Towards a New Material Aesthetics Alastair Renfrew, 2006 Set in the context of the various materialist approaches to literary aesthetics that emerged in the twentieth century Renfrew's study presents a new synthesis of the work of Mikhail Bakhtin 1895 1975 and his circle Russian Formalism and elements of the official ideology of the early Soviet period The book's central aim in offering such a synthesis is to negotiate the poles of postmodernist subjectivism and traditional materialism around which much current literary and critical theory has stagnated and as the title suggests to point the way towards a newly conceived material basis for textual and literary analysis

Print, Poetics, and Politics S. Rodgers, 2021-10-25 This study presents the text and first English translation of a Sumatran turitan or chanted epic called the tale of Datuk Tuongku Aji Malim Leman the hero's name This is a famous southern Batak story from the town of Sipirok The version at issue in the Angkola Batak language was published as a folkloric but also rather novelistic printed paperback book for a popular southern Batak audience in 1941 at the end of Dutch colonial rule in the Indies This sly book version of Datuk Tuongku by the novelist and newspaperman M. J. Soetan Hasoendoetan gave southern Batak readers a great literary epic of their own to claim within Indies literatures here was a touchstone for asserting their cultural excellence at a time when the Batak societies were often denigrated as tribal by both Dutch officialdom and other Indies residents Soetan Hasoendoetan's deft elegant but also playful and funny prose rendition of Datuk Tuongku allowed his Batak readers to imagine Batak traditions and Batak modernities simultaneously and to mull over the relationships between high oratory and the Latin alphabet print literacy promulgated in the colonial schools of Tapanuli The study also includes a lengthy anthropological interpretation of the 1941 text seeing it as a work of both politics and art The introductory essay draws on postcolonial theory and upon ethnographic fieldwork on literacy oratory and turitan in Sipirok
