Astronomy And Astrology In The Islamic World The New Edinburgh Islamic Surveys Eup:

Astronomy and Astrology in the Islamic World Stephen P. Blake, 2016-04-08 It was the astronomers and mathematicians of the Islamic world who provided the theories and concepts that paved the way from the geocentric theories of Claudius Ptolemy in the second century AD to the heliocentric breakthroughs of Nicholas Copernicus and Johannes Kepler in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Algebra the Arabic numeral system and trigonometry all these and more originated in the Muslim East and undergirded an increasingly accurate and sophisticated understanding of the movements of the Sun Moon and planets This nontechnical overview of the Islamic advances in the heavenly sciences allows the general reader to appreciate for the first time the absolutely crucial role that Muslim scientists played in the overall development of astronomy and astrology in the Eurasian world

Muslims in Western Europe Jonas Otterbeck, 2015-11-12 A useful introduction to the social political cultural and religious position of Muslims living in contemporary Europe It describes the history of early European Muslims and outlines the causes and courses of twentieth century Muslim immigration

Twelver Shiism Andrew J. Newman, 2013-11-20 Charts the history and development of Twelver Shiism As many as 40 different Shi'i groups existed in the 9th and 10th centuries only 3 forms remain Why is Twelver Shiism one of them As the established faith in modern Iran the majority faith in Iraq and areas in the Gulf and with its adherents forming sizeable minorities elsewhere in the region it is arguably the most successful branch of Shiism Andrew Newman charts the history Twelver Shiism uncovering the development of the key distinctive doctrines and practices which ensured its survival in the face of repeated challenges He argues that the key to the faith's endurance has been its ability to institutionalise responses to the changing often localised circumstances in which the community has found itself thereby remaining remarkably resilient in the face of both internal disagreements and external opposition

Contemporary Issues in Islam Asma Afsaruddin, 2015-08-31 This book deals with certain hot button contemporary issues in Islam that are often the focus of public scrutiny including the Sharia jihad the caliphate women's status and interfaith relations Notably it places the discussion of these topics within a longer historical framework in order to reveal their multiple interpretations and contested applications over time Most public and some academic discourses however present the Islamic tradition as unchanging and therefore unable to respond to the modern world Such an ahistorical approach fosters the belief that Muslim and Western societies are destined to clash with one another In contrast this book allows the reader to see the diversity and transformations within Islamic thought over time Focusing on this internal diversity permits us to appreciate the scriptural and intellectual resources available within the Islamic tradition for responding to the challenges of modernity even as it interrogates and shapes modernity itself

Muslim Spain Reconsidered Richard Hitchcock, 2014-02-18 This introduction to Muslim Spain covers the period from 711 to 1502 giving readers a substantial overview of what it was that made it a unique and successful society and of its powerful legacy in the formation of modern Spain Using a chronological framework and pushing the main historical developments to the forefront the author keeps in view the shifting social patterns caused by the changing balance between town and country major and minor dynasties foreign groupings and repeated invasions from North Africa He also includes discussion of topics such as inter faith relations multi ethnic competing groups and how intellectual life was enriched by pluralism and influence from abroad

Astronomy and Astrology in the Medieval Islamic World Edward S. Kennedy, 2024-12-11 This collection of studies by Edward Kennedy looks first at questions of spherical astronomy celestial mapping and planetary models and then deals with astrological calculations Throughout the author emphasises the importance of advances in mathematics for understanding the development of medieval Arabic sciences This collection of studies based on previously unexploited manuscript sources in Arabic and Persian They were written by authors from the 9th through the 15th centuries whose locations reached from south China in the east through Central Asia the Middle and Near East and North Africa to Spain in the west The topics are predominately astronomical rather than astrological The former include eclipse predictions problems in spherical astronomy non ptolemaic planetary theory and the achievements of Ulugh Beg and his observatory Astrological subjects treated are the method of calculating the ascendant and how to determine astrological houses and lots An astrological history of the career of Genghis Khan is also described

