Disability in Islamic Law Vardit Rispler-Chaim, 2006-10-31 1 When I completed my book Islamic Medical Ethics in the Twentieth Century I was aware that I had omitted certain topics that I would have to return to One of these was the ethical treatment of disabilities and the disabled and of handicaps and the handicapped Since responses to burning medical dilemmas within the wide field of medical ethics was the main focus of that book it addressed ethical aspects of the doctor-patient relationship and contemporary Islamic debates on issues such as birth control and abortion artificial insemination organ transplants postmortem examinations and euthanasia The main source material was 20th century fatwas legal responses issued by various Middle Eastern muftis In this book I now wish to survey attitudes to the disabled and their disabilities as evinced by selected Sunni and Shi'i legal compilations throughout 1400 years of scholarly Islamic activity but also through contemporary fatwas The sources used for this book are a selection of medieval as well as modern legal writings medical books and articles in Arabic books and articles on medicine from an Islamic religious point of view Prophetic medicine and the Qur'an and medicine I have scrutinized all these for their consideration of people with disabilities and for the behavioral or social adjustments these people were offered mainly through legal rulings

Understanding Jihad David Cook, 2015-09-01 First published in 2005 Understanding Jihad unraveled the tangled historical intellectual and political meanings of jihad within the context of Islamic life In this revised and expanded second edition author David Cook has included new material in light of pivotal events over the past ten years such as the revolutionizing events of the Arab Spring the death of Osama bin Laden and the rise of new Islamic factions such as ISIL Jihad is one of the most loaded and misunderstood terms in the news today Contrary to popular understanding the term does not mean holy war This judiciously balanced accessibly written and highly relevant book looks closely at a range of sources from sacred Islamic texts to modern interpretations of the term opening a critically important perspective on the role of Islam in the contemporary world As David Cook traces the practical and theoretical meanings of jihad he cites from scriptural legal and newly translated texts to give readers a taste of the often ambiguous information that is used to construct Islamic doctrine He looks closely at the life and teaching of the Prophet Muhammad and at the ramifications of the great Islamic conquests in 634 to 732 A.D. He sheds light on legal developments relevant to fighting and warfare and places the internal spiritual jihad within the larger context of Islamic religion He describes some of the conflicts that occur in radical groups and shows how the more mainstream supporters of these groups have come to understand and justify violence He has also included a special appendix of relevant documents including materials related to the September 11 attacks and published manifestos issued by Osama bin Laden and Palestinian suicide martyrs Provided by publisher

Routledge Handbook of Islamic Ritual and Practice Oliver Leaman, 2022-06-08 Ritual and practice are one of the most distinctive features of religion and they are linked with its central beliefs Islam is no exception here and this Handbook covers many aspects of those beliefs and practices It describes the variety of what takes place but mainly why and what the implications of both the theory and practice have for our understanding of Islam The book includes accounts of prayer food pilgrimage mosques and the various legal and doctrinal schools that exist within Islam with the focus on how they influence practice The volume is organized in terms of texts groups practices places and others An attempt has been made to discuss the wide range of Muslim ritual and practice and provide a sound guide to this significant aspect of the religious life of one of the largest groups of believers in the world today

Salafi Ritual Purity Richard Gauvain, 2013 Since 9 11 Salafism has attracted a great deal of attention from the world's media which predominantly focuses on its potential for revolutionary violence Salafism remains poorly understood both in Western media where it is now the focus of considerable debate and in Western academia where until recently it was virtually undiscussed In neither arena has a consensus emerged regarding what Salafism is or does This pioneering work fills this lacuna by redirecting the reader towards the sphere of ritual practice within which the discussions of contemporary Salafi scholars prove equally revolutionary Taking the theme of ritual purity tahara as the leitmotif of modern Salafism this work combines an analysis of key developments in ritual purity law with detailed ethnographic investigations into ritual purity behaviour in specific Cairene settings The author's research not only bridges the gap between anthropological and Islamicist approaches to Muslim ritual but highlights the variety of ideas and experiences that contribute to Egyptian Salafism today This book will be of interest to students of Islamic studies Anthropology Religious studies as well as Middle East studies in general

At the Feet of Abraham Levi UC Nkwocha, 2020-11-30 This book advances an Abrahamic asymmetric mutual substitutive model of hospitality as a practical approach to establish peaceful coexistence between Muslims and Christians The merits include its helpful survey of the four models of interfaith dialogue and its clear exposition of the dialogue of life its constructive use of the philosophy of Levinas particularly in supporting its vision of asymmetrical moral responsibility among Muslim and Christians and its familiarity with an extensive philosophical literature on alterity gift exchange and responsibility The research also demonstrates strong command of the relevant Christian and Muslim scriptures and Catholic teaching on interfaith relations in addition to a wide range of background material on African Ubuntu spirit visible in Nigerian sociocultural and religious interdependent relations Through a consistent engagement of these philosophical ethical and cultural dimensions the Abrahamic theology of hospitality is ingeniously crafted to fill the age old gap mutual inability to deal with religious otherness At once the book provokes further scholarship inquiries on and around the identified concerns Its commonness and concreteness with the proposed respect for each other's faith commitment further underscores its quality

