Revision of the Codes, An Indian-European Dialogue Adrian Loretan,Felix Wilfred,2018 In the Second Vatican Council 1962-65 the Catholic Church reached a new viewpoint of itself both internally and externally The Declaration Dignitatis Humanae developed this opinion of the individual as dignified DH 2 and as a person equipped with his or her own sense of conscience DH 3 Based on this form of dialogical thinking the Council can tolerate varying forms of Christianity other than the Catholic form and accept other religions or beliefs The canonical translations of this theological spin to the human person DH 1 in this book are presented by Indian and European authors with a view to a revision of the Codices Prof Dr Adrian Loretan Since 1996 he has taught Canon and Constitutional Law and Religion at the University of Lucerne Switzerland He is the Director of the Center for Comparative Constitutional Law and Religion and a Senate Member of the University As well he is the editor of the book series titled Law and Religion 26 vols and Religionsrechtliche Studien 4 vols Prof Dr Felix Wilfred Emeritus Professor of the State University of Madras India where he was Chair of the School of Philosophy and Religious Thought He is the president of the International Review Concilium published in six European language editions as well as the Editor in Chief of the International Journal of Asian Christianity published by Brill Leiden He is the editor of the monumental volume The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia 2014 Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Law and Literature Robert Spoo,Simon Stern,2025-01-09 The Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Law and Literature surveys the intersection between two important fields of study Interdisciplinary in scope the volume showcases the many ways in which literary and legal methods and insights both converge and remain distinct For a Missionary Reform of the Church Antonio Spadaro, SJ,Carlos Maria Galli,2017 Thirty essays presented at a symposium that deals with reform of the church and reforms in the church according to the vision of Pope Francis The General Chapter in a Religious Institute Elizabeth M. Cotter,2008 This book examines the historical antecedents of the concept of general chapter the supreme authority in an institute of consecrated life This provides the basis for an examination of the contemporary understanding of the nature of its power and authority as portrayed in the 1983 Code of Canon Law The general chapter is analysed in terms of its juridic status collegial nature participative character and representative function as well as its dynamic aspects and faith dimension The author applies the findings to one institute of consecrated life Institute of the Blessed Virgin Mary Loreto Branch This application provides an example of the challenges inherent in working participatively and collaboratively within a hierarchical structure Because consecrated life has an inalienable ecclesial dimension understanding authority and power and their exercise in institutes of consecrated life has relevance for understanding authority and its exercise in other organs of authority at all levels in the church Glass Collage Eva Gelini, 2024-02-02 Glass Collage is an intriguing memoir of Eva Gelini's faith journey as a Catholic musician. Eva succeeded in her childhood dream of becoming a Catholic Church organist and later a Catholic liturgical music director. Along the way she collected many cuts, scars, and bruises from the church leadership. In addition, when the scandals associated with the Catholic Church came to light, her 30-year career and livelihood abruptly concluded, leaving her jobless, defenseless, and forced into a midlife career change. While attempting to nourish her wounds and desiring peace and counsel, Eva prayed that God would guide her in the right direction. And He did, leading her to a place she never dreamed of being.

Canon 1096 on Ignorance with Application to Tribunal and Pastoral Practice

Girard M. Sherba, 2001. Before Vatican II, marriage was often considered or at least popularly expressed as a union of bodies; that is to say, marriage was an exclusive contract by which a man and a woman mutually handed over their bodies for the purpose of acts which led to the procreation of children. Matrimonial jurisprudence was primarily focused on this marital contract. With the advent of Vatican II and its emphasis on the personalist notion of marriage, a new age dawned whereby canonists, especially auditors of the Roman Rota, were henceforth to view marriage as a union of persons. Person is more than a body; rather, a person is an individual consisting of wants, needs, desires, impulses, hopes, and dreams, whose life experience has been shaped by the milieu, cultural, familial, religious, from which he or she comes. Union is not only simply understood as a contract but also is now once again recognized as a covenant, a concept which, at least in the Latin Church, was prevalent until the 12th century. One of the canons of the 1983 CIC, although almost identical in wording to its predecessor in the 1917 CIC but which now must be understood and interpreted in light of the teachings of Vatican II, is canon 1096 which pertains to the effect of ignorance on matrimonial consent. Given the current appreciation of marriage founded in the teachings of Vatican II, especially in Gaudium et spes, reiterated by Popes Paul VI and John Paul II and described in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, complicated by today's western society's stress on individualism and permeated by a divorce mentality, what is the impact of this canon on matrimonial consent? How can its meaning, once understood as being wider than merely the sexual act itself, be better utilized by those in tribunal ministry? This is the major thrust of the present work. The research of the history and development of the concept of ignorance in canonical writings, how its understanding broadened, especially after Vatican II, and our conclusions on how to apply its richness to marriage nullity led us to expand the use of this canon, how it can aid in the development of pre-marital preparation programs which would not only possibly help prevent couples from being ignorant of the essence of marriage but also help them to appreciate this richness more deeply in their own lives, so that marriage truly can become, as we read in canon 1055, a partnership of the whole of life which is ordered by its nature to the good of the spouses and the procreation and education of offspring. It is our sincere hope that this study, with its extensive footnotes and up-to-date bibliography, will not only be of benefit to all who read it but also will serve as a springboard for further discussion and use of this canon as a ground for nullity and other pastoral uses.