Islamic Astronomy and Geography David A. King, 2022-02-13 This volume of 12 studies mainly published during the past 15 years begins with an overview of the Islamic astronomy covering not only sophisticated mathematical astronomy and instrumentation but also simple folk astronomy and the ways in which astronomy was used in the service of religion It continues with discussions of the importance of Islamic instruments and scientific manuscript illustrations Three studies deal with the regional schools that developed in Islamic astronomy in this case Egypt and the Maghrib Another focuses on a curious astrological table for calculating the length of life of any individual The notion of the world centred on the sacred Kaaba in Mecca inspired both astronomers and proponents of folk astronomy to propose methods for finding the qibla or sacred direction towards the Kaaba their activities are surveyed here The interaction between the mathematical and folk traditions in astronomy is then illustrated by an 11th century text on the qibla in Transoxania The last three studies deal with an account of the geodetic measurements sponsored by the Caliph al Ma m n in the 9th century a world map in the tradition of the 11th century polymath al B r n alas corrupted by careless copying and a table of geographical coordinates from 15th century Egypt

A Survey of Islamic Astronomical Tables Edward Stewart Kennedy, 1956 The source material for the study of medieval oriental astronomy consists of Byzantine Greek Sanscrit Hebrew Arabic Persian and Turkish astronomical and astrological manuscripts If one desires to build up a detailed picture of Islamic astronomy one can choose material from these available manuscripts Of these manuscripts it is possible to isolate a group of works the zijes A zij consists of the numerical tables and accompanying explanation sufficient to measure time and to compute planetary and stellar positions appearance and eclipses This paper is a survey of the number distribution contents and relations between zijes written in Arabic or Persian during the period from the 8th through the 15th centuries Illustrations Oversize Astronomy and Astrology in al-Andalus and the Maghrib Julio Samsó, 2023-05-31

This new volume of papers by Julio Sams deals with the development of astronomy and astrology in al Andalus and the Maghrib between the 10th and the 19th centuries Opening with a survey of the social history of the exact sciences in al Andalus the book then looks at astronomical tables the first stages of the introduction of al Khwarizmi s and al Battani s tables through the school of Maslama al Majriti the development of Ibn al Zarqualluh Azarquiel s theories in Maghribi zijes Ibn al Banna and Ibn Azzuz and the abandonment of this tradition towards the end of the 14th century From this period onwards new Eastern zijes Muhyi al Din al Maghribi Ibn al Shatir Ulugh Beg are introduced in the Maghrib and towards the beginning of the 17th century a translation of Abraham Zacut and Jos Vizinho s Almanach Perpetuum end of the 15th century becomes well known in the whole Islamic world from Morocco to the Yemen As well as zijes themselves the author also deals with theoretical astronomy the use of an elliptical deferent for Mercury in Ibn al Zarqualluh s equatorium and the criticisms of Ibn al Haytham and Jabir b Aflah on Ptolemy s determination of the parameters of the same planet and with the use of zijes for the calculation of horoscopes and an experimental astrological method for the correction of mean motion planetary tables Ibn Azzuz