Roots Of Religious Extremism, The: Understanding The Salafi Doctrine Of Al-wala' Wal Bara' Mohamed Bin Ali, 2015-09-14 One of the issues in contemporary Islamic thought which has attracted considerable attention amongst Muslim scholars and within the Muslim community is the valid and appropriate attitude of Muslims to relationships with non Muslims A major source of confusion and controversy with regards to this relationship comes from the allegation that Muslims must reserve their love and loyalty for fellow Muslims and reject and declare war on the rest of humanity most acutely seen through the Islamic concept of Al Wala wal Bara WB translated as Loyalty and Disavowal which appears to be central in the ideology of modern Salafism This book investigates the dynamics and complexities of the concept of WB within modern Salafism and aims to understand the diverse interpretation of this concept and how modern Salafis understand and apply the concept in contemporary religious social and political settings The book discovers that the complexities diversities and disputes surrounding the concept in modern Salafism often revolve around issues of social political and current realities The significance of this book lies in the fact that comprehending modern Salafis conception of WB its realities and complexities has become an urgent priority in the lives of Muslims today Islamic Psychology G. Hussein Rassool,2023-03-23 Islamic Psychology The Basics is a jargon free and accessible introduction that explores psychology from an Isl mic perspective and provides a foundation level overview of the fundamental principles and practices of Isl mic psychology The book introduces concepts models approaches themes and theories you need to know to study the mind soul and behaviour based on Isl mic scripture Offering an overview of Isl mic psychology and what Isl mic psychologists do chapters address key topics including the history of the evolution of the science of the soul and the psychology of human behaviour and experiences Rassool examines the concepts of the Fitrah the Nafs Self the Aql Intellect the R Soul the Qalb Heart and the concept of Isl mic healing and spiritual interventions Other themes include the Qur an and psychology models and approaches in Isl mic psychology interpreting Isl mic psychology for modern times and the contemporary scope of the practice of Isl mic psychology Outlining the challenges and solutions of the development of Isl mic psychology and potential future trends and including features to aid learning this is the ideal introductory book for students in Psychology Isl mic Psychology and Isl mic Studies as well as professionals including counsellors and therapists and anyone interested in psychology from an Isl mic perspective Jihadi Culture Thomas Hegghammer,2017-06-22 This book studies the art forms and social practices that make up much of the daily life of jihadi culture Islam in the Digital Age Gary R. Bunt,2003-07-20 The Internet is an increasingly important source of information for many people in the Muslim world Many Muslims in majority and minority contexts rely on the Internet as a primary source of news information and communication about Islam As a result a new media culture is emerging which is having a significant impact on areas of global Muslim consciousness Post September 11th this phenomenon has grown more rapidly than ever Gary R Bunt provides a fascinating account of the issues at stake identifying two radical new concepts Firstly the emergence of e jihad Electronic Jihad originating from diverse Muslim perspectives this is described in its many forms relating to the different definitions of jihad including on line activism ranging from promoting militaristic activities to hacking to co ordinating peaceful protests and Muslim expression post 9 11 Secondly he discusses religious authority on the Internet including the concept of on line fatwas and their influence in diverse settings and the complexities of conflicting notions of religious authority The Muslim World

,1964 Cultural Competence in Caring for Muslim Patients G.Hussein Rassool,2014-05-07 To meet the care needs of today s diverse patient community healthcare professionals must learn to care in environments comprising different worldviews communication styles and expectations To meet this challenge it is essential that they operate from a solid foundation of knowledge based on high standards for cultural competence in nursing practice Cultural Competence in Caring for Muslim Patients is designed for nurses and allied healthcare professionals It offers a deeper insight into ways in which the Islamic faith is intertwined with patient care and explores approaches with which to effectively address the varying healthcare requirements of a growing and diverse Muslim community Following a clear and accessible format the book discusses key issues including The identity and religious beliefs of Muslims The ethical dimension in caring Understanding the Muslim family system Health considerations during fasting and pilgrimage Hajj What s more case studies activities and discussion questions throughout actively support learning and reflective practices This insightful guide will prove a valuable asset for any nurse or healthcare professional looking to develop their understanding of how to deliver culturally compassionate and congruent care Islam in Indonesia Jajat Burhanudin,Kees Dijk,2025-10-01 While Muslims in Indonesia have begun to turn towards a strict adherence to Islam the reality of the socio religious environment is much more complicated than a simple shift towards fundamentalism In this volume contributors explore the multifaceted role of Islam in Indonesia from a variety of different perspectives drawing on carefully compiled case studies Topics covered include religious education the increasing number of Muslim feminists in Indonesia the role of Indonesia in the greater Muslim world social activism and the middle class and the interaction between Muslim radio and religious identity Evil Eye, Jinn Possession, and Mental Health Issues G. Hussein Rassool,2018-09-03 Evil Eye Jinn Possession and Mental Health Issues raises awareness of the cultural considerations religion and spirituality involved in the assessment of Muslim patients with mental health problems The belief that Jinn spirits can cause mental illness in humans through affliction or possession is widely accepted among Muslims meaning this belief is a crucial but frequently overlooked aspect of mental health problems with Muslim patients in psychiatric care This book explores the nature of such beliefs their relationship to mental health and the reasons for their importance in clinical practice The book argues that it is vital to consider mental disorders as a multifactorial affair in which spiritual social psychological and physical factors may all play a role It suggests differential diagnostic skills may have an important part to play in offering help to those who believe their problems are caused by possession and provides accessible literature on clinical issues and practice interventions management and evidence based practice to help health workers achieve a better understanding of Muslim beliefs about possession and how to work with patients that hold such beliefs Evil Eye Jinn Possession and Mental Health Issues is an essential manual for mental health professionals social workers and psychologists It should also be of interest to academics and students in the healthcare sciences Justice and Beauty in Muslim Marriage Ziba Mir-Hosseini,Mulki Al-Sharmani,Jana Rumminger,Sarah
