From A Shattered Sun Hierarchy Gender And Alliance In The Tanimbar Islands:

From a Shattered Sun Susan McKinnon, 1991 Among a growing number of ethnographies of eastern Indonesia that deal with cosmology exchange and kinship From a Shattered Sun is the first to address squarely issues originally broached by Edmund Leach and Claude Lévi Strauss concerning the relation between hierarchy and equality in asymmetric systems of marriage On the basis of extensive fieldwork in the Tanimbar islands Susan McKinnon analyzes the simultaneous presence of both closed asymmetric cycles and open asymmetric pathways of alliance of both egalitarian and hierarchical configurations In addition Tanimbarese society is marked by the existence of multiple differentially valued forms of marriage affiliation and residence Rather than seeing these various forms as analytically separable types McKinnon demonstrates that it is only by viewing them as integrally related in terms of culturally specific understandings of houses gender and exchange that one can perceive the processes through which hierarchy and equality are created

From a Shattered Sun Susan McKinnon, 1991 Among a growing number of ethnographies of Eastern Indonesia that deal with cosmology exchange and kinship this book confronts issues originally broached by Edmund Leach and Claude Lévi Strauss concerning the relation between hierarchy and equality in asymmetric systems of marriage Cooperation and Hierarchy in Ancient Bolivia Sara L. Juengst, 2023-02-28 This book explores how past peoples navigated and created power structures and social relationships using a case study from the Titicaca Basin of Bolivia 800 BC AD 400 Based on the analysis of human skeletal remains it combines anthropological social theory archaeological contexts and biological indicators of identity disease and labor to present a microhistory The analysis moves in scale from individual experiences of daily life to broad patterns of shared identity and kinship during a time of significant economic and ecological change in the lake basin The volume is particularly valuable for scholars and students interested in what bioarchaeology can tell us about power and social relationships in the past and how this is relevant to modern constructions of community

Culture and Customs of Indonesia Jill Forshee, 2006-09-30 Indonesia comprises more than 17 000 islands stretching on either side of the equator for nearly 4 000 miles and hundreds of ethnic groups with almost 300 languages spoken This book reveals the remarkable social religious and geographical differences that exist from island to island Because of such variety Indonesia defies simple categorizations Europeans have produced most of the written histories of this region although Indonesians have contributed much Culture and Customs of Indonesia reveals something of local people's ideas of their identities and pasts as well Indonesian cultures covered include those of forest dwelling hunters rice growers fisherfolk village artisans urban office and factory workers intellectuals artists wealthy industrialists street vendors and homeless people Readers will learn about the amazing range of belief systems material culture and arts that enliven Indonesia Forshee describes the majestic temples complex poetry and literature lavish theatrical performances and splendid visual arts and more that have distinguished Indonesia for centuries and continue into the present Indonesians are shown to be constantly reinterpreting and refining their cultures in the modern world Processions: Studies of Bronze Age Ritual and Ceremony presented to Robert B. Koehl Judith Weingarten, Colin F. Macdonald, Joan Aruz, Lara Fabian, Nisha Kumar, 2023-10-05 Robert Koehl has long considered processions to have played an integral role in Aegean Bronze Age societies Papers concentrate mainly on evidence from Crete the Cyclades and the Greek mainland with additional perspectives from abroad these geographic divisions forming the basic outline of this volume Relative Values Sarah Franklin, Susan McKinnon, 2002-02-22 A collection of essays that redefine and transform the field of kinship Austronesian Paths and Journeys James J. Fox, 2021-05-18 This is the eighth volume in the Comparative Austronesian series The papers in this volume examine metaphors of path and journey among specific Austronesian societies located on islands from Taiwan to Timor and from Madagascar to Micronesia These diverse local expressions define common cultural conceptions found throughout the Austronesian speaking world The Land of Gold Judith M. Bovensiepen, 2018-08-06 In the village of Funar located in the central highlands of Timor Leste the disturbing events of the twenty four year long Indonesian occupation are rarely articulated in narratives of suffering Instead the highlanders emphasize the significance of their return to the sacred land of the ancestors a place where gold is abundant and life is thought to originate On one hand this collective amnesia is due to villagers exclusion from contemporary nation building processes which bestow recognition only on those who actively participated in the resistance struggle against Indonesia On the other hand the cultural revival and the privileging of the ancestral landscape and traditions over narratives of suffering derive from a particular understanding of how human subjects are constituted Before life and after death humans and the land are composed of the same substance only during life are they separated To recover from the forced dislocation the highlanders experienced under the Indonesian occupation they thus seek to reestablish a mythical primordial unity with the land by reinvigorating ancestral practices Never leaving out of sight the intense political and emotional dilemmas imposed by the past on people s daily lives The Land of Gold seeks to go beyond prevailing theories of postconflict reconstruction that prioritize human relationships Instead it explores the significance of people s affective and ritual engagement with the environment and with their ancestors as survivors come to terms with the disruptive events of the past