A History of Arabic Astronomy George Saliba, 1994-03 Presents a series of previously published but not readily available articles by the author written over 20 years all devoted to the study of various aspects of non Ptolemaic astronomy in medieval Islam The texts which formed the subject of these studies were all written in Arabic and represent a small sample of the astronomy writings from the 11th to the 15th centuries The main thesis is that the time often called the period of decline in Islamic intellectual history was from the point of view of astronomy a very productive age Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Astronomy in the Service of Islam David A. King, 2024-12-11 Based on a wide variety of previously unstudied sources these articles explain how science was applied to three aspects of Islamic ritual in the Middle Ages the regulation of the lunar calendar the organisation of the times of the five daily prayers and the determination of the sacred direction qibla towards the Kaaba in Mecca Simple procedures of folk astronomy were used by the scholars of religious law who determined popular practice more complicated mathematical methods were provided by the scientists and this proved a powerful incentive for the development of scientific analysis and research Some of these procedures were to have far reaching consequences For example the astronomical alignment of the Kaaba known to various medieval writers but long forgotten led to the adoption of similar alignments for the qibla and the final articles show how these were calculated whether from astronomical observation or geographical computation and their impact on the orientation of religious and secular architecture across the Islamic world C est partir d une grande diversit de sources inexplor es que ces articles expliquent comment la science avait t appliqu e a trois aspects du rituel islamique au Moyen Age la r gulation du calendrier lunaire l organisation des heures assign es aux cinq pri res quotidiennes et l tablissement de la direction sacr e qibla vers la Kaaba de la Mecque Des proc d s simples d astronomie populaire taient utilis s par les rudits en droit religieux qui d cidaient de la pratique populaire des méthodes mathématiques plus complexes taient offertes par les hommes de science ce qui en effet s'avéra être une motivation puissante dans le développement de l'analyse et de la recherche scientifique Certains de ces procédés eurent des conséquences d'une grande portée par la suite L'alignement astronomique de la Kaaba pour ne reprendre qu'un exemple connu

Signs in the Heavens Imad-ad-Dean Ahmad, 1992 Many scientists have come to realize that science and religion can nurture each other One example was the flowering of science in the first centuries of Islam For Dr Imad ad Dean Ahmad a Muslim and an astronomer studying the universe is an expression of faith Scientists and non scientists should appreciate the insights in this passionate and lucid book Dr Ahmad's book has been widely acclaimed for its insights into the Islamic approach to science and the spiritual foundations of Western scientists such as Galileo Newton and Einstein A Palestinian trained at Harvard he offers a unique perspective of the role of religion in science

A Survey of Islamic Astronomical Tables Edward S. Kennedy, 1989

The Light of the World Joseph ibn Nahmias, Robert G. Morrison, 2016-03-01 This book contains an edition with an extensive introduction translation and commentary of The Light of the World a text on theoretical astronomy by Joseph Ibn Nahmias composed in Judeo Arabic around 1400 C E in the Iberian Peninsula As the only text on theoretical astronomy written by a Jew in any variety of Arabic this work is evidence for a continuing relationship between Jewish and Islamic thought in the late fourteenth and early fifteenth centuries The text's most lasting effect may have been exerted via its passage to Renaissance Italy where it influenced scholars at the University of Padua in the early sixteenth century With its crucial role in the development of European astronomy as well as the physical sciences under Islam and in Jewish culture The Light of the World is an important episode in Islamic intellectual history Jewish civilization and the history of astronomy

Reflections on Observational Astronomy in the Medieval Islamic Period S. Mohammad Mozaffari, 2024-12-13 This volume presents comprehensive investigations into various facets of observational astronomy during the medieval Islamic period spanning from the ninth to the seventeenth centuries The chapters compiled here originally published between 2012 and 2018 have undergone significant revisions to enhance their accuracy and explore a broad spectrum of topics organized into five main sections Reflections on Observational Astronomy in the Medieval Islamic Period begins with solar astronomy providing a detailed evaluation of Islamic astronomers' determinations of fundamental solar parameters In the realm of lunar astronomy it examines the gradual endorsement and rationalization of annular solar eclipses along with an exclusive historical account of predicting and observing such an event in 1283 CE The section on planetary astronomy scrutinizes empirical discoveries that distinguish between the precession of equinoxes and the motion of apogees as well as significant enhancements to Ptolemy's parameters for planetary latitudes Stellar astronomy is explored through a non Ptolemaic star table that encompasses observations from ninth century Baghdad to thirteenth century Mar gha The final section examines observational instruments focusing on those constructed during the second period of activities at the Mar gha observatory A critical analysis of astronomical observations conducted at the Mar gha and Istanbul observatories is a key focus of this work This book will be invaluable to those interested in the historical progression of exact sciences the scope distinctive aspects and caliber of experimental activities in medieval times and the interplay between theory and observation throughout history It is intended for historians scientists including astronomers and physicists and particularly historians of astronomy
