➤ BA English Poems

The World is too Much With Us

Reference : These lines have been taken from the sonnet "The World is too Much With Us" by William Wordsworth.

Context : In this poem the poet feels sorry at our material pursuits which do not allow us to enjoy the beauties of Nature.

Explanation: The poet shows his disgust at our excessive materialism and indifference to Nature. We are too much engrossed in our worldly activities that we have no spare time to enjoy Nature. We have ignored Nature at the cost of worldly activities. We ignore the beautiful scenes like blowing the wind. The ocean is lying bare with its lovely bosom for moonlight to embrace it. The winds are peaceful like the flowers whose petals are closed. We do not have an eye for for any sight of Nature. Our hearts are not moved at the beautiful sights. The poet wishes to become a pagan so that he will not have to feel guilty of being a religious man. He wants to stand on the grassy land. He wants to enjoy the sight of Proteus, the sea god, rising from the sea. He wants to enjoy the music by Triton, a god, on the musical instruments made by his twisted horns.

C. Comments : The imagery used in the poem shows the poet's love for Nature. He laments at our gross materialism and highlights the importance of love of Nature.

Poem #2 Prospice

Reference :These lines have been taken from the poem "Prospice" by Robert Browning ".

Context :

In this poem the poet shows his assured faith in death and the life hereafter. He wants to face death bravely and optimistically. His

The first generation of children born after Rwanda s 1994 genocide is just now reaching maturity setting aside their school uniforms to take up adult roles in Rwandan society and the economy At the same time Rwanda s post war government has begun to shrug off international aid as it pursues an increasingly independent path of business friendly yet strongly state regulated social and economic development The Orderly Entrepreneur tells the story of a new Rwanda now at the vanguard among developing countries emulating the policies of Singapore Korea and China and devoutly committed to entrepreneurship as a beacon for 21st century economic growth Drawing on ethnographic research with nearly 500 participants The Orderly Entrepreneur investigates the impact and reception of the Rwandan government s multiyear entrepreneurship curriculum first implemented in 2007 as required learning in all secondary schools As Honeyman shows entrepreneurship is more than a benign buzzword or hopeful panacea for economic development but a complex ideal with unique meanings across Rwandan society She reveals how curriculum developers teachers and students all brought their own interpretations and influence to the new entrepreneurship curriculum exposing how even a carefully engineered project of social transformation can be full of indeterminacies and surprising twists every step of the way Journal of Pedagogy ,1888 The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope Cape of Good Hope (South Africa).
