Macao's Church of Saint Paul Cesar Guillen-Nuñez, 2009-01-01 Macao's Ruins of St Paul correct name Church of Madre de Deus is the only example of Baroque art and architecture in China This beautifully illustrated book explores anew the now vanished but once renowned Church as well as the Jesuit university college of which it was part Both Church and College were destroyed by fire in 1835 From the perspective of the history of art they have remained poorly explored The author remedies this by imaginatively reconstructing their ground plans architecture and decoration in the light of new information in original documents that he has found in archives and libraries in Europe and Macao In his re creation of the buildings he illustrates and draws on the evidence of selected Jesuit buildings in Italy Portugal Spain and Portuguese India and considers the historical Counter Reformation environment that eventually led to the College of Madre de Deus in China The most recent art historical findings on the Mannerist and Baroque art of the Jesuits in Europe and Iberian colonies are also taken into account The author who first identified the surviving facade of the Church as a retablo facade an unusual type of Iberian and Latin American church facade resembling an altarpiece brings his argument to its logical conclusion by relating it to the Church's plan and decoration An extremely important aspect of the art promoted by the Jesuits centring on the cult of passive martyrdom is also candidly discussed This book will enable the general public to better appreciate the Ruins and provides much of interest and value to scholars students architects art museums and cultural organizations Publisher's website

Frank Kennedy,2016-01-28 In recent years scholars in a range of disciplines have begun to re evaluate the history of the Society of Jesus Approaching the subject with new questions and methods they have reconsidered the importance of the Society in many sectors including those related to the sciences and the arts They have also looked at the Jesuits as emblematic of certain traits of early modern Europeans especially as those Europeans interacted with the Other in Asia and the Americas Originating in an international conference held at Boston College in 1997 the thirty five essays here reflect this new historiographical trend Focusing on the Old Society the Society before its suppression in 1773 by papal edict they examine the worldwide Jesuit undertaking in such fields as music art architecture devotional writing mathematics physics astronomy natural history public performance and education and they give special attention to the Jesuits interaction with non European cultures in North and South America China India and the Philippines A picture emerges not only of the individual Jesuit who might be missionary diplomat architect and playwright over the course of his life in the Society but also of the immense and many faceted Jesuit enterprise as forming a kind of cultural ecosystem The Jesuits of the Old Society liked to think they had a way of proceeding special to themselves The question Was there a Jesuit style a Jesuit corporate culture is the thread that runs through this interdisciplinary collection of studies The Country Blacksmith David L.

McDougall,2013-05-10 The blacksmith was once crucial to village life whether commissioned for the humblest repair the most luxurious ironwork or even the odd anvil marriage Occupying prime position in the village the forge attracted custom from miles around and was a hive of industry and social interaction David L McDougall here describes the varied work blacksmiths undertook the tools and techniques they used and the magical and mystical qualities with which they were associated If you want to know more about the rise and fall of the country blacksmith and the recent revival of the craft this colourfully illustrated book is the ideal introduction Proceedings of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East... Church Missionary Society,1891 The Scholar in His Study Curator of Renaissance Collections Department of Medieval and Modern Europe Dora Thornton,Dora Thornton,1998-01-01 In fifteenth and sixteenth century Italy many leading citizens constructed and furnished distinctive studies for themselves The study was an individually designed room for private and social use as an office library a family archive or treasury as the nucleus of an art collection or as a space for contemplation This book is an account of the Renaissance Italian study and its contents Illustrated with depictions of studies and the precious and unusual objects they contained the book examines the significance of the study to its owner and visitors its structure and location and the prized possessions that might fill such a special room The Cambridge Review ,1887

Renaissance drama Kristin Phillips Court here explores how the intertextuality of major works of Italian dramatic literature is not only poetic but also figurative She argues that not only did the painterly gaze so prevalent in fifteenth and sixteenth century devotional art portraiture and visual allegory inform humanistic theories practices and themes it also led prominent Italian intellectuals to write visually evocative works of dramatic literature whose topical plots and structures provide only a fraction of their cultural significance Through a combination of interpretive literary criticism art historical analysis and cultural and intellectual historiography Phillips Court offers detailed readings of individual plays juxtaposed with specific developments and achievements in the realm of painting Revealing more than historical connections between artists and poets such as Tasso and Giorgione Mantegna and Trissino Michelangelo and Caro or Bruno and Caravaggio the author locates the history of Renaissance art and drama securely within the history of ideas She provides us with a story about the emergence and eventual disintegration of Italian Renaissance drama as a rigorously philosophical and empirical form Considering rhetorical philosophical ethical religious political ideological and aesthetic dimensions of each of the plays she treats Kristin Phillips Court draws our attention to the intermedial conversation between the theater and painting in a culture famously dominated by art Her integrated analysis of visual and dramatic works brings to light how the lines and verses of the text reveal an ongoing dialogue with visual art that was far richer and more intellectually engaged than we might

Reclaiming Rome: Cardinals in the Fifteenth Century Carol Mary Richardson, 2009-03-25 The fifteenth century was a critical juncture for the College of Cardinals They were accused of prolonging the exile in Avignon and causing the schism At the councils at the beginning of the period their very existence was questioned They rebuilt their relationship with the popes by playing a fundamental part in reclaiming Rome when the papacy returned to its city in 1420 Because their careers were usually much longer than that of an individual pope the cardinals combined to form a much more effective force for restoring Rome In this book shifting focus from the popes to the cardinals sheds new light on a relatively unknown period for Renaissance art history and the history of Rome Dr Carol M Richardson has been awarded the Philip Leverhulme Prize 2008 in the field of History of Arts

