

10TH ANNIVERSARY
EDITION
A NOVEL BOOK 2 OF THE
SOUTHERN REACH SERIES

A detailed illustration of a white rabbit, possibly a Flemish Giant, shown in profile facing right. The rabbit's back and hindquarters are covered in a large, vibrant, abstract pattern of swirling colors including blue, purple, green, and red, resembling a stylized floral or marbled design. The rabbit has long, upright ears and is surrounded by various flowers and butterflies. To the left, there are red tulips and a white daisy. Above the rabbit, a red flower and a white daisy are visible. To the right, a large, colorful butterfly with green, blue, and purple wings is prominent. Several other smaller butterflies in various colors (blue, green, red) are scattered around the rabbit. The entire scene is set against a solid black background.

Surreal Entanglements Louise Economides, Laura Shackelford, 2021-05-18 This edited collection approaches the most pressing discourses of the Anthropocene and posthumanist culture through the surreal yet instructive lens of Jeff VanderMeer's fiction In contrast to universalist and essentializing ways of responding to new material realities VanderMeer's work invites us to re-imagine human subjectivity and other collectivities in the light of historically unique entanglements we face today the ecological technological aesthetic epistemological and political challenges of life in the Anthropocene era Situating these messy multi-scalar material complexities of life in close relation to their ecological material and colonialist histories his fiction renders them at once troublingly familiar and strangely generative of other potentialities and insight The collection measures VanderMeer's work as a new kind of speculative surrealism his texts capturing the strangeness of navigating a world in which nature has become radically uncanny due to global climate change and powerful bio-technologies

The first collection to survey academic engagements with VanderMeer this book brings together scholars in the fields of environmental literature science fiction genre studies American literary history philosophy of technology and digital cultures to reflect on the environmentally culturally aesthetically and politically central questions his fiction poses to predominant understandings of the Anthropocene Authority Jeff VanderMeer, 2014-05-06 The much anticipated second instalment in VanderMeer's Southern Reach trilogy In Annihilation Jeff VanderMeer introduced the mysteries of Area X a remote and lush terrain mysteriously sequestered from civilization It was the first volume of a projected trilogy well in advance of publication translation rights had sold all around the world and a major movie deal had been struck Just months later the second volume is here For thirty years the only human engagement with Area X has taken the form of a series of expeditions monitored by a secret agency called the Southern Reach After the disastrous twelfth expedition chronicled in Annihilation the Southern Reach is in disarray and John Rodriguez aka Control is the team's newly appointed head From a series of interrogations a cache of hidden notes and hours of profoundly troubling video footage the secrets of Area X begin to reveal themselves and what they expose pushes Control to confront disturbing truths about both himself and the agency he's promised to serve And the consequences will reach much farther than that The Southern Reach trilogy will conclude in fall 2014 with Acceptance Fantasy and Myth in the Anthropocene Marek Oziewicz, Brian Attebery, Tereza Dedinová, 2022-02-24 The first study to look at the intersection of the discourse of the Anthropocene within the two highly influential storytelling modes of fantasy and myth this book shows the need for stories that articulate visions of a biocentric ecological civilization Fantasy and myth have long been humanity's most advanced technologies for collective dreaming Today they are helping us adopt a biocentric lens re-kin us with other forms of life and assist us in the transition to an ecological civilization Deliberately moving away from dystopian narratives toward anticipatory imaginations of sustainable futures this volume blends chapters by top scholars in the fields of fantasy myth and Young Adult literature with personal reflections by award winning authors and illustrators of books for young audiences including Shaun Tan Jane Yolen Katherine Applegate and Joseph Bruchac Chapters cover the works of major fantasy authors such as J R R Tolkien Terry Pratchett J K Rowling China Miéville Barbara Henderson Jeanette Winterson John Crowley Richard Powers George R R Martin and Kim Stanley Robinson They range through narratives set in the UK USA Nigeria Ghana Pacific Islands New Zealand and Australia Across the chapters fantasy and myth are framed as spaces where visions of sustainable futures can be designed with most detail and nuance Rather than merely criticizing the ecocidal status quo the book asks how mythic narratives and fantastic stories can mobilize resistance around ideas necessary for the emergence of an ecological civilization Conversations with Colson Whitehead Derek C. Maus, 2019-03-12 Since the publication of his first novel The Intuitionist in 1999 Colson Whitehead b 1969 has been considered an important new voice in American literature His seven subsequent books have done little to contradict that initial assessment especially after 2016's The Underground Railroad spent many weeks at the top of bestseller lists and won numerous major literary awards including the Pulitzer Prize Ranging from 2001 to 2016 the twenty three interviews collected in Conversations with Colson Whitehead reveal the workings of one of America s most idiosyncratic and most successful literary minds Through these interviews it is clear that none of this well earned praise has gone to his head If anything he still seems inclined to present himself as an awkward misfit who writes about such offbeat subject matter as rival groups of elevator inspectors the insufficiency of off brand flesh colored bandages or a literalized alternate version of the Underground Railroad Whitehead speaks at length about matters related to his craft including his varied literary and nonliterary influences the particular methods of researching and writing that have proved valuable to telling his stories and the ways in which he has managed the rollercoaster life of a professional writer He also opens up about popular culture particularly the unconventional blend of music genre fiction B movies and comic books that he gleefully identifies as a passion that has persisted for him since his childhood

