The Vajrabhairava Tantra Aleksandra Wenta, 2025-09-02. This book is a study and translation of the Vajrabhairava Tantra henceforth VBhT a Buddhist tantric text in seven chapters that focuses on the means of attainment's dhana centered upon the wrathful tantric deity Vajrabhairava. The VBhT composed in India in the eighth century and written in Sanskrit is attributed to Lalitavajra aka Lalivajra a Buddhist master c. 8th century at Nalanda Monastery who is said to have retrieved it from the land of Oiyana. It is a work of great importance to the development of tantric Buddhism in India as well as to the understanding of Tibetan Buddhist history more generally. Like most tantras it is a ritual text dedicated in all of its seven chapters to the description of rites such as the drawing of the sacred diagram mala the ceremonies performed within it as well as the performance of various rituals such as magical rituals karmas fire offerings homa recitation of sacred spells mantras and so on. The VBhT deals with what might have been the earliest form of Vajrabhairava the Solitary Hero ekavira in the charnel ground surrounded by various mortuary objects weapons and eight zombies. All of these gruesome symbols clearly reflect the transgressive character of the tantra associated with the tantric cult of the cremation ground and antinomian practices involving contact with impure places and substances as a means of attaining power. In the subsequent centuries the pantheon of the Vajrabhairava mala grew giving rise to the Seventeen and the Thirteen Deity malas. The latter was directly influenced by the pantheon of the Guhyasam ja Tantra and could be seen as its direct evolution Tanaka
