FOLORUNSHO MEJABI, 2015-11-14 Nothing is more curious and awkward than the relationship of two people who only know each other with their eyes who meet and observe each other daily even hourly and who keep up the impression of disinterest either because of morals or because of a mental abnormality Between them there is listlessness and pent up curiosity the hysteria of an unsatisfied unnaturally suppressed need for communion and also a kind of tense respect Because man loves and honours man as long as he is not able to judge him and desire is a product of lacking knowledge Thomas Mann Death in Venice and Other Tales Affect, Emotion, and Children's Literature Kristine Moruzi, Michelle Smith, Elizabeth Bullen, 2017-09-01 This volume explores the relationship between representation affect and emotion in texts for children and young adults It demonstrates how texts for young people function as tools for emotional socialisation enculturation and political persuasion The collection provides an introduction to this emerging field and engages with the representation of emotions ranging from shame grief and anguish to compassion and happiness as psychological and embodied states and cultural constructs with ideological significance It also explores the role of narrative empathy in relation to emotional socialisation and to the ethics of representation in relation to politics social justice and identity categories including gender ethnicity disability and sexuality Addressing a range of genres including advice literature novels picture books and film this collection examines contemporary historical and canonical children s and young adult literature to highlight the variety of approaches to emotion and affect in these texts and to consider the ways in which these approaches offer new perspectives on these texts The individual chapters apply a variety of theoretical approaches and perspectives including cognitive poetics narratology and poststructuralism to the analysis of affect and emotion in children s and young adult literature New Directions in Children's Gothic Anna Jackson, 2017-03-27 Children s literature today is dominated by the gothic mode and it is in children s gothic fictions that we find the implications of cultural change most radically questioned and explored This collection of essays looks at what is happening in the children s Gothic now when traditional monsters have become the heroes when new monsters have come into play when globalisation brings Harry Potter into China and yaoguai into the children s Gothic and when childhood itself and children s literature as a genre can no longer be thought of as an uncontested space apart from the debates and power struggles of an adult domain We look in detail at series such as The Mortal Instruments Twilight Chaos Walking The Power of Five Skulduggery Pleasant and Cirque du Freak at novels about witches and novels about changelings at the Gothic in China Japan and Oceania and at authors including Celia Rees Frances Hardinge Alan Garner and Laini Taylor amongst many others At a time when the energies and anxieties of children s novels can barely be contained anymore within the genre of children s literature spilling over into YA and adult literature we need to pay attention Weird things are happening and they matter Whitaker's Shorts: Five Years in Review Bloomsbury Publishing, 2013-11-07 Now in its 146th edition Whitaker s Almanack is the definitive reference guide containing a comprehensive overview of every aspect of UK infrastructure and an excellent introduction to world politics Available only as ebooks Whitaker s Shorts are selected themed sections from Whitaker s Almanack portable and perfect for those with specific interests within the print edition Whitaker s Shorts Five Years in Review includes a digest of the year s events from 2008/9 to 2012/13 in the UK and abroad and articles covering subjects as diverse as Archaeology Conservation Business and Finance Opera Dance Film and Weather There is also an A Z listing of all the results for the major sporting events from

Meghan Gilbert-Hickey, Miranda A. Green-Barteet, 2021-04-22 Winner of the Children's Literature Association's 2023 Book Award Contributions by Malin Alkestrand Joshua Yu Burnett Sean P Connors Jill Coste Meghan Gilbert Hickey Miranda A Green Barteet Sierra Hale Kathryn Strong Hansen Elizabeth Ho Esther L Jones Sarah Olutola Alex Polish Zara Rix Susan Tan and Roberta Seelinger Trites Race in Young Adult Speculative Fiction offers a sustained analysis of race and representation in young adult speculative fiction YASF The collection considers how characters of color are represented in YASF how they contribute to and participate in speculative worlds how race affects or influences the structures of speculative worlds and how race and racial ideologies are implicated in YASF This collection also examines how race and racism are discussed in YASF or if indeed race and racism are discussed at all Essays explore such notable and popular works as the Divergent series The Red Queen The Lunar Chronicles and the Infernal Devices trilogy They consider the effects of colorblind ideology and postracialism on YASF a genre that is often seen as progressive in its representation of adolescent protagonists Simply put colorblindness silences those who believe and whose experiences demonstrate that race and racism do continue to matter In examining how some YASF texts normalize many of our social structures and hierarchies this collection examines how race and racism are represented in the genre and considers how hierarchies of race are reinscribed in some texts and transgressed in others Contributors point toward the potential of YASF to address and interrogate racial inequities in the contemporary West and beyond They critique texts that fall short of this possibility and they articulate ways in which readers and critics alike might nonetheless locate diversity within narratives This is a collection troubled by the lingering emphasis on colorblindness in YASF but it is also the work of scholars who love the genre and celebrate its progress toward inclusivity and who further see in it an enduring future for intersectional identity The Publishers Weekly ,2009
