Introduction by G R Evans Saint Augustine. The City of God Against the Pagans [De Civitate Dei Contra Paganos] in Seven Volumes.... Augustin (saint.),1968 Saint Augustine Saint Augustine (Bishop of Hippo.),1960 City of God Saint Augustine (Bishop of Hippo.),1984 The City of God Saint Augustine,2022-03-19 The City of God Augustine of HippoThe City of God Against the Pagans Latin De civitate Dei contra paganos often called The City of God is a book of Christian philosophy written in Latin by Augustine of Hippo in the early 5th century AD The book was in response to allegations that Christianity brought about the decline of Rome and is considered one of Augustine s most important works standing alongside The Confessions The Enchiridion On Christian Doctrine and On the Trinity BackgroundThe sack of Rome by the Visigoths in 410 left Romans in a deep state of shock and many Romans saw it as punishment for abandoning traditional Roman religion for Christianity In response to these accusations and in order to console Christians Augustine wrote The City of God arguing for the truth of Christianity over competing religions and philosophies and that Christianity was not responsible for the Sack of Rome but instead was responsible for its success He attempted to console Christians writing that even if the earthly rule of the Empire was imperiled it was the City of God that would ultimately triumph Augustine s eyes were fixed on Heaven a theme of many Christian works of Late Antiquity and despite Christianity s designation as the official religion of the Empire Augustine declared its message to be spiritual rather than political Christianity he argued should be concerned with the mystical heavenly city the New Jerusalem rather than with earthly politics The book presents human history as a conflict between what Augustine calls the Earthly City often colloquially referred to as the City of Man and the City of God a conflict that is destined to end in victory for the latter The City of God is marked by people who forego earthly pleasure to dedicate themselves to the eternal truths of God now revealed fully in the Christian faith The Earthly City on the other hand consists of people who have immersed themselves in the cares and pleasures of the present passing world Augustine s thesis depicts the history of the world as universal warfare between God and the Devil This metaphysical war is not limited by time but only by geography on Earth City of God Saint Augustine,2012 The City of God deals with issues concerning God martyrdom Jews and other aspects of Christian philosophy The City of God is one of Augustine s major works a designation that includes The Confessions On Christian Doctrine and On the Trinity Augustine is the most influential Father of the Church in the West and through Western Christianity The City of God profoundly shaped Western civilization The City of God Against the Pagans Agustín (Santo, Obispo de Hipona),1988 On the City of God by Augustine 354 430 CE unfolds God s action in the progress of the world s history and propounds the superiority of Christian beliefs over pagan in adversity Augustinus 354 430 CE son of a pagan Patricius of Tagaste in North Africa and his Christian wife Monica while studying in Africa to become a rhetorician plunged into a turmoil of philosophical and psychological doubts in search of truth joining for a time the Manichaean society He became a teacher of grammar at Tagaste and lived much under the influence of his mother and his friend Alypius About 383 he went to Rome and soon after to Milan as a teacher of rhetoric being now attracted by the philosophy of the Sceptics and of the Neo Platonists His studies of Paul s letters with Alypius and the preaching of Bishop Ambrose led in 386 to his rejection of all sensual habits and to his famous conversion from mixed beliefs to Christianity He returned to Tagaste and there founded a religious community In 395 or 396 he became Bishop of Hippo and was henceforth engrossed with duties writing and controversy He died at Hippo during the successful siege by the Vandals From Augustine s large output the Loeb Classical Library offers that great autobiography the Confessions in two volumes On the City of God seven volumes which unfolds God s action in the progress of the world s history and propounds the superiority of Christian beliefs over pagan in adversity and a selection of Letters which are important for the study of ecclesiastical history and Augustine s relations with other theologians 5: Book 16.-book 18., chapters 1.-35 ,1965
