The Meaning of Things A. C. Grayling, 2001 Descartes A. C. Grayling, 2009-05-26 Scientist mathematician traveler soldier and spy Rene Descartes was one of the founders of the modern world His life coincided with an extraordinary time in history the first half of the miraculous seventeenth century replete with genius in the arts and sciences and wracked by civil and international conflicts across Europe But at his birth in 1596 the world was still dominated by medieval beliefs in phenomena such as miracles and spontaneous generation It was Descartes who identified the intellectual tools his peers needed to free themselves from the grip of religious authority and in doing so he founded modern philosophy In this new biography A C Grayling tells the story of Descartes life and places it in his tumultuous times with the unexpected result that an entirely new aspect of the story comes to light

Philosophizing Madness from Nietzsche to Derrida Angelos Evangelou, 2017-08-12 Drawing connections between madness philosophy and autobiography this book addresses the question of how Nietzsche s madness might have affected his later works It also explores why continental philosophy after Nietzsche is so fascinated with madness and how it re considers re evaluates and re valorizes madness To answer these questions the book analyzes the work of three major figures in twentieth century French philosophy who were significantly influenced by Nietzsche Bataille Foucault and Derrida examining the ways in which their responses to Nietzsche s madness determine how they understand philosophy as well as philosophy s relation to madness For these philosophers posing the question about madness renders the philosophical subject vulnerable and implicates it in a state of responsibility towards that about which it asks Out of this analysis of their engagement with the question of madness emerges a new conception of autobiographical philosophy which entails the insertion of this vulnerable subject into the philosophical work to which each of these philosophers adheres or resists in different ways
