The End Of The Affair:

The End of the Affair Graham Greene, 1955 This is the story of star crossed lovers whose short affair begins and ends as tumultuously as the war that is its backdrop The End of the Affair Graham Greene, 2018-03-13 Graham Greene's masterful novel of love and betrayal in World War II London is undeniably a major work of art The New Yorker Maurice Bendrix a writer in Clapham during the Blitz develops an acquaintance with Sarah Miles the bored beautiful wife of a dull civil servant named Henry Maurice claims it's to divine a character for his novel in progress That's the first deception What he really wants is Sarah and what Sarah needs is a man with passion So begins a series of reckless trysts doomed by Maurice's increasing romantic demands and Sarah's tortured sense of guilt Then after Maurice miraculously survives a bombing Sarah ends the affair quickly absolutely and without explanation It's only when Maurice crosses paths with Sarah's husband that he discovers the fallout of their duplicity and it's more unexpected than Maurice Henry or Sarah herself could have imagined Adapted for film in both 1956 and 1999 Greene's novel of all that inspires love and all that poisons it is singularly moving and beautiful Evelyn Waugh The End of the Affair by Graham Greene \(Book Analysis\) BrightSummaries, 2019-04-03 Unlock the more straightforward side of The End of the Affair with this concise and insightful summary and analysis This engaging summary presents an analysis of The End of the Affair by Graham Greene a tale of doomed love and the vagaries of faith It follows Maurice Bendrix as he is reunited with his former lover Sarah who had ended their affair suddenly during the days of the Blitz a year and a half previously However Bendrix's feelings are reawakened by their renewed acquaintance and he sets out to rekindle the affair despite the hurdles of propriety and morality that stand in their way The End of the Affair is considered one of Graham Greene's seminal Catholic novels and is a classic example of Blitz fiction Find out everything you need to know about The End of the Affair in a fraction of the time This in depth and informative reading guide brings you A complete plot summary Character studies Key themes and symbols Questions for further reflection Why choose BrightSummaries.com Available in print and digital format our publications are designed to accompany you on your reading journey The clear and concise style makes for easy understanding providing the perfect opportunity to improve your literary knowledge in no time See the very best of literature in a whole new light with BrightSummaries.com End of the Affair Eleanor M. she was unfaithful to him too An economical and intense adaptation 1 woman 4 men 1 boy 5 women or men Ending the Affair Graeme Turner, 2005 Ending the Affair is a critical account of the state of current affairs television in Australia today It questions its future draws lessons from the past and shows why television current affairs matters BOOK JACKET The Business of Reading Julian Lovelock, 2022-02-24 In The Business of Reading Julian Lovelock charts the development of the English novel over the past hundred years Smuggling in titles from Scotland Ireland and the Caribbean he focuses on twenty texts written since the end of the First World War some well known but others less so placing them in their historical context Novelists represented range from D H Lawrence E M Forster and Virginia Woolf through Graham Greene Kingsley Amis and Iris Murdoch to such contemporary writers as Ian McEwan Maggie O Farrell and Graham Swift Written in a lucid style that reflects his expertise and enthusiasm Lovelock s innovative selection perceptive analysis and lightness of touch will appeal to the general reader the book club member and the student He argues that our response as readers is an important part of the creative process and while he mainly avoids the critical isms that have characterised recent academic debate he introduces such concepts as intertextuality metafiction and the role of the often unreliable narrator showing how an appreciation of the way the language of fiction works can only add to our understanding and enjoyment Saint Hysteria Cristina Mazzoni, 1996 Saint Hysteria examines scientific literary and religious texts that share a fascination with the otherness of the female body whether in ecstatic pleasure or in neurotic pain Cristina Mazzoni focuses on material from the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries mainly in Italy and France Her approach uses the methodologies of cultural studies and feminism but also benefits from the insights of psychoanalytic criticism She asks how the identification of mysticism with hysteria became prevalent and explores the continuing dialogue between a historicizing view of hysteria and a view of hysteria as repressed religious mysticism According to Mazzoni this dialogue is discernible at various levels and in a variety of discourses The medical history of hysteria she maintains is often linked to the religious history of supernatural phenomena and the medical discourse of positivism depends on the religious feminine element that it attempts to repress Similarly she finds a continuity between the literature of naturalism and that of decadence in their representations of the interdependence of neurosis and religion Finally the religious writings of women mystics and the discourses they inspired reveal an unresolved tension between nature and supernature body and soul or psyche which Mazzoni suggests mirrors and complicates the very issues raised by hysterical conversion Among those whose views she considers are the writers Jules and Edmond de Goncourt Gabriele d Annunzio and Antonio Fogazzaro as well as Graham Greene and Simone Weil the mystics Angela of Foligno Gemma Galgani and Teresa of Avila and the theorists Jean Martin Charcot Cesare Lombroso Jacques Lacan Simone de Beauvoir Julia Kristeva and Luce Irigaray Waiting for the End Earl G. Ingersoll, 2007 Waiting for the End examines two dozen contemporary novels within the context of a half century of theorizing about the function of ending in narrative That theorizing about ending generated a powerful dynamic a quarter century ago with the advent of feminist criticism of masculinist readings of the role played by ending in fiction Feminists such as Theresa de Lauretis in 1984 and more famously Susan Winnett in her 1991 PMLA essay Coming Unstrung were leading voices in a swelling chorus of theorist pointing out the masculinist bias of ending in narrative With the entry of feminist readings of ending it became inevitable that criticism of fiction would become gendered through the recognition of difference transcending a simple binary of female male to establish a spectrum of masculine to feminine endings regardless of the sex of the writer Accordingly Waiting for the End examines pairs of novels one pair by Margaret Atwood and one by Ian McEwan to demonstrate how a writer can offer endings at either end of the gender spectrum The End of the Affair, 1974 The History of the Affairs of Church and State in Scotland Robert Keith, 1734 Graham Greene Lynette Kohn, 1961 The End of the Affair Veronique Edwards,
