Christianity Among Other Religions Apologetics In A Contemporary Context:

Christianity Among Other Religions Roch A. Kereszty, 2006 This book intends to show that Christianity is God's response expressed in human words and in human history to the divinely inspired yet sin distorted universal human search for God Through a sympathetic evaluation and comparison with Christianity of the major world religions from Primitive myths and rites to Hinduism Buddhism Taoism Confucianism Islam and Judaism this work defends the credibility of the Catholic Christian faith and shows the need for dialogue with these religions in the new evangelization of the world called for by Vatican II

Introducing Christian Theologies, Volume Two Victor I. Ezigbo, 2015-12-31 Should Christianity's theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with voices of Christian communities from across the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from around the world highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine Introducing Christian Theologies II Victor I Ezigbo, 2016-08-25 Should Christianity's theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with the voices of Christian communities from around the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from across the globe highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine

The Possibility of Convivence in Nigeria Felix Ikeagwuchi Agbara, 2011 Despite the present day democratic government's commitment to human rights socio cultural and religious clashes still pose a threat to Nigeria As a panacea a split according to ethnic and religious boundaries has been suggested on the other hand upholding the different strands might spell greater benefits for the country's development The basic assumption of both views is that ethnic and religious pluralism have led to conflicts but that they are fuelled by politics inequitable distribution of economic goods and the negative forces of globalization In this project examining these conflicts and the efforts made to resolve them particular attention will be paid to dialogue and reconciliation The key practice suggested is convivence a symbiosis of interactive and interpenetrative approaches based on intercultural and interreligious hermeneutical perspectives The Catechism in a Year Companion, Volume I Fr. Engaging the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Matthew Levering, 2016-07-19 A Distinguished Theologian on the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Distinguished theologian Matthew Levering offers a historical examination of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit defending an Augustinian model against various contemporary theological views A companion piece to Levering s Engaging the Doctrine of Revelation this work critically engages contemporary and classical doctrines of the Holy Spirit in dialogue with Orthodox and Reformed interlocutors Levering makes a strong dogmatic case for conceiving of the Holy Spirit as love between Father and Son given to the people of God as a gift

The Church of God in Jesus Christ Roch A. Kereszty, 2019 Investigating Vatican II is a collection of Fr Jared Wicks recent articles on Vatican II and presents the Second Vatican Council as an event to which theologians contributed in major ways and from which Catholic theology can gain enormous insights Taken as a whole the articles take the reader into the theological dynamics of Vatican II at key moments in the Council s historical unfolding Wicks promotes a contemporary re reception of Vatican II s theologically profound documents especially as they featured God s incarnate and saving Word laid down principles of Catholic ecumenical engagement and articulated the church s turn to the modern world with a new face of respect and dedication to service From the original motivations of Pope John XXIII in convoking the Council Investigating Vatican II goes on to highlight the profound insights offered by theologians who served behind the scenes as Council experts In its chapters the book moves through the Council s working periods drawing on the published and non published records with attention to the Council s dramas crises and breakthroughs It brings to light the bases of Pope Francis s call for synodality in a listening church while highlighting Vatican II s mandate to all of prayerful biblical reading for fostering a vibrant joy in the Gospel American Book Publishing Record ,2006 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2008 Dictionary of Scripture and Ethics