Travel Writing in an Age of Global Quarantine Gary Fisher, David Robinson, 2021-09-07 Travel Writing in an Age of Global Quarantine is an anthology of travel accounts by a diverse range of writers and academics Challenging conventional academic authority each contributor writes from memory during the Covid 19 lockdown about a place they have previously visited accompanied by an historical traveller who published an account of the same place As immobility is forced upon us at least for the immediate future we have the chance to reflect Travel Writing in an Age of Global Quarantine presents opportunities to approach a text as a scholar differently We break with the traditional academic rules by inserting ourselves into the narrative and foregrounding the personal subjective elements of literary scholarship Each contributor critiques an historical description of a place about which simultaneously they write a personal account How Chiefs Became Kings

Patrick Vinton Kirch, 2019-05-07 In How Chiefs Became Kings Patrick Vinton Kirch addresses a central problem in anthropological archaeology the emergence of archaic states whose distinctive feature was divine kingship Kirch takes as his focus the Hawaiian archipelago commonly regarded as the archetype of a complex chiefdom Integrating anthropology linguistics archaeology traditional history and theory and drawing on significant contributions from his own four decades of research Kirch argues that Hawaiian polities had become states before the time of Captain Cook's voyage 1778 1779 The status of most archaic states is inferred from the archaeological record But Kirch shows that because Hawai'i's kingdoms were established relatively recently they could be observed and recorded by Cook and other European voyagers Substantive and provocative this book makes a major contribution to the literature of precontact Hawai'i and illuminates Hawai'i's importance in the global theory and literature about divine kingship archaic states and sociopolitical evolution The SAGE Handbook of Social Anthropology Richard Fardon, Oliva Harris, Trevor H J Marchand, Cris Shore, Veronica Strang, Richard Wilson, Mark Nuttall, 2012-07-25 In two volumes the SAGE Handbook of Social Anthropology provides the definitive overview of contemporary research in the discipline It explains the what where and how of current and anticipated work in Social Anthropology With 80 authors contributing more than 60 chapters this is the most comprehensive and up to date statement of research in Social Anthropology available and the essential point of departure for future projects The Handbook is divided into four sections Part I Interfaces examines Social Anthropology's disciplinary connections from Art and Literature to Politics and Economics from Linguistics to Biomedicine from History to Media Studies Part II Places examines place region culture and history from regional area studies to a globalized world Part III Methods examines issues of method from archives to war zones from development projects to art objects and from ethics to comparison Part IV Futures anticipates anthropologies to come in the Brain Sciences in post Development in the Body and Health and in new Technologies and Materialities Edited by the leading figures in social anthropology the Handbook includes a substantive introduction by Richard Fardon a think piece by Jean and John Comaroff and a concluding last word on futures by Marilyn Strathern The authors each at the leading edge of the discipline contribute in depth chapters on both the foundational ideas and the latest research Comprehensive and detailed this magisterial Handbook overviews the last 25 years of the social anthropological imagination It will speak to scholars in Social Anthropology and its many related disciplines Houses in a Landscape Julia A. Hendon, 2010-04-22 An examination of the connections between social identity and social memory using archaeological research on indigenous societies that existed more than one thousand years ago in what is now Honduras Headhunting and the Social Imagination in Southeast Asia Jules de Raedt, Janet Hoskins, 1996 This book brings together material on headhunting from several Southeast Asia societies examines its cultural contexts and relates them to colonial history violence and ritual Crossing Histories and Ethnographies Ricardo Roque, Elizabeth G. Traube, 2019-06-20 The key question for many anthropologists and historians today is not whether to cross the boundary between their disciplines but whether the idea of a disciplinary boundary should be sustained Reinterpreting the dynamic interplay between archive and field these essays propose a method for mutually productive crossings between historical and ethnographic research It engages critically with the colonial pasts of indigenous societies and examines how fieldwork and archival studies together lead to fruitful insights