan analyzes the institutional imbalance between the military and the civilian groups the idea of the security state and the Islamist social forces and movements that have been engaged in the politics of Islamic revival It argues that Pakistan's stability security and progress will depend on pursuing the path of political modernity Although the restoration of parliamentary democracy and the resilience of the Pakistani society are hopeful signs resolving the critical issues that Pakistan faces today will require consolidation of democracy better leadership and a moderate and modernist vision of both the state and the society Propaganda and Information in Eastern India 1939-45 Sanjoy Bhattacharya, 2013-09-13 This is a study of the social political economic and public health aspects of the Second World War in South Asia with particular attention being accorded to colonial Eastern India which was treated as a single administrative unit during the course of the conflict for strategic purposes The conclusion deals with the long term effects of the war its effects on political formations bureaucratic re negotiation and the de colonisation of the British Indian empire The Khilafat Movement in India 1919-1924 A.C. Niemeijer, 2012-12-11 This title addresses the Khilafat Movement in India a pan Islamic political protest campaign launched by Muslims of India to influence the British government not to abolish the Ottoman Caliphate Heritage and Ruptures in Indian Literature, Culture and Cinema Cornelius Crowley, Geetha Ganapathy-Doré, 2017-03-07 This book investigates the millennial history of the Indian subcontinent Through the various methods adopted the objects and moments examined it questions various linguistic literary and artistic appropriations of the past to address the conflicting comprehensions of the present and also the figuring imagining of a possible future The volume engages with this general cultural condition in relation both to the subcontinent s current synchronic reality and to certain aspects of the culture s underlying diachronic determinations It also reveals how the multiple heritages are negotiated through the subcontinent s long term sedimentational history It scrutinizes both conservative interpretations of heritage and a possibly incremental enrichment and the additional possibility of a mode of appropriation open to a dialectic of creative destruction in which the patrimonial imperative is challenged leaving room for processes of renewal and rejuvenation The collection is organized around four major topics Orientalism addressed by way of the Tamil Epic Manimekalai through the evocation of the Hastings Circle and views on a possible Hindu Muslim unity sketched out by Sayyid Ahmed Khan modernism in Indian and Burmese texts written in English pictorial art through a consideration of the work of British Asian and Indian film directors and finally the current state of a body of critical thinking on gender The Birth of Saudi Arabia Gary Troeller, 2013-10-23 First Published in 1976 Today the name Sa udi Arabia evokes images of desert wastes limitless reservoirs of oil and economic might When one thinks of the predominant foreign power concerned with the desert kingdom one thinks of the United States Forty year ago oil had yet to be discovered ibn Sa ud had just unified the greater part of the Arabian Peninsula and Great Britain exercised paramount influence at the Sa udi Court This book deals with the drama of the immediate pre oil era and sets the stage for the Sa udi Arabia of today The following pages examine in detail the unification of Arabia and British policy towards ibn Sa ud during the early twentieth century when he laid the foundations of present day Sa udi Arabia Sir Sayyid Ahmad Khan and the Muslim Cause in British India Belkacem Belmekki, 2020-08-10 No detailed description available for Sir Sayyid Ahmad Khan and the Muslim Cause in British India Political Thought and Leadership of Lokmanya Tilak N. R. Inamdar, 1983 The Lion's Share Bernard Porter, 2014-06-11 As well as presenting a lively narrative of events Bernard Porter explores a number of broad analytical themes challenging more conventional and popular interpretations He sees imperialism as a symptom not of Britain s strength in the world but of her decline and he argues that the empire itself both aggravated and obscured deep seated malaise in the British economy Populist Identification in Public Discourse Ihsan Yilmaz, Fizza Batool, 2025-01-17 Based on semi structured interviews with ordinary citizens in Pakistan this book analyses the complex relationship between populism political identity and historical experiences in Pakistan highlighting how populist discourse influences and is influenced by varied interpretations of Pakistani at the identification with Pakistan It introduces a novel theoretical framework for analysing populism in the public sphere using Laclau s view of populism as a discursive logic and Panizza s definition as a mode of identification This connection allows for a deeper understanding of how populist constructs form a collective identity amidst diverse demands particularly through the concept of the people as an empty signifier The book also examines the multiple meanings associated with Pakistani identity and their ties to the rise of populism addressing gaps in existing literature regarding the demand side of populism and its impact on both politicians and the public The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 6, Muslims and Modernity: Culture and Society since 1800 Robert W. Hefner,2010-11-04 Unparalleled in its range of topics and geographical scope the sixth and final volume of The New Cambridge History of Islam provides a comprehensive overview of Muslim culture and society since 1800 Robert Hefner s thought provoking account of the political and intellectual transformation of the Muslim world introduces the volume which proceeds with twenty five essays by luminaries in their fields through a broad range of topics These include developments in society and population religious thought and Islamic law Muslim views of modern politics and economics education and the arts cinema and new media The essays which highlight the diversity and richness of Islamic civilization engage with regions outside the Middle East as well as within Islam s historic heartland Narratives are clear and absorbing and will fascinate all those curious about the momentous changes that have taken place among the world s 1.4 billion Muslims in the last two centuries The Geopolitics of South Asia Graham P. Chapman,2016-03-09 Anyone who is planning on carrying out research in South Asia or indeed anyone who simply wishes to understand more about this cultural heartland should read this book It shows how geological movements moulded the land of this unique cradle and how they still impact on it Discussions are woven around the three major forces of integration These are identitive forces bonds of language ethnicity religion or ideology utilitarian forces bonds of common material interest and coercion the institutional use or threat of physical violence By studying these forces Professor Chapman shows how the organization of territory has been central to the region s historic cultural linguistic and economic development In addition to the material on the Northwest frontier Afghanistan and Kashmir which was added for the second edition the Northeastern borderlands are also now examined in this fully revised third edition The current geopolitical state of the region is completely updated and greatly enhanced The Geopolitics of South Asia: From Early Empires to the Nuclear Age Graham Chapman,2018-10-22 Anyone who is planning on carrying out research in South Asia or indeed anyone who simply wishes to understand more about this cultural heartland should read this book It shows how geological movements moulded the land of this unique cradle and how they still impact on it Discussions are woven around the three major forces of integration These are identitive forces bonds of language ethnicity religion or ideology utilitarian forces bonds of common material interest and coercion the institutional use or threat of physical violence By studying these forces Professor Chapman shows how the organization of territory has been central to the region s historic cultural linguistic and economic development In addition to the material on the Northwest frontier Afghanistan and Kashmir which was added for the second edition the Northeastern borderlands are also now examined in this fully revised third edition The current geopolitical state of the region is completely updated and greatly enhanced Himmat ,1967 India, Citizenship, and Refugee Crisis Dipak Basu,Victoria W. Miroshnik,2024-09-12 India Citizenship and Refugee Crisis Political History of Hatred and Sorrow examines the effects of the Partition of India in 1947 The partition as suggested by the British to satisfy the Muslims who formed the bulk of the British Army during the 2nd world war could not stop the communal riots but instead led to their intensification The effects were tremendous flows of refugees Muslims from India to Pakistan and a few non Muslims from Pakistan to India That refugee problem was solved in Pakistan as the flow was limited due to the protection of the Muslims granted by India but it is still a problem in India due to inability of the Indian government to provide enough security and facility to the refugees This book analyzes the diverse issues surrounding this political history from economic and social points of view The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications,2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume
