The Continuum Concept In Search Of Happiness Lost Jean Liedloff:

The Continuum Concept Jean Liedloff, 1975 The Continuum Concept Jean Liedloff, 1995 The Case Against Adolescence Robert Epstein, 2007 This groundbreaking book argues that adolescence is an unnecessary period of life that people are better off without Robert Epstein former editor in chief of Psychology Today shows that teen turmoil is caused by outmoded systems put into place a century ago which destroyed the continuum between childhood and adulthood Where this continuum still exists in other countries there is no adolescence Isolated from adults American teens learn everything they know from their media dominated peers the last people on earth they should be learning from says Epstein Epstein explains that our teens are highly capable in some ways more capable than adults and argues strongly against infantilizing young people We must rediscover the adult in every teen he says by giving young people adult authority and responsibility as soon as they can demonstrate readiness This landmark book will change the thinking about teens for decades to come The Natural Child Jan Hunt, 2001-12-01 It shouldn't hurt to be a child The Myth of Normal Gabor Maté, MD, 2025-08-05 THE INSTANT 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER NOW IN PAPERBACK Riveting and beautifully written Bessel van der Kolk MD 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Body Keeps the Score Wise sophisticated rigorous and creative Essential reading Tara Westover New York Times bestselling author of Educated An essential compass during disorienting times Esther Perel psychotherapist author and host of Where Should We Begin From our most trusted and compassionate authority on stress trauma and mental well being a groundbreaking investigation into the causes of illness a bracing critique of how our society breeds disease and a pathway to health and healing Gabor Maté's internationally bestselling books have changed the way we look at addiction and have been integral in shifting the conversations around ADHD stress disease embodied trauma and parenting Now in this revolutionary bestselling book he eloquently dissects how in Western countries that pride themselves on their health care systems chronic illness and general ill health are on the rise So what is really normal when it comes to health For all our expertise and technological sophistication Western medicine often fails to treat the whole person ignoring how today's culture stresses the body burdens the immune system and undermines emotional balance In The Myth of Normal co-written with his son Daniel Maté brings his perspective to the great untangling of common myths about what makes us sick connects the dots between the maladies of individuals and the declining soundness of society and offers a compassionate guide for health and healing The result is Maté's most ambitious and urgent book yet Teen 2.0 Robert Epstein, 2010-02-24 National Indie Excellence Awards first prize in the Parenting and Family category Arguing that adolescence is an unnecessary period of life that people are better off without this groundbreaking study shows that teen confusion and hardships are caused by outmoded systems that were designed to destroy the continuum between childhood and adulthood Documenting how teens are isolated from adults and are forced to look to their media dominated peers for knowledge this discussion contends that by infantilizing young people society does irrevocable harm to their development and well being Instead parents teachers employers and others must rediscover the adults in young people by giving them authority and responsibility as soon as they exhibit readiness Teens are highly capable in some ways more than adults and this landmark discussion offers paths for reaching and enhancing the competence in America s youth Journal of the Association for Research on Mothering ,2004 Speaking of Learning . . . Avraham Cohen,Heesoon Bai,Carl Leggo,Marion Porath,Karen Meyer,Anthony Clarke,2014-09-11 I have no doubt that many of you who read this book will be captivated by it just as I have been captivated This book is woven through evocative stories told by masterful educators who came together to explore the meanings of learning teaching and life For those who have read Speaking of Teaching it is not a surprise to hear again the profoundly touching humane and imaginative voices of these authors This book draws me in touches my heart and refreshes my mind Hongyu Wang Professor Oklahoma State University Tulsa OK US The authors invite us to join them in asking What else can learning be What else indeed What is beyond the recipes rubrics formulas and credentials of contemporary education Deep in the heart of their own personal stories told and untold spoken and unspoken the authors search and tell With an artful admixture of stories poems artwork and reflections this book is a rare opportunity to listen in on an eight year extended conversation amongst these gifted educators as they become increasingly present in their learning journeys Arden Henley Professor and Principal Canadian Programs City University of Seattle Vancouver BC Canada Blue Skies, Green Hell Marilyn Lazzari-Wing,2012-08-08 Blue Skies Green Hell a thriller written by a bush pilot s wife is a riveting tale set in the 1950s when pioneers of the sky flew single engine aircraft over unforgiving wilderness and impenetrable jungle in Venezuela Marilyn and Frank live in a place called the last frontier on the Orinoco River where he establishes a multi aircraft service that flies supplies and medicine to remote and inaccessible communities Together they challenge the odds and take the exhilaration of flying to new heights Their world is fierce weather with no weather reports aircraft with limited range radios and planes with six basic instruments A search and rescue effort ends when they make a forced landing in no man s land A flight to Miami turns sour as their twin engine C 46 conks out over the Caribbean Best friends die in fiery crashes Aston age Indian appears where he shouldn t be This is drama from the cockpit of vintage aircraft Smart Mothering Natalie Flynn,2019-03-04 Natalie has a wealth of knowledge on so many topics and provides great bite sized pieces of advice Nadia Lim Finally a book that deals with the things that really matter based on the actual science and a depth of clinical experience Nigel Latta Psychologist Dr Natalie Flynn has examined all the research on key baby topics such as feeding sleeping and crying The result Smart Mothering a revolutionary book that separates the facts from the opinions Find out what research says about the dilemmas so many parents face What if I can t breastfeed Is it best to feed on demand Can I leave my baby to cry Should I vaccinate my baby Is bed sharing a good idea Natalie provides the answers to these questions and many more Smart Mothering is objective accessible and practical With helpful tips succinct summaries and clear diagrams it demystifies the often confusing and overwhelming world of parenting
