Some Elements of Social Conflict in Rómulo Gallegos' Novel, Doña Bárbara Grace Michael Kilmartin,1966

Reframing Latin America Erik Ching,Christina Buckley,Angélica Lozano-Alonso,2009-06-03 Providing an extensive introduction to cultural studies in general regardless of chronological or geographic focus and presenting provocative essential readings from Latin American writers of the last two centuries Reframing Latin America brings much needed accessibility to the concepts of cultural studies and postmodernism From Saussure to semiotics the authors begin by demystifying terminology then guide readers through five identity constructs including nation race and gender The readings that follow are presented with insightful commentary and encompass such themes as Civilized Folk Marry the Barbarians including Jos Martí's Our America and Boom Goes the Literature: Magical Realism as the True Latin America featuring Elena Garro's essay It's the Fault of the Tlaxcaltecas. Films such as Like Water for Chocolate are discussed in depth as well. The result is a lively interdisciplinary guide for theorists and novices alike.

Narrative and National Allegory in Rómulo Gallegos's Venezuela Jenni Maria Lehtinen, 2013. Venezuela's preeminent educator, politician, and most important author, Rómulo Gallegos (1884-1969) left a lasting imprint on how Venezuelans conceive of their national history and identity. Jenni Lehtinen offers the first full-length study of Gallegos's later Venezuelan novels Canaima (1935), Pobre negro (1937), and Sobre la misma tierra (1943), which have been up to now eclipsed by the critical attention devoted to Doña Barbara (1929). By combining close readings organized around national allegory and narrative structure with discussions about Gallegos's socio-political essays, the study reveals previously ignored radical developments in the Venezuelan author's ideologies. Through her bold reinterpretation of the later novels, Lehtinen reveals Gallegos as a far more innovative writer than has been traditionally appreciated. Jenni Lehtinen completed her doctoral studies in Spanish American literature at Wolfson College, University of Oxford, where she has held various teaching posts and lectured on Nation and Narration.

The Woman in Latin American and Spanish Literature Eva Paulino Bueno, María Claudia André, 2014-01-10. Noted scholars of Latin American and Spanish literature here explore the literary history of Latin America through the representation of iconic female characters. Focusing both on canonical novels and on works virtually unknown outside their original countries, the essays discuss the important ways in which these characters represent nature, history, race, and sex; the effects of globalization and the unknowable other. They examine how both male and female writers portray Latin American women, reinterpreting the dynamics between the genders across boundaries and historical periods. Drawing on recent theories in literary criticism, gender, and Latin American studies, these essays illuminate the women characters as conduits for the appreciation of their countries and cultures.

The Spanish American Regional Novel Carlos J. Alonso, 1990. This study provides a radical re-examination of the regional novel, which played a central part in the development of Latin American fiction in the first half of the twentieth century. Professor Alonso presents his argument through challenging readings of three works: Rivera's La Voragine, Gallegos's Doña Barbara, and Guiraldes's Don Segundo.

Doña Barbara ... Translated from the Spanish by Robert Malloy Rómulo Gallegos, Robert Malloy, 1931.

Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22. Praise for the print edition: a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature.

Views Beyond the Border Country Dennis Dworkin, Leslie Roman, 2013-12-16. This collection examines the influence of Raymond Williams on the work of radical intellectuals. It especially looks at the limitation of Williams' political vision and commitment.