Green,Jacqueline Lapsley,Rebekah Miles,Allen Verhey,2011-11 Leading scholars from the fields of biblical studies and ethics provide a one stop reference book on the vital relationship between Scripture and ethics Jewish Philosophical Polemics Against Christianity in the Middle Ages Daniel J. Lasker,2007 This meticulously researched study addressing the philosophical arguments used by Jews to refute four central doctrines of Christianity trinity incarnation transubstantiation and virgin birth makes a major contribution to a relatively neglected area of medieval Jewish intellectual history The Beginnings of Christian Theology in Arabic Sidney Harrison Griffith,2002 From 750 to 850 A D Christians living under Islamic rule began to compose theological works in Syriac and Arabic to counter the religious challenges of Islam Griffith explores the works of writers who apologised for Christianity at that time Encyclopedia of Early Christianity Everett Ferguson,1990 This single volume encyclopedia contains 977 articles by 135 qualified scholars of various academic and ecumenical backgrounds with coverage extending from New Testament times to approximately 600 A D Entries cover persons places doctrines and practices and include some articles on modern scholars important to the study of early Christianity The entries vary in length but each begins with a brief definition or identification followed by chronological or topical development Excellent short bibliographies following each article give patristic citations editions translations and studies The articles avoid technical language and provide good basic summaries of the material This work will be useful for teachers scholars and students as well as for reference work The Existentialist Legacy and Other Essays on Philosophy and Religion James Woelfel,2006-04-05 The Existentialist Legacy and Other Essays on Philosophy and Religion is a collection of ten essays on topics in the two primary areas of the author s research and teaching existentialist philosophy and the philosophy of religion The common thread running through the essays is a way of approaching issues in philosophy and religion that reflects the author s career long indebtedness to the methods and emphases of the existentialist movement in philosophy Among the essay topics are studies of the existentialist legacy in the context of the contemporary situation in the sciences and humanities Iris Murdoch s sympathetic but narrowly Sartrean interpretation of existentialism the congeniality of existentialism and feminism the problem with high existentialist doctrines of freedom three philosophical autobiographies a new look at Pascal s Wager as a description of the situation of the modern believer theistic evolutionism including a Christian existentialism and Walter Kaufmann as an existentialist manqué in his heretical approach to religion

New Dictionary of Christian Apologetics Gavin McGrath, 2006-04-18 Editors Gavin McGrath and W C Campbell Jack with consulting editor C Stephen Evans offer this one volume resource packed with hundreds of articles on key topics historic figures and contemporary global issues relating to the study and practice of Christian apologetics Christianity and the Religions Jacques Dupuis, 2002 In this incisive and important volume Jacques Dupuis offers new insights on the most important issue facing Christian theology today giving an account of Christian faith as Christians go more deeply along the road of dialogue and collaboration with the followers of other religious traditions His task is to square a dogmatic circle How does one do justice to the Gospel claim that Jesus the Christ is the final and universal savior of all humankind in every age while also doing justice to the experience that truth grace holiness and power are experienced in other religious traditions In the first six chapters Dupuis reviews the history of the Western Christian tradition s teaching on other religious Ways through the breakthrough at Vatican Council II In chapters 7 and 8 he reviews the critical issues of uniqueness of Christ and Christian proposals to account for the mediation of salvation in other religious Ways He discusses also the relationship between the Reign of God the Church and the Religions In chapter 9 he explores the nature and role of dialogue in a pluralistic society In chapter 10 offers sage reflections on interreligious prayer The Study of Religions Hywel David Lewis, Robert Henry Lawson Slater, 1969 A Handbook of Christian Apologetics Alfred Ernest Garvie, 1913 Muslims and Others in Early Islamic Society Robert G. Hoyland, 2004 Muslims and Others in Early Islamic Society concerns the interaction between Muslims and the other religious denominations of the Middle East in the period 620 1020 This is arguably the single most important issue in the history of the early Islamic Middle East since the Muslims were initially a minority in the lands that they had conquered and so had to reach some modus vivendi with the various religious communities in their realm Fifteen articles by leading scholars shed light on this process from a number of different perspectives historical conceptual legal social and theological An introduction both gives an overview and examines possibilities for future research The period under study is demarcated at one end by the Prophet Muhammed d 632 who as the Qur an tells us had to deal with Jews Christians and polytheists At the other end lies the great legal political thinker Manardi d ca 1020 by whose time the Middle East had become substantially Islamicised Religious and Theological Abstracts , 2007