into the making of different colonial historicities Timor Leste s unusually long and in some ways unique colonial history is explored as a compelling case for these crossings Vanishing Beauty Madhuvanti Ghose,2016-01-01 This book commemorates the remarkable gift of over 400 works from the collection of Barbara and David Kipper to the Art Institute of Chicago These outstanding pieces of jewelry and ritual objects offer a material record of vanishing ways of life Used as portable forms of wealth as personal adornment and in religious practice they represent a broad spectrum of cultures The majority comes from the Himalayan region including Tibet Nepal Bhutan and Mongolia and other pieces hail from Afghanistan China India Indonesia Kazakhstan Pakistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan The catalogue showcases stunning works including delicate amulet boxes other Tibetan Buddhist artifacts and ornate Turkmen jewelry through dramatic photography undertaken specifically for this publication With five essays placing the objects in the contexts of their native regions Vanishing Beauty offers a beautiful presentation of creativity and craftsmanship from across Asia Island Networks Per Hage, Frank Harary,1996-10-28 Using network models from graph theory this book analyses the formation of Pacific island empires Encyclopedia of Social and Cultural Anthropology Dr Alan Barnard, Jonathan Spencer,2002-09-11 This is the only encyclopedia of social and cultural anthropology to cover fully the many important areas of overlap between anthropology and related disciplines This work also covers key terms ideas and people thus eliminating the need to refer to other books for specific definitions or biographies Special features include over 230 substantial entries on every major idea individual and sub discipline of social and cultural anthropology over 100 international contributors a glossary of more than 600 key terms and ideas Biographical Objects Janet Hoskins,2013-09-13 In this innovative study six women and men from Eastern Indonesia narrate their own lives by talking about their possessions domestic objects used to construct a coherent identity through a process of identification and self historicizing Janet Hoskins explores how things are given biographical significance and entangled in sexual politics expressed in dualistic metaphors where the familiar distinctions between person and object and female and male are drawn in unfamiliar ways Biographical Objects is an ethnography of persons which takes the form of a study of things showing how the object is not only a metaphor for the self but a pivot for reflexivity and introspection a tool for autobiographic elaboration a way of knowing oneself through things Malanggan Susanne Kuchler,2020-08-23 Shortlisted for the Katharine Briggs Folklore Award 2003 Malanggan are among the most treasured possessions in the Pacific yet they continue to confound anthropologists Central to funerals in New Ireland these death figures are intended to decompose as symbolic representations of the dead Wrapped in images that are conceived of as skins they are both visually complex and intriguing This book is the first to interpret these mysterious agents of resemblance and connection as having a cognitive rather than a linguistic basis Found in nearly every ethnographic museum in the world Malanggan collections have been left virtually untouched This original study begins by tracing the history of the collections and moves on to consider the role these artefacts play in sacrifice ritual and exchange What is the relationship between Malanggan and memory How can Malanggan be understood as a life force as well as a vehicle for thought In an analysis of the cognitive aspects of Malanggan K chler offers a highly original conceptualization of the centrality of the knot as a mode of being thinking and binding in the Pacific Malanggan Art Memory and Sacrifice is a groundbreaking study Based on fifteen years of fieldwork and collection research it provides an incisive new take on one of the Pacific s classic puzzles as well as a wealth of new information and resources for anthropologists collectors and curators alike

Precedence Michael P. Vischer, 2009-05-01 This collection of papers is the sixth volume in the Comparative Austronesian series The papers that comprise this volume examine the concept of precedence as a form of local discourse and as a mechanism for ordering status at different levels within specific Austronesian speaking societies This is the first volume of its kind to focus entirely on precedence and to provide an explication of its social uses and the way in which it is contested Each paper is ethnographically focused and offers its own distinctive approach to the examination of precedence The papers however relate closely to one another and are thus able to proffer a variety of comparative reflections
