Duke Of Deception Memories Of My Father:

Duke of Deception Geoffrey Wolff, 2011-02-16 Duke Wolff was a flawless specimen of the American clubman a product of Yale and the OSS a one time fighter pilot turned aviation engineer Duke Wolff was a failure who flunked out of a series of undistinguished schools was passed up for military service and supported himself with desperately improvised scams exploiting employers wives and finally his own son In The Duke of Deception Geoffrey Wolff unravels the enigma of this Gatsbyesque figure a bad man who somehow was also a very good father an inveterate liar who falsified everything but love

The Duke of Deception Geoffrey Wolff, 1979 Stories of Resilience in Childhood Daniel D. Challener, 2019-10-01 What helps a child overcome extraordinary obstacles Why do some children surmount many difficulties and go on to live fulfilling lives while other children who face similar difficulties end up living desperate sad lives What helps children beat the odds What builds resilience in children These are critically important questions yet for too long social scientists doctors psychologists and teachers have studied children who failed and tried to figure out what caused the failure Only relatively recently have they begun to focus on what creates success Originally published in 1997 this book is an effort to understand better what contributes to a child's success and resilience The source of information will be autobiographies of childhoods autobiographical stories written by adults remembering their difficult childhoods This is not a research study or case study rather it is an attempt to read and listen to five stories about resilient children and see what they can tell us about supporting children and building resilience

Our Fathers Steven L. Shepherd, 2002-07-26 No one questions that men are profoundly influenced by their fathers but the shape and substance of that influence varies with each family In this the first anthology of nonfiction prose to explore this issue in depth editor Steven Shepherd has collected a diverse and invariably compelling group of narratives about sons and their fathers Fourteen excellent essays by some of our best writers says Anne Morris of the Austin American Statesman Among the contributors James Baldwin who reflects in his classic Notes of a Native Son on the father he barely knew partly because we shared in our different fashions the vice of stubborn pride The brothers Geoffrey and Tobias Wolff who write of their father from dramatically different perspectives A second generation undertaker Thomas Lynch who writes lovingly of burying his father And the acclaimed scholar of African American culture Henry Louis Gates Jr who grew up with a father who was not a race man yet their arguments were vital to the son's education The King's

English Pb Betsy Burton, 2006-08-09 Betsy Burton one of the owners of The King's English Bookshop in Salt Lake City Utah shares anecdotes from throughout the history of the store discussing employees author visits and the joys and challenges of running an independent bookstore and including reading lists in a range of subject areas Writing New England Andrew Delbanco, 2001 From John Winthrop and Anne Bradstreet to Emerson Hawthorne Dickinson and Thoreau to Robert Frost Wallace Stevens Robert Lowell Anne Sexton and John Updike this anthology provides a collective self portrait of the New England mind from the Puritans to the present 9 halftones Your Life as Story Tristine Rainer, 1998-04-13 In Your Life As

Story autobiography expert Tristine Rainer explains how we can all find the important messages in our lives Like Mary Karr or Frank McCourt we can shape those stories into dramatic narratives that are compelling to others Blending literary scholarship with practical coaching Rainer shares her remarkable techniques for finding the essentials of story structure within your life s scattered experiences Most important she explains how to treasure the struggles in your past and discover the meaning within those experiences to capture the unique myth at work in your life Mythmaking Maureen

Murdock,2024-03-05 Best selling Heroine s Journey author Maureen Murdock invites readers to explore their personal story within the rich tapestry of human experience by examining the craft of memoir alongside fresh writing advice and prompts Maureen Murdock looks at thematic connections between ancient myths and contemporary memoirs to probe questions like What is my journey Where is home Her background as a Jungian psychotherapist enriches her teaching urging us to dig deep to identify our own universal archetypes Writers who feel stuck or unworthy of writing about themselves will find thought provoking inspiration and validation in this book while those simply looking to use writing as a tool for self exploration will examine their patterns and stories to reveal their true inner selves And all will be left with a deeper understanding of the rich scope of the memoir genre by exploring contemporary favorites like Terry Tempest Williams s Refuge Joan Didion s The Year of Magical Thinking and David Carr s The Night of the Gun from a mythological perspective Like myth memoir reveals a unity to human experience that ultimately we all share similar hopes dreams and desires as well as fears losses and heartbreaks Memoir helps writers understand the trajectory of their lives and helps readers better grasp our own place within the human experience The Making of Princeton University James Axtell,2021-03-09 In 1902 Professor

Woodrow Wilson took the helm of Princeton University then a small denominational college with few academic pretensions But Wilson had a blueprint for remaking the too cozy college into an intellectual powerhouse The Making of Princeton University tells for the first time the story of how the University adapted and updated Wilson s vision to transform itself into the prestigious institution it is today James Axtell brings the methods and insights from his extensive work in ethnohistory to the collegiate realm focusing especially on one of Princeton s most distinguished features its unrivaled reputation for undergraduate education Addressing admissions the curriculum extracurricular activities and the changing landscape of student culture the book devotes four full chapters to undergraduate life inside and outside the classroom The book is a livelywarts and all rendering of Princeton s rise addressing such themes as discriminatory admission policies the academic underperformance of many varsity athletes and the controversial bicker system through which students have been selected for the University s private eating clubs Written in a delightful and elegant style The Making of Princeton University offers a detailed picture of how the University has dealt with these issues to secure a distinguished position in both higher education and American society For anyone interested in or associated with Princeton past or present this is a book to savor

