Gamification and Inclusion Ioana Boghian,Gabriel Mareş,2025-09-26 This volume addresses issues related to inclusive education and gamification and offers practical ideas for using games and gamified learning as effective methodological tools in inclusive education and in promoting inclusion in education The work is structured into a predominantly theoretical section and an applicative illustrative one The first part shows how gamification renders the educational context more inclusive and efficient by drawing on recent approaches to identify educators attitudes towards inclusion and by proposing ways to build pro inclusive attitudes and behaviors among educators at all educational levels It also discusses challenges and solutions to ensure the right to education for all in the context of online education and for advancing curriculum innovation ideas to foster inclusion The second part of the volume promotes inclusive attitudes and behaviors among educators and educational resource developers by providing examples of best practices and methodological suggestions on using gamification to foster and promote inclusion in class and other educational environments The volume addresses an issue that is of main concern across the globe namely ensuring the right to education for all learners and helps building 21st century skills and empowering learners with special needs including gifted students It appeals to specialists in education and therapy educational technology developers and researchers

Beliefs and Attitudes in Mathematics Education Jürgen Maasz,Wolfgang Schlöglmann,2019-02-11 During the last fifteen years research on affect has been of considerable interest to the mathematics education community Researchers with an interest in mathematics and gender had a look at aspects of affect in their research studies right from the beginning Similarly many studies of mathematical problem solving had a growing interest in affect The main focus of research are now student beliefs and teacher beliefs which are identified as important factors for those influencing learning and teaching The thirteen chapters of this book involve many aspect of research on affect like theoretical problems of defining beliefs the complex relationship between content knowledge and affect espoused beliefs and teaching practice domain specific beliefs as well as the relationship between special learning conditions and affective reactions Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Teaching Kulwinder Maude,Lucy

Davies,2025-01-08 It has never been more important for trainee teachers to understand diversity equity and inclusion from a teaching perspective This text provides an up to date grounded and full understanding of the injustices and inequalities that impact our classrooms It challenges trainees to rethink their own assumptions and biases and to take time to explore how schools and teachers can be active agents of positive change It empowers new teachers to be confident in their allyship of marginalised groups and disadvantaged children Through practical advice and support this book enables teachers to bring diversity equity and inclusion into the classroom Attitudes to World Englishes Hyejeong Ahn,2017-03-27 This book critically examines South Korean English teachers awareness of and attitude towards eight varieties of English and how they respond to the proposal of a World Englishes approach in their teaching practice It showcases the deeply rooted favouritism towards American English and illustrates how relevant challenges arising from this attitude can be addressed to meet the changing needs of future participants in international contexts This book argues that disclosing and questioning the hidden discursive practices embedded in the English education policy in South Korea may be the first step in raising awareness of and in changing negative attitudes towards embracing diversified Englishes The findings are systemically discussed in relation to the implications that researching awareness and attitude has for pedagogical considerations and for teacher training This book aims to contribute to the field of WE where studies relating to the South Korean context are largely limited

Education, Development, and Evaluation Alyson L. Lavigne, Thomas L. Good, 2019-03-26 Enhancing Teacher Education Development and Evaluation examines the complex role that recent educational reforms have played in the teaching profession The failure of programs like Race to the Top to benefit teaching and learning outcomes has yielded many questions about what went wrong and how a research based plan for true systemic progress could actually work Covering inaccurate narratives about schools and student achievement evidence for teacher effectiveness and the history and repercussions of Race to the Top this book culminates with a proposal for future research and policy initiatives that more accurately and more equitably prioritize the measurement and improvement of teaching and learning Five concise yet comprehensive chapters invite teacher and principal educators teachers and school leaders in training district administrators policymakers and other stakeholders to better understand the implications of and possible paths beyond misguided reform efforts An overview of the recent past and an inspiration for the immediate future this definitive analysis offers insights into how more reasonable empirically derived strategies will ultimately foster more successful schools Effective Teaching

Around the World Ridwan Maulana, Michelle Helms-Lorenz, Robert M. Klassen, 2023-06-27 This open access book brings together theoretical empirical methodological and practical insights from various countries on effective teaching It particularly focuses on discussing issues pertaining to effective teaching behaviour including definitions and conceptualizations measurement differences and importance to student outcomes from international perspectives The book will draw upon the rich cultures with diverse contexts involving Asia Australia Africa America and Europe which serve as the background setting to better understand teaching quality from a wide spectrum of educational systems and performances It shows that effective teaching behaviour can be conceptualized and operationalized uniformly using specific frameworks and measures but also addresses some limitations that should be tackled The book discusses promising ways to measure and compare effective teaching behaviour from classical test theory CTT as well as item response theory IRT perspectives It indicates that effective teaching behaviour in diverse countries follows a systematic level of complexity which provides an avenue for ongoing teacher education and teacher professional development It discusses the interrelated domains of effective teaching behaviour including contemporary trends of differentiation The book continues with examining similarities and differences in effective teaching behaviour across countries It builds on the understanding of cultural traditions across countries as profoundly reflected in the classroom processes Literate Lives Amy Seely Flint, 2007-11-09 Literate Lives Teaching Reading and Writing in Elementary Classrooms invites readers to consider the complexities of the reading process in diverse settings The text is designed to meet the challenges and needs of undergraduate and graduate teacher candidates in elementary education programs helping them to have a better first year in the classroom experience The text introduces teacher candidates to the notion that reading is a complex multi layered process that begins early in a child s life Reading by all accounts is more than decoding symbols on a page While this is one component of the reading process it is important for teacher candidates to see a broader more complete picture of reading Given the role that reading plays in the elementary school curriculum it is imperative that teachers have a well developed understanding of the reading process and what it means to be a teacher of readers Literate Lives Teaching Reading and Writing in the Elementary Classroom covers the major theories and application strategies of the reading process as well as current debates in the field using a unique framework that builds upon the following themes believing that literacy is based in social cultural and historical contexts assuming an inquiry stance being problem posers and wondering why using kidwatching Goodman 1985 as an assessment tool to make informed instructional decisions recognizing and using the multiple literacies that children bring to the classroom lingering and reflecting on one s decisions in light of what one knows and believes
