,1919 Journal of Education and School World ,1889 The Book at War Andrew Pettegree,2023-12-05 A magisterial Sunday Times history of how books were used in war across the twentieth century both as weapons and as agents for peace We tend not to talk about books and war in the same breath one ranks among humanity s greatest inventions the other among its most terrible But as esteemed literary historian Andrew Pettegree demonstrates the two are deeply intertwined The Book at War explores the various roles that books have played in conflicts throughout the globe Winston Churchill used a travel guide to plan the invasion of Norway lonely families turned to libraries while their loved ones were fighting in the trenches and during the Cold War both sides used books to spread their visions of how the world should be run As solace or instruction manual as critique or propaganda books have shaped modern military history for both good and ill With precise historical analysis and sparkling prose The Book at War accounts for the power and the ambivalence of words at war The Women's Movement in Postcolonial Indonesia Elizabeth Martyn,2004-11-10 This book examines women s activism in the early years of independent Indonesia when new attitudes to gender nationalism citizenship and democratization were forming It questions the meaning of democratization for women and their relationship to national sovereignty within the new Indonesian state and discusses women s organizations and their activities women s social and economic roles and the different cultural regional and ethnic attitudes towards women while showing the failure of political change to fully address women s gender interests and needs The author argues that both the role of nationalism in defining gender identity and the role of gender in defining national identity need equal recognition Building ,1900
