Reflections on the International Association for Media and Communication Research Jörg Becker, Robin Mansell, 2023-04-29 Throughout its 65 year history the International Association for Media and Communication Research IAMCR has sought to facilitate international exchanges and research collaborations among academics and journalists in the field of media and communication Created during a time of strong ideological tension following World War II in 1957 and with the support of UNESCO the contributors to this edited collection highlight how the IAMCR and its members shaped the field of media and communications research From its beginnings focusing on the mass media including the press and journalism education today the Association attracts researchers and practitioners who undertake critical analysis of contemporary media and communications including online platforms and their governance Consistent themes throughout the Association's history have been its concern with human rights law culture and the political economy of the media and communication industries Not content simply to understand developments in the media and communications field around the world the Association's membership has sought to change the world through its published research and its participation in global regional national and local policy debate and practice This volume is organised in four parts following an introduction authored by editors who are active members of IAMCR Part I highlights eight prominent scholarly traditions of research which have attracted the interest of scholars from around the world as well as the way the Association has sought to be inclusive of early career scholars Part II offers seven chapters which bring to light the political struggles of a membership seeking to engage in scholarship across the East West divide and to contribute to global debates aimed at fostering an inclusive fair and equitable international information and communication order through engagement with United Nations sponsored initiatives Part III turns to accounts of the way members from selected countries and regions have contributed to the Association s scholarly work The last part highlights the significant scholarly and institution building contributions of James Halloran IAMCR s President from 1972 to 1988 and other prominent contributors to the study of culture and the political economy of media and communications

A history of modern India... G. S. Sardesai, 1935 HISTORY OF MODERN INDIA , 1983 The World of Ideas in Modern Marathi Govind Purushottam Deshpande, 2009 The historiography of nineteenth century India is beset by a problem which flows from an assumption that India is one history area It is within the grand narrative of Indian history that debates in different regions and in various language discourses are viewed and interpreted This leaves a large gap in our understanding of particular histories especially the history of ideas In Marathi writing for instance the figure of Savarkar evokes responses from critics as much as from admirers that are very different from those in English G P Deshpande s new book shows us the riches we can hope to unearth if only we start listening to the vernacular He discusses the ideas of three influential and vastly different thinkers in Marathi the radical ideologue of shudratishudra emancipation Jotirao Phule the Hindutva ideologue V D Savarkar and the ideologue of Vedanta supremacy Vinoba Bhave This unusual grouping itself helps us break out of conventional ways of looking at intellectual history but the author goes further By analysing the writings of these thinkers in conjunction with writings on them in Marathi he underlines that the reception of their ideas in that language is as important as the ideas themselves He thus points to a method of reading that will be useful to those interested in the history of ideas in any Indian language In making a series of rigorous arguments in an entertaining and polemical style this book is an original and feisty addition to the historiography of modern India India and the Contemporary World-II NCERT, Peyyeti Rajakumar, Indian National Council of Educational Research and Training, 2007 A Social History of Modern India Kalikinkar Datta, 1975

A Brief History of Modern India Rajiv Ahir, Kalpana Rajaram, 2014 Adhunik Bharatacha Itihas BL Grover, It is one of the bestselling books on Modern Indian History covering the time line from 1707 to the modern times The book covers the entire gamut in a very unique style it mentions not only factual data about various topics but also provides information about different interpretations put forth by Western and Indian historians with an integrated analysis This makes the book equally useful for undergraduate students of History and aspirants appearing for various competitive examinations
