Ryan, Patrícia Vieira, 2017-04-25 The eighteenth century naturalist Erasmus Darwin grandfather of Charles argued that plants are animate living beings and attributed them sensation movement and a certain degree of mental activity emphasizing the continuity between humankind and plant existence Two centuries later the understanding of plants as active and communicative organisms has reemerged in such diverse fields as plant neurobiology philosophical posthumanism and ecocriticism The Language of Plants brings together groundbreaking essays from across the disciplines to foster a dialogue between the biological sciences and the humanities and to reconsider our relation to the vegetal world in new ethical and political terms Viewing plants as sophisticated information processing organisms with complex communication strategies they can sense and respond to environmental cues and play an active role in their own survival and reproduction through chemical languages radically transforms our notion of plants as unresponsive beings ready to be instrumentally appropriated By providing multifaceted understandings of plants informed by the latest developments in evolutionary ecology the philosophy of biology and ecocritical theory The Language of Plants promotes the freedom of smiling faces often hide our pain that comes from unsuccessful attempts to find relief through harmful choices How can we keep past wounds from damaging us Learn to allow God to heal triggers insecurities and more so you can experience spiritual health and wholeness Every driver knows the importance of avoiding potholes when navigating a route Besides the uncomfortable bump they can create permanent damage to vehicles and endanger entire roadway systems The same is true of our lives We all have potholes that have been formed by pain trauma or choices that we ve made Usually we find a quick fix filling the hole with activities and even addictions disguised as culturally acceptable life choices But before long the hole is back and often wider and deeper waiting to catch us off guard which in the end creates even more permanent damage In The Thing Beneath the Thing pastor Steve Carter asks the simple question How is life working for you He knows that potholes exist and that the longer we live disconnected from answering this question the more we will fill those holes with harmful choices The solution Allow God to fill them with His grace and love so that we can discover the beauty of peace and wholeness He has for us The process lies in discovering our Triggers the setup that sets us off Hideouts where we go to escape the pain of our story Insecurities the false stories we create about ourselves Narratives the false stories we create