Violent Adventure Marilyn C. Wesley,2003 Questioning both the popular condemnation of violent representation and the notion that violence can be constructive by empowering the identity of an integrated adult self Wesley identifies a revealing pattern of violent adventure in recent fiction by American men Astro Turf M. G. Lord,2009-05-26 A daughter s journey to rediscover her father and understand the culture of space engineers During the late 1960s while M G Lord was becoming a teenager in Southern California and her mother was dying of cancer Lord s father an archetypal remote rocket engineer disappeared into his work at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena building the space probes of the Mariner Mars 69 mission Thirty years later Lord found herself reporting on the JPL triggering childhood memories and a desire to revisit her past as a way of understanding the ethos of rocket science Astro Turf is the brilliant result of her journey of discovery Remembering her pain at her father s absence yet intrigued by what he did Lord captures him on the page as she recalls her own youthful eccentric fascination with science and space exploration Into her family s saga she weaves the story of the legendary JPL examining the complexities of its cultural history from its start in 1936 to the triumphant Mars landings in 2004 She illuminates its founder Frank Malina whose brilliance in rocketry was shadowed by a flirtation with communism driving him from the country even as we welcomed Wernher von Braun and his Nazi colleagues Lord s own love of science fiction becomes a lens through which she views a profound cultural shift in the male dominated world of space And in pursuing the cause of her father s absence she stumbles on a hidden guilt understanding the anguish his proud silence caused both him and me and how rooted that silence was in the culture of engineering Stories We Need to Know Allan G. Hunter,2008-01-01 A combination of therapy and expertise in literature this book explains the six archetypes derived from 4 000 years of literature and how they may guide unhappy people seeking meaning in their lives Holding up the great books as the best way to understand these timeless story elements the discussion devotes a chapter to each of the six archetypes the innocent the orphan the pilgrim the warrior lover the monarch pair and the magician Story structures are shown to be particularly suited to therapy with adolescents many of whom have never stepped away from television and the shopping mall long enough to understand their unmet spiritual needs Our Own Devices Edward Tenner,2009-08-26 This delightful and instructive history of invention shows why National Public Radio dubbed Tenner the philosopher of everyday technology Looking at how our inventions have impacted our world in ways we never intended or imagined he shows that the things we create have a tendency to bounce back and change us The reclining chair originally designed for brief healthful relaxation has become the very symbol of obesity The helmet invented for military purposes has made possible new sports like mountain biking and rollerblading The typewriter created to make business run more smoothly has resulted in wide spread vision problems which in turn have made people more reliant on another invention eyeglasses As he sheds light on the many ways inventions surprise and renew us Tenner considers where technology will take us in the future and what we can expect from the devices that we no longer seem able to live without A Ship Without A Sail Gary Marmorstein,2013-07-16 Lorenz Hart together with Richard Rodgers created some of the most beautiful and witty songs ever written Here is the story of the

strikingly unromantic life of this songwriting genius His lyrics spin with brilliance and sophistication yet at their core is an unmistakable wistfulness Rodgers and Hart who wrote approximately thirty Broadway musicals and dozens of songs for Hollywood films were an odd couple Rodgers was precise punctual heterosexual handsome and eager to be accepted by society Hart was barely five feet tall alcoholic homosexual and more comfortable in a bar or restaurant than anywhere else His lyrics are all the more remarkable considering that he never sustained a romantic relationship living his entire life with his mother who died only months before his own death at 48 Biographer Marmorstein superbly portrays the life of this exuberant yet troubled artist From publisher description Venus on Wheels Gelya Frank,2000-05-30 In 1976 Gelya Frank began writing about the life of Diane DeVries a woman born with all the physical and mental equipment she would need to live in our society except arms and legs Frank was 28 years old DeVries 26 This remarkable book by turns moving funny and revelatory records the relationship that developed between the women over the next twenty years An empathic listener and participant in DeVries s life and a scholar of the feminist and disability rights movements Frank argues that Diane DeVries is a perfect example of an American woman coming of age in the second half of the twentieth century By addressing the dynamics of power in ethnographic representation Frank anthropology s leading expert on life history and life story methods lays the critical groundwork for a new genre cultural biography Challenged to examine the cultural sources of her initial image of DeVries as limited and flawed Frank discovers that DeVries is gutsy buoyant sexy and definitely not a victim While she analyzes the portrayal of women with disabilities in popular culture from limbless circus performers to suicidal heroines on the TV news Frank s encounters with DeVries lead her to come to terms with her own invisible disabilities motivating the study Drawing on anthropology philosophy psychoanalysis narrative theory law and the history of medicine Venus on Wheels is an intellectual tour de force This Boy's Life (SparkNotes Literature Guide) SparkNotes,2014-08-12 This Boy s Life SparkNotes Literature Guide by Tobias Wolff Making the reading experience fun Created by Harvard students for students everywhere SparkNotes is a new breed of study guide smarter better faster Geared to what today s students need to know SparkNotes provides Chapter by chapter analysis Explanations of key themes motifs and symbols A review quiz and essay topics Lively and accessible these guides are perfect for late night studying and writing papers Post-Nationalist American Studies John Carlos Rowe,2000-12-04 Post Nationalist American Studies seeks to revise the cultural nationalism and celebratory American exceptionalism that tended to dominate American studies in the Cold War era adopting a less insular more transnational approach to the subject Kiplinger's Personal Finance ,1980-12 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments taxes money management home ownership and many other personal finance topics Antique Trader Book Collector's Price Guide Richard Russell,2006-07-05 This new edition of Antique Trader Book Collector s Price Guide provides readers with the information and values to carve a niche for themselves in a market where rare first editions of Jane Austen s Emma and J K Rowling s Harry Potter and the Philosophers Stone recently sold at auction for 254 610 dollars and 40 355 dollars respectively Organized in 13 categories including Americana banned paranormal and mystery this guide discusses identifying and grading books and provides collectors with details for identifying and assessing books in 8 000 listings Contemporary Literary Criticism Daniel G.