Tattooed Bodies James Martell,Erik Larsen,2022-01-20 The essays collected in Tattooed Bodies draw on a range of theoretical paradigms and empirical knowledge to investigate tattoos tattooing and our complex relations with marks on skin Engaging with diverse disciplinary perspectives in art history continental philosophy media studies psychoanalysis critical theory literary studies biopolitics and cultural anthropology the volume reflects the sheer diversity of meanings attributed to tattoos throughout history and across cultures Essays explore conceptualizations of tattoos and tattooing in Derrida Deleuze and Guattari Lacan Agamben and Jean Luc Nancy while utilizing theoretical perspectives to interpret tattoos in literary works by Melville Beckett Kafka Genet and Jeff VanderMeer among others Tattooed Bodies prompts readers to explore a few significant questions Are tattoos unique phenomena or an art medium in need of special theoretical exploration If so what conceptual paradigms and theories might best shape our understanding of tattoos and their complex ubiquity in world cultures and histories

The Apocalyptic Dimensions of Climate Change Jan Alber,2021-09-07 Climate change and the apocalypse are frequently associated in the popular imagination of the twenty first century This collection of essays brings together climatologists theologians historians literary scholars and philosophers to address and critically assess this association The contributing authors are concerned among other things with the relation between cultural and scientific discourses on climate change the role of apocalyptic images and narratives in representing environmental issues and the tension between reality and fiction in apocalyptic representations of catastrophes By focusing on how figures in fictional texts interact with their environment and deal with the consequences of climate change this volume foregrounds the broader social and cultural function of apocalyptic narratives of climate change By evoking a sense of collective human destiny in the face of the ultimate catastrophe apocalyptic narratives have both cautionary and inspirational functions Determining the extent to which such narratives square with scientific knowledge of climate change is one of the main aims of this book Between the Lines Uli Beutter Cohen,2021-11-09 From the creator of the popular instagram account Subway Book Review comes a collection of over 150 of the most fascinating and inspiring stories from strangers on the subway a glorious document of who we are where we re going and the stories that unite us Atmosfears: The Uncanny Climate of Contemporary Ecofiction Natalie Dederichs,2023-05-09 We live in a critical moment in history often called the Anthropocene that is defined by unprecedented scales of uncertainty Natalie Dederichs draws on insights from the new materialisms about the entangled nature of planetary existence and combines them with approaches to aesthetics from fields as diverse as reader response criticism phenomenology Gothic and media studies She introduces a poetics of atmospheric relation ality as a necessary component of any ecological engagement with fiction that fully embraces literary encounters with the inaccessible and elusive as expressed in uncanny atmospheric reading experiences

Contemporary Narrative and the Spectrum of Materiality Marco Caracciolo,2023-07-04 How do physical things differ from non things human subjects animals abstract ideas or processes Those questions which are as old as philosophy itself have inspired contemporary debates in ecocriticism thing theory and in the interdisciplinary field of new materialism This book argues that contemporary narrative is well placed to map out and work through the spectrum of the material and the philosophical questions that underlie it This is because narrative does not resolve the tensions at the heart of conceptions of materiality but rather reframes them envisioning their implications and exploring their relevance to concrete contexts of human interaction This monograph is structured around a number of novels experimental fiction films and video games that imagine the inherent agency of things but also interrogate the affective and ethical significance of materiality in human terms Its aim is to demonstrate the power of formal narrative analysis to foster conceptually and ethically sophisticated ways of thinking about thingness in times of ecological crisis that is times in which stuff can no longer be taken for granted
