Atlas Of The Eastern Front 1941 45 General Military:

Atlas of the Eastern Front Robert Kirchubel, 2016-01-19 The Eastern Front of World War II was a nightmarish episode of human history on a scale the like of which the world had never seen and most likely never will see again This expansive collection of maps offers a visual guide to the theater that decided the fate of the war spanning the thousands of miles from Berlin to the outskirts of Moscow Stalingrad East Prussia and all the way back The accuracy and detail of the military cartography found in this volume illuminates the enormity of the campaign revealing the staggering dimensions of distance covered and human losses suffered by both sides

A History of the Second World War in 100 Maps Jeremy Black, 2020-11-18 The First World War was marked by an exceptional expansion in the use and production of military cartography But World War II took things even further employing maps charts reconnaissance and the systematic recording and processing of geographical and topographical information on an unprecedented scale As Jeremy Black one of the world's leading military and cartographic historians convincingly shows in this lavish full color book it is impossible to understand the events and outcomes of the Second World War without deep reference to mapping at all levels In World War II maps themselves became the weapons A History of the Second World War in 100 Maps traces how military cartography developed from simply recording and reflecting history to having a decisive impact on events of a global scale Drawing on one hundred key maps from the unparalleled collections of the British Library and other sources many of which have never been published in book form before Jeremy Black takes us from the prewar mapping programs undertaken by both Germany and the United Kingdom in the mid 1930s through the conflict's end a decade later Black shows how the development of maps led directly to the planning of the complex and fluid maneuvers that defined the European theater in World War II for example aerial reconnaissance photography allowed for the charting of beach gradients and ocean depths in the runup to the D Day landings and the subsequent troop movements at Normandy would have been impossible without the help of situation maps and photos In the course of the conflict both in Europe and the Pacific the realities of climate terrain and logistics recorded on maps overcame the Axis powers Maps also became propaganda tools as the pages of Time outlined the directions of the campaigns and the Allies dropped maps from their aircraft In this thrilling and unique book Jeremy Black blends his singular cartographic and military expertise into a captivating overview of World War II from the air sea and sky making clear how fundamental maps were to every aspect of this unforgettable global conflict

Hitler's Soldiers Ben H. Shepherd, 2016-01-01 A penetrating study of the German army's military campaigns relations with the Nazi regime and complicity in Nazi crimes across occupied Europe For decades after 1945 it was generally believed that the German army professional and morally decent had largely stood apart from the SS Gestapo and other corps of the Nazi machine Ben Shepherd draws on a wealth of primary sources and recent scholarship to convey a much darker more complex picture For the first time the German army is examined throughout the Second World War across all combat theaters and occupied regions and from multiple perspectives its battle performance social composition relationship with the Nazi state and involvement in war crimes and military occupation This was a true people's army drawn from across German society and reflecting that society as it existed under the Nazis Without the army and its conquests abroad Shepherd explains the Nazi regime could not have perpetrated its crimes against Jews prisoners of war and civilians in occupied countries The author examines how the army was complicit in these crimes and why some soldiers units and higher commands were more complicit than others Shepherd also reveals the reasons for the army's early battlefield successes and its mounting defeats up to 1945 the latter due not only to Allied superiority and Hitler's mismanagement as commander in chief but also to the failings moral political economic strategic and operational of the army's own leadership

Aces at Kursk Christopher A Lawrence, 2024-07-25 The Battle of Kursk in July 1943 is known for being the largest tank battle in history A Russian victory it marked the decisive end of the German offensive capability on the Eastern Front and set the scene for the Soviet successes that followed While many have focused on the tank engagements especially the Battle of Prokhorovka there was an intense air battle going on overhead that was bigger than the Battle of Britain As part of the German offensive the Luftwaffe's VIII Air Corps deployed around 1 100 aircraft in the south alone while the opposing Soviet Second and Seventeenth air armies initially deployed over 1 600 aircraft There was a similar effort surrounding the German attack in the north The battle in the south began with a Soviet air strike on German airfields and a fight for control of the air that continued throughout the day across the front On the first day of the battle 5 July 1943 the Germans flew at least 2 387 sorties in the south while the two Soviet air armies flew 1 688 sorties That first day of battle resulted in 19 to 27 German planes and 189 Soviet aircraft shot down This was an aerial engagement like no other ever seen before Involved on the German side were the 52nd and 3rd Fighter Wings The 52nd Fighter Wing was the most accomplished fighter wing in history and many of its top aces were involved in the combats over the Kursk battlefield These included Walter Krupinski 197 claimed kills in the war G nther Rall the third highest scoring ace in history 275 claimed kills and the highest scoring ace in history Erich Hartmann 352 claimed kills Opposing them were what were to become three of the top five Soviet aces Kirill Yevstigneyev 53 claimed kills Nikolai Gulayev 55 claimed kills and the top scoring Allied ace of the war Ivan Kozhedub 62 claimed kills This was indeed the battle of the aces But there was also the massive ground attack effort by both sides including the Junkers Ju 87 Stuka fitted with 37mm anti tank guns flown by the man who would become most decorated soldier of the Third Reich Hans Ulrich Rudel The aerial battle involved hundreds of Soviet Sturmoviks or IL 2s Stalin s armored ground attack plane The battle featured the famous attack by Luftwaffe Hs 129s and Fw 190s on Soviet armor on 8 July 1943 Aces at Kursk is not just a war story but a revealing investigation that analyses the entire air battle that turned the tide of the war on the Eastern Front Historical Abstracts Eric H.
