English Is Not Easy Quinfu:

Romantic Love and Sexual Behavior Victor C. de Munck, 1998-04-16 Westerners believe that love makes life worth living that sex is a natural desire different in kind from love and that only cynics reduce our love life to a calculation of economic or genetic factors In this volume essays explore these and other assumptions about the relationship between romantic love and sex This represents the first interdisciplinary social science study of love and sex Contributors ask and answer questions such as Is love just sex idealized or is it a transcendent and divine emotion Is love a cultural construct that is shared by members of the same culture or is it a matter of personal taste What keeps promiscuous people from using condoms even when they know they are at risk Are black professional men so rare that their conceptions of love and sex differ from those of white professional men Are brutal sexual fantasies an exclusively male domain and are they always excluded from love fantasies among normal adolescents Is divorce a culturally induced response to evolutionary reproductive strategies that compel individuals to maximize their genetic legacy Are marriages or relationships less satisfying or stable when an actual mate falls short of the fantasy of the ideal mate Is there a universal core to love and sex that is camouflaged by other cultural norms such as modesty and sexual segregation Is rape perceived as more acceptable when the rapist says he was motivated by love What do cult movements and romantic love have in common As they attempt to answer these and other questions the authors extend our understanding of the variety of ways that love and sex are conceptualized connected or separated Marxism and 20th-Century English-Canadian Novels John Z. Ming Chen, Yuhua Ji, 2015-06-09 This monograph is the first academic work to apply a neo Marxist approach to 20th century Canadian social realist novels pursuing a refreshingly neo Marxist approach to such issues as Bakhtinian notions of the novelistic form and dialogism as applied to Canadian socio political novels influenced by various socialisms socialist feminist concerns economic and sexual politics and the genre of social realism In so doing it demonstrates that Marxist socialism is as relevant today as it was in the 1930s just as social realist novels continue to thrive as a critique of capitalism Readers will find valuable insights into the social significance formal innovations moral sensitivity aesthetic enrichment and ideological complexity of Canadian social realist novels

Perception and Metaphor Qin Xiugui, Tie Yi, 2021-07-28 Cognitive linguists believe that metaphors are prevalent in human thought while metaphorical structures are reflected at the linguistic level Therefore analysing extensive language data can aid in revealing the metaphorical mappings of embodied experience with the senses of vision hearing smell taste touch and temperature This volume seeks to discover the similarities and differences between the metaphorical systems of the English and Chinese languages Adopting a comparative view the authors examine the semantic extensions of perception words in English and Chinese in order to reveal the metaphorical scope of each sense and the metaphorical system behind it They argue that the metaphorical systems of the senses not only help us understand and use conventionalised metaphorical expressions but also allow us to create novel expressions The findings also unveil how abstract concepts are constructed via
