

THE DATA LANDSCAPE WAS SPARSE 20 YEARS AGO

In the early 1990s, few countries had high quality data on the situation of children and women.

Iodized salt consumption
Only 12 of 99 countries had data

Data on children in primary school
Nearly 10 years old on average

Data on underweight children
Over 8 years old on average

 MICS was developed in response to countries' need for data.

MICS HAS CONTRIBUTED TO THE DRAMATIC RISE IN AVAILABLE DATA

As of 1990: 28 low- and middle-income countries with trend data on malnutrition

2015: 119 low- and middle-income countries with trend data on malnutrition

These maps are stylized and not to scale. They do not reflect a position by UNICEF on the legal status of any country or territory or the delimitation of any frontiers.

Designing The Questionnaire Unicef Mics:

Designing and Conducting Health Surveys Lu Ann Aday, Llewellyn J. Cornelius, 2011-01-20 Designing and Conducting Health Surveys is written for students teachers researchers and anyone who conducts health surveys This third edition of the standard reference in the field draws heavily on the most recent methodological research on survey design and the rich storehouse of insights and implications provided by cognitive research on question and questionnaire design in particular This important resource presents a total survey error framework that is a useful compass for charting the dangerous waters between systematic and random errors that inevitably accompany the survey design enterprise In addition three new studies based on national international and state and local surveys the UNICEF Multiple Indicator Cluster Surveys California Health Interview Survey and National Dental Malpractice Survey are detailed that illustrate the range of design alternatives available at each stage of developing a survey and provide a sound basis for choosing among them Indicators for assessing infant and young child feeding practices ,2021-04-12 This document presents a set of new and updated indicators to assess infant and young child feeding IYCF practices at household level It is a follow up to the 2008 document Indicators for assessing infant and young child feeding practices Part I II In total there are 17 recommended IYCF indicators in the 2021 edition Seven are new and four of the 2008 indicators have been excluded from the 2021 list of IYCF indicators In addition three indicators of unhealthy food and beverage consumption are included Unlike in 2008 no distinction is made between core and optional indicators in this set of recommendations It is important to assess data using the full set of indicators for any given population and to report all findings This guidance document provides tools for the collection and calculation of the indicators It is intended for use by managers of large scale population based surveys that will collect information on the status of feeding practices among infants and young children less than 2 years of age Indicators can be assessed through large scale population based surveys including the Demographic and Health Survey DHS and the Multiple Indicator Cluster Survey MICS Micronutrient survey manual ,2020-08-31 The Micronutrient Survey Manual 2020 content and website are an update of the 2007 publication Indicators and methods for cross sectional surveys of vitamin and mineral status of populations¹ and its associated online Survey toolkit This manual contains modules covering all aspects of a cross sectional micronutrient survey from planning through implementation to analysing reporting disseminating and using the data The main audience for the manual is programme managers responsible for the design and implementation of a micronutrient survey Others involved in specific aspects of survey planning and implementation should also find certain procedures and tools useful The UNICEF-WHO-World Bank Joint Child Malnutrition Estimates (JME) standard methodology World Health Organization, United Nations Children's Fund, 2024-09-30 This document provides the background rationale and description of the standard approach followed by the UNICEF WHO World Bank Joint Malnutrition Estimates JME group to generate national estimates for Sustainable Development Goal SDG indicators 2.2.1 child stunting 2

2 2 1 child overweight and 2 2 2 2 child wasting as well as regional and global aggregations for the three indicators The JME process for generating national regional and global estimates is described along with compilation of data sources with anthropometric data production of estimates of child malnutrition and data quality measures through use of standardized methods applied to country microdata when available review of anthropometric data sources considering data collection methodology and data quality assessment and trends inclusion criteria for data sources the child malnutrition database modelled estimates for child stunting and child overweight production of national regional and global trends

Parenting and Child Development in Low- and Middle-Income Countries Marc H. Bornstein, W. Andrew Rothenberg, Andrea Bizzego, Robert H. Bradley, Kirby Deater-Deckard, Gianluca Esposito, Jennifer E. Lansford, Diane L. Putnick, Susannah Zietz, 2022-09-09 This compelling volume advances the understanding of what parenting and related sociodemographic demographic and environmental variables look like and how they are associated with child development in low and middle income countries around the world Specifically expert authors document how child growth caregiving practices discipline and violence and children s physical home environments along with child and primary caregiver sociodemographic characteristics and household and national development demographic characteristics are associated with central domains of early childhood development across a substantial fraction of the majority world using contemporary 21st century data from the UNICEF Multiple Indicator Cluster Surveys and the UNICEF Early Childhood Development Index The lives of nearly 160 000 girls and boys aged 3 to 5 years in nationally representative samples from 51 low and middle income countries are sampled to address 7 principal questions about children caregiving and contexts Parenting and Child Development in Low and Middle Income Countries takes an authentically international approach to parenting the environment and child development in cultural contexts that more fully characterize the world s diversity Parenting and Child Development in Low and Middle Income Countries is essential reading for researchers and students of parenting psychology human development family studies sociology and cultural studies as well as governmental and non governmental professionals working with families in low and middle income countries

Young Children in Humanitarian and COVID-19 Crises Sweta Shah, Lucy Bassett, 2023-11-30 The long term consequences of COVID 19 have been tough for children around the world but even more so for young children already in humanitarian crisis whether due to conflict natural disasters or economic and political upheaval This book investigates how organizations around the world responded to these dual challenges identifying solutions and learning opportunities to help to support young children in ongoing and future crises Drawing on research and voices from the Global South this book showcases innovations to mobilize new funds and re allocate existing resources to protect children during the pandemic It provides important evidence on understudied and overlooked vulnerable populations recognizing that researchers from the Global South are best positioned to fill these research gaps contextualize findings and support the uptake and adoption of recommendations by local decision makers and practitioners in those same contexts The findings in this book will be important for practitioners policy makers and donors working in or interested in humanitarian contexts on early childhood development or early childhood education The book will also be useful to students and researchers working in these fields The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Combating Child Labour A Review of Policies OECD, 2003-09-07 This important book seeks to answer fundamental questions about child labour's economic causes the working conditions children endure implications of their labour for the economic outlook of the countries concerned and actions and policies to combat it

