Learners: Research and Practice in Assessing the English of School-age Learners Szilvia Papp, Shelagh Rixon, 2018

The proposed book on child second language L2 development and assessment will be a state of the art account of what we currently know about how children learn L2s in formal contexts and how that knowledge impacts on the design development and evaluation of language assessment products for young learners The uniqueness of child L2 development within the classroom is highlighted by considering children's L2 needs typical patterns of development and the role of instruction and assessment in how children learn Common issues shared in child L2 acquisition studies language testing and educational assessment are explored by linking research carried out within the educational academic and testing communities Several case studies are described from different educational contexts around the world where teaching and assessment of young language learners takes place In particular the book presents the Cambridge English approach to assessing young learners of English and presents a framework for the development research and validation activities around the Cambridge English suite battery for children Demystifying Corpus Linguistics for English Language Teaching Kieran

Harrington, Patricia Ronan, 2023-03-03 The aim of this edited volume is to demystify corpus linguistics for use in English language teaching ELT It advocates the inclusion of corpus linguistics in the classroom as part of an approach to ELT in which students engage with naturally occurring language The first chapter provides a basic but essential introduction to corpus linguistics including sections on corpora and corpus methods and this is followed by a review of the use of corpus linguistics in ELT Chapters on the traditional ELT strands of skills vocabulary and grammar as well as chapters on pluricentric approaches on language and culture World Englishes and English as a Lingua Franca flow naturally from the second chapter which reports on a survey of the attitudes of trainee teacher to the use of corpus linguistics in the ELT classroom The final two chapters show how the work of corpus linguists can benefit classroom teacher preparation materials development and textbook writing This book will be of interest not only to academics in fields such as English Language Teaching Applied Linguistics and Corpus Linguistics but also to educators of teacher trainees and teacher trainees themselves as well as teachers who are looking for new interactive approaches to ELT

Working Together for Integration Skills and Labour Market Integration of Immigrants and their Children in Norway OECD,2022-11-28 Norway's foreign born population has tripled since 2000 and the share of migrants among the population has seen one of the largest increases across the OECD mostly driven by labour migration from EU countries Most migrants from non EU countries in contrast are refugees and their family members High qualification levels and labour market participation of the native born raise the question of an adequate benchmark for integration outcomes especially for the low educated refugees and their families
