August Wilson Play Jitney Script:

Conversations with August Wilson Jackson R. Bryer, Mary C. Hartig, 2006 Collects a selection of the many interviews Wilson gave from 1984 to 2004 In the interviews the playwright covers at length and in detail his plays and his background He comments as well on such subjects as the differences between African Americans and whites his call for more black theater companies and his belief that African Americans made a mistake in assimilating themselves into the white mainstream He also talks about his major influences what he calls his four B s the blues writers James Baldwin and Amiri Baraka and painter Romare Bearden Wilson also discusses his writing process and his multiple collaborations with director Lloyd Richards Publisher description

August Wilson Patti Hartigan, 2024-08-27 The masterful The Wall Street Journal invaluable Los Angeles Times first authoritative biography of August Wilson the most important and successful American playwrighting of the late 20th century by a theater critic who knew him August Wilson wrote a series of ten plays celebrating African American life in the 20th century one play for each decade No other American playwright has completed such an ambitious oeuvre Two of the plays became successful films Fences starring Denzel Washington and Viola Davis and Ma Rainey s Black Bottom starring Viola Davis and Chadwick Boseman Fences and The Piano Lesson won the Pulitzer Prize for Drama Fences won the Tony Award for Best Play and years after Wilson s death in 2005 Jitney earned a Tony Award for Best Revival of a Play Through his brilliant use of vernacular speech Wilson developed unforgettable characters who epitomized the trials and triumphs of the African American experience He said that he didn t research his plays but wrote them from the blood s memory a sense of racial history that he believed African Americans shared Author and theater critic Patti Hartigan traced his ancestry back to slavery and his plays echo with uncanny similarities to the history of his ancestors She interviewed Wilson many times before his death and traces his life from his childhood in Pittsburgh where nine of the plays take place to Broadway She also interviewed scores of friends theater colleagues and family members and conducted extensive research to tell the absorbing richly detailed Chicago Tribune story of a writer who left an indelible imprint on American theater and opened the door for future playwrights of color

I Ain't Sorry for Nothin' I Done Joan Herrington, 1998 Limelight The most successful African American playwright of his time August Wilson is a dominant presence on Broadway and in regional theaters throughout the country Herrington traces the roots of Wilson s drama back to the visual artists and jazz musicians who inspired award winning plays like Ma Rainey s Come and Gone Fences and The Piano Lesson From careful analysis of evolving playscripts and from interviews with Wilson and theater professionals who have worked closely with him Herrington offers a portrait of the playwright as thinker and craftsman

The Theatre of August Wilson Alan Nadel, 2018-05-17 The first comprehensive study of August Wilson s drama introduces the major themes and motifs that unite Wilson s ten play cycle about African American life in each decade of the twentieth century Framed by Wilson s life experiences and informed by his extensive interviews this book provides fresh coherent detailed readings of each play well situated in the extant scholarship It also provides an overview of the cycle as a whole demonstrating how it comprises a compelling interrogation of American culture and historiography Keenly aware of the musical paradigms informing Wilson's dramatic technique Nadel shows how jazz and particularly the blues provide the structural mechanisms that allow Wilson to examine alternative notions of time property and law Wilson's improvisational logics become crucial to expressing his notions of black identity and resituating the relationship of literal to figurative in the African American community The final two chapters include contributions by scholars Harry J Elam Jr and Donald E Pease August Wilson Alan Nadel, 2010-05-16 Contributors to this collection of 15 essays are academics in English theater and African American studies They focus on the second half of Wilson's century cycle of plays examining each play within the larger context of the cycle and highlighting themes within and across particular plays Some topics discussed include business in the street in Jitney and Gem of the Ocean contesting black male responsibilities in Jitney the holistic blues of Seven Guitars violence as history lesson in Seven Guitars and King Hedley II and ritual death and Wilson's female Christ The book offers an index of plays critics and theorists but not a subject index Nadel is chair of American literature and culture at the University of Kentucky The Cambridge Companion to August Wilson Christopher Bigsby, 2007-11-29 One of America's most powerful and original dramatists August Wilson offered an alternative history of the twentieth century as seen from the perspective of black Americans He celebrated the lives of those seemingly pushed to the margins of national life but who were simultaneously protagonists of their own drama and evidence of a vital and compelling community Decade by decade he told the story of a people with a distinctive history who forged their own future aware of their roots in another time and place but doing something more than just survive Wilson deliberately addressed black America but in doing so discovered an international audience Alongside chapters addressing Wilson's life and career and the wider context of his plays this Companion dedicates individual chapters to each play in his ten play cycle which are ordered chronologically demonstrating Wilson's notion of an unfolding history of the twentieth century A Masterclass in Dramatic Writing Janet Neipris, 2016-07-15 A Masterclass in Dramatic Writing addresses all three genres of dramatic writing for theatre film and TV in a comprehensive one semester 14 week masterclass for the dramatic writer This book is tightly focused on the practical outcome of completing a first draft and first rewrite of a dramatic work drawing on Professor Janet Neipris many years of experience as the head of Dramatic Writing at NYU Tisch The fourteen chapters organized like a semester take the reader week by week and step by step through writing a first draft of an original play screenplay or TV pilot while also teaching the core principles of dramatic writing Chapters include Beginnings Creating Complex Characters Dialogue Escalating Conflicts Endings Checkpoints Comedy and Adaptation and there are Weekly Exercises and progressive Assignments This book is perfect for professional writers teachers and students of dramatic writing as well as anyone who wants to complete their first dramatic work An award winning playwright and Professor of Dramatic Writing at NYU Janet Neipris has written for Screen

The Dramatic Vision of August Wilson Sandra Garrett Shannon, 1995 In The Dramatic Vision of August Wilson Sandra Shannon follows the playwright's path through each decade From the outset she considers how he uses poetry the blues Romare Bearden's art and other cultural artifacts to lead him to imagined sites of pain and resignation healing and renewal in the collective memory of black America It is in these places of defeat and victory Shannon demonstrates that Wilson creates drama as he excavates examines and reclaims the past Although Wilson diverts attention away from factual details and focuses on the human costs of family dislocation chronic unemployment or cultural alienation Shannon illustrates how fully the plays are grounded in credible historical contexts from slavery and Emancipation to the aftermath of World War II the 1960s and the Vietnam War Moreover she identifies and analyzes the themes that recur in some plays and branch off in new directions in others including the dislocations that attended black migration to the North and communication gaps between black men and women As she examines each of the plays in Wilson's dramatic history of the African American experience Shannon conveys the broad range of his dramatic vision
