

Unit 12

The following is a passage from 'Freedom of Discussion in War Time' by Norman Angell.

1 The truth is that we have not yet formed our Alliance in the sense of deciding its common
2 purposes; whether or not the purpose of Britain are those of the labor party, and France and Italy
3 those of the socialists; what is to be the American relation to the conflicting claims of the various
4 parties, as well as to the aims of Russia and Japan and Ireland and India. The decisions and
5 adjustments in these things cannot be made by intense emotionalism, and violent-mindedness.
6 Unless we keep alive the tradition of free discussions and the feeling for toleration of diverse
7 opinion, we shall undoubtedly have that violent-mindedness and passion, and many of these
8 questions will in that case be decided in that temper. If that is the case Russia will not mark the 9 only rupture in the Alliance, and the outlook will be very dark.

10 The service that the heretic, political or religious, does is not necessarily to give us the right view;
11 he generally perhaps gives us the wrong. What he does by his objections is to compel us to take
12 stock of our own ideas, when otherwise they would remain unexamined, and so to modify them
13 where they are faulty. That service we need in war time. ¹²

Question 1

In this passage, Angell argues ____ freedom of discussion in wartime.

- A the Alliance is fragile due to the members' conflicting purposes.
- B the Alliance needs to be able to resolve its differences.
- C Russia exemplifies the dangers of censorship.
- D even political or religious heretics have valid criticisms to offer.

Question 3

Angell believes that limiting free discussion leads to all of the following except

- A intellectual atrophy.
- B harmony and cooperation.
- C a culture of conformity.
- D violent-mindedness and passion.

Question 4

In this passage, Angell discusses the ____ ramifications of freedom of discussion.

How to Get Into Medical School in Australia Timothy Shiraev, 2013-04-01. How to Get into Medical School in Australia is the definitive guide on how to succeed in your application to medical school and how to excel once there. The book provides comprehensive details of the admissions processes both undergraduate and graduate in an easy to digest chronological format to help you manage your application step by step. This detailed handbook includes an overview of the admissions process and the career of a doctor, characteristics sought in potential medical students and how to optimise them, study techniques for high school and undergraduate students, information on how to prepare for the medical school entry exams UMAT and GAMSAT, the pros and cons of undergraduate and postgraduate medical school and timelines on when to begin preparing for each step of the application process. The guide also features advice on special applications for mature age, indigenous, rural and international students, non traditional routes of entry, how to optimise your medical school application form including sample resumes and the all important medical school interview including how to prepare, how to dress and how to answer questions successfully on the day as well as several pages of practice interview questions. Once you have succeeded in gaining admission the book also offers information on what medical school is like and advice on how to excel and enjoy it including a list of necessary textbooks. Additionally the guide includes advice from people who have excelled in various parts of the process: those who aced their high school leaver's exams, medical students and junior and senior doctors. They describe their experiences and most importantly provide tips and guidance on how to succeed in getting into and studying at medical school. Also included are the profiles of every medical school in Australia detailing entry requirements, contact details, fees, numbers of places for students and the focus and academic ranking of each individual school.
