Assessment as a service not a place Anne M. Hayes, Jennae Bulat, Brent Elder, 2020-04-12 The World Health Organization and World Bank 2011 estimate that there are more than 1 billion people with disabilities in the world To address this population's diverse needs the United Nations drafted their Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities CRPD in 2006 Article 24 Education of the CRPD requires ratifying countries to develop an inclusive education system to address the educational needs of students with disabilities alongside their peers without disabilities Despite substantive improvements and movement toward inclusive education many low and middle income countries LMICs continue to struggle with accurately identifying and supporting students with disabilities including knowing how to effectively screen evaluate and qualify students for additional services Hayes Dombrowski Shefcyk Bulat 2018a These challenges stem from the lack of policies practices and qualified staff related to screening and identification As a result many students with less apparent disabilities such as children with learning disabilities remain unidentified and do not receive the academic supports they need to succeed in school Friend Bursuck 2012 This guide attempts to address the lack of appropriate useful disability screening and identification systems and services as countries look to educate all students in inclusive settings Specifically this guide introduces viable options for screening and identification related to vision hearing and learning disabilities in inclusive classrooms in LMICs It also provides guidance on how LMICs can transition from an assessment center model toward a school based identification model that better serves an inclusive education system