Water Policy, 2008 The Department of Labor's 2001 Findings on the Worst Forms of Child Labor, 2002 Guidance for monitoring healthy diets globally World Health Organization, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, United Nations Children's Fund, 2024-06-27 It is vital for countries to monitor their population's diets to inform actions toward improving the health of people and the planet The healthiness of diets must be tracked in global frameworks such as the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs to help monitor how the world's population is faring Currently few countries regularly assess diets and there are no dietary indicators in global monitoring frameworks Recognizing the importance of diets for health and the lack of consensus on how to measure and monitor healthy diets at scale FAO UNICEF and WHO joined forces to chart a way forward via the Healthy Diets Monitoring Initiative HDMI The joint mission of the HDMI is to enable national and global decision makers and stakeholders to monitor and achieve healthy diets for people and the planet The current guidance document is focused on healthy diets for healthy people This version of the document provides an overview of the range of purposes for measuring the healthiness of diets and offers examples of the dietary assessment methods and types of dietary intake data surveys and metrics that are currently available to monitor healthy diets International Handbook of Population Policies John F. May, Jack A.

Goldstone, 2022-07-01 This Handbook offers an array of internationally recognized experts essays that provide a current and comprehensive examination of all dimensions of international population policies The book examines the theoretical foundations the historical and empirical evidence for policy formation the policy levers and modelling as well as the new policy challenges The section Theoretical Foundations reviews population issues today population theories the population policies framework as well as the linkages between population development health food systems and the environment The next section Empirical Evidence discusses international approaches to design and implement population policies on a regional level The section Policy Levers and Modelling reviews the tools and the policy levers that are available to design implement monitor and measure the impact of population policies Finally the section New Policy Challenges examines the recurrent and emerging issues in population policies This section also discusses prospects for demographic sustainability as well as future considerations for population policies As such this Handbook provides an important and structured examination of contemporary population policies their evolution and their prospects The Department of Labor's ...

Findings on the Worst Forms of Child Labor, 2001 Prioritizing Development Bjorn Lomborg, 2018-06-07 This book is a unique guide to making the world a better place Experts apply a critical eye to the United Nations Sustainable Development agenda also known as the Global Goals which will affect the flow of 2.5 trillion of development aid up until 2030 Renowned economists led by Bjorn Lomborg determine what pursuing different targets will cost and achieve in social environmental and economic benefits There are 169 targets covering every area of international development from health to education sanitation to conflict Together these analyses make the case for prioritizing the most effective development investments A panel of Nobel Laureate economists identify a set of 19 phenomenal development targets and argue that this would achieve as much as quadrupling the global aid budget Multiple Indicator Cluster Survey (1999) Nigeria.

Federal Office of Statistics, 1999 Child Welfare in Developing Countries John Cockburn, Jane Kabubo-Mariara, 2010-08-09 to establish impact attributing observed changes in welfare to the intervention while identifying key factors of success Impact evaluations are aimed at providing feedback to help improve the design of programs and policies They also provide greater accountability and a tool for dynamic learning allowing policymakers to improve ongoing programs and ultimately better allocate funds across programs Such a causal analysis is essential for understanding the relative role of alternative interventions in reducing poverty The papers in this section again adopt a variety of techniques The first two impact evaluation studies employ propensity score matching to establish ex post a valid control group to assess the impact on child schooling outcomes among beneficiaries of various interventions in Kenya and Ethiopia The third chapter carries out an ex ante evaluation of alternative cash transfer programs on child school attendance in Uruguay The final paper further carries out in depth macro modeling and micro regression analysis to simulate the impacts of the food crisis and various policy responses including food subsidies and cash transfers on various dimensions of child poverty in Mali Though using different approaches the studies are generally in agreement concerning the positive impact of the cash transfer program on child schooling and labor market outcomes The studies from Kenya and Uruguay both find that the schooling interventions are progressive

A Social Justice Approach to Survey Design and Analysis Llewellyn Joseph Cornelius, Donna Harrington, 2014 This book provides a framework of researchers to both engage in social justice research as well as to evolve as social justice practitioners back cover

Female Genital Mutilation around The World: Ngianga-Bakwin Kandala, Paul Nzinga Komba, 2018-07-09 This book uses global household data to examine the prevalence trends and geographic variation of female genital mutilation FGM around the world It also addresses the underlying legal and policy aspects as well as explores the medical consequences both immediate and long term for those undergoing the practice The book analyses the position of victims of this gender based violence both from the medical and legal perspective and adopts a largely practical approach to the study of the practices offering a fresh thinking into one of the challenges in global health and the law In addition it offers some insights into how health professionals can approach this category of victims and how legal practitioners can obtain a good legal result for their clients before domestic and international forums The book addresses fundamental issues such as state liability and defences in enforcement proceedings for actions or omission of state or non state actors and due diligence standard in international human rights law the main gateways available for obtaining relief for the victims of FGM This book goes beyond the traditional debate between zero tolerance and those who wish to see the practice medicalised and tolerated and favours an advocacy programme standing firmly in favour of the right of FGM victims This book offers a unique perspective likely to assist victims and their representatives to secure a remedy against perpetrators and the state As such this book will be of interest to medical professionals national and international lawyers academics and policymakers in the field of public health