Propaganda and the Jesuit Baroque Evonne Levy, 2004-04-14 In this provocative revisionist work Evonne Levy brings fresh theoretical perspectives to the study of the propagandistic art and architecture of the Jesuit order as exemplified by its late Baroque Roman church interiors The first extensive analysis of the aims mechanisms and effects of Jesuit art and architecture this original and sophisticated study also evaluates how the term propaganda functions in art history distinguishes it from rhetoric and proposes a precise use of the term for the visual arts for the first time Levy begins by looking at Nazi architecture as a gateway to the emotional and ethical issues raised by the term propaganda Jesuit art once stirred similar passions as she shows in a discussion of the controversial nineteenth century rubric the Jesuit Style She then considers three central aspects of Jesuit art as essential components of propaganda authorship message and diffusion Levy tests her theoretical formulations against a broad range of documents and works of art including the Chapel of St Ignatius and other major works in Rome by Andrea Pozzo as well as chapels in Central Europe and Poland Innovative in bringing a broad range of social and critical theory to bear on Baroque art and architecture in Europe and beyond Levy's work highlights the subject forming capacity of early modern Catholic art and architecture while establishing propaganda as a productive term for art history

"The Religious Patronage of the Duke of Lerma, 1598?621 " Lisa A. Banner, 2017-07-05 Introducing fresh archival evidence author Lisa Banner here demonstrates how Francisco G de Sandoval y Rojas first Duke of Lerma served as a vital link in Habsburg architectural patronage She traces Lerma's trajectory as beginning with the ancient royal city of Valladolid

he embarked on a career of renovating or building religious foundations in various towns and cities around seventeenth century Spain The unintended consequence of his architectural patronage and involvement was to proliferate the distinctive royal architectural style developed under Philip II which connected the foundations of Lerma indelibly with the traditions of noble patronage in Habsburg Spain

Intimate Bonds Jennifer L. Palmer, 2016-08-31 Following the stories of families who built their lives and fortunes across the Atlantic Ocean Intimate Bonds explores how households anchored the French empire and shaped the meanings of race slavery and gender in the early modern period As race based slavery became entrenched in French laws all household members in the French Atlantic world regardless of their status gender or race negotiated increasingly stratified legal understandings of race and gender Through her focus on household relationships Jennifer L. Palmer reveals how intimacy not only led to the seemingly immutable hierarchies of the plantation system but also caused these hierarchies to collapse even before the age of Atlantic revolutions Placing families at the center of the French Atlantic world Palmer uses the concept of intimacy to illustrate how race gender and the law intersected to form a new worldview Through analysis of personal mercantile and legal relationships Intimate Bonds demonstrates that even in an era of intensifying racial stratification slave owners and slaves whites and people of color men and women all adapted creatively to growing barriers thus challenging the emerging paradigm of the nuclear family This engagingly written history reveals that personal choices and family strategies shaped larger cultural and legal shifts in the meanings of race slavery family patriarchy and colonialism itself

Conquête ottomane de l'Égypte (1517) Benjamin Lellouch, Nicolas Michel, 2012-09-19 Conquête ottomane de l'Égypte 1517 est le premier ouvrage collectif consacré la victoire de Selim Ier sur les Mamelouks qui a fait du sultanat ottoman l'unique puissance musulmane en Méditerranée orientale et raval l'Égypte au rang de province Il en renouvelle l'approche en faisant appel des sources ottomanes arabes et occidentales très variées Les contributions réunies par Benjamin Lellouch et Nicolas Michel s'attachent mesurer les transformations structurelles qu'elle a induites l'événement dans la société les pouvoirs la culture littéraire artistique et matérielle en Égypte Elles explorent ses antécédents et son impact géopolitique et restituent les chos bruyants puis assourdis qu'il a suscités au Proche Orient en Italie et plus généralement en Méditerranée Conquête ottomane de l'Égypte 1517 is the first collective work that deals with Selim I's crushing victory over the Mamluks which made the Ottoman sultanate into the sole remaining Muslim power in the eastern Mediterranean and reduced Egypt to the rank of a province The book offers new insights into this major event by using a wide range of Ottoman and Arabic as well as Western sources These essays in French and English collected by Benjamin Lellouch and Nicolas Michel examine to what extent the Ottoman conquest altered the structures of Egyptian society power relations literature arts and material culture They explore both its backgrounds and geopolitical aftermath and reconstruct its echoes loud at first then gradually fading out in the Middle East Italy and the Mediterranean

Art and Identity in Early Modern Rome Jill Burke, 2017-07-05 From the late fifteenth to the late seventeenth century Rome was one of the most vibrant and productive centres for the visual arts in the West Artists from all over Europe came to the city to see its classical remains and its celebrated contemporary art works as well as for the opportunity to work for its many wealthy patrons They contributed to the eclecticism of the Roman artistic scene and to the diffusion of Roman artistic styles in Europe and beyond Art and Identity in Early Modern Rome is the first book length study to consider identity creation and artistic development in Rome during this period Drawing together an international cast of key scholars in the field of Renaissance studies the book adroitly demonstrates how the exceptional quality of Roman court and urban culture with its elected monarchy its large foreign population and unique sense of civic identity interacted with developments in the visual arts With its distinctive chronological span and uniquely interdisciplinary approach Art and Identity in Early Modern Rome puts forward an alternative history of the visual arts in early modern Rome one that questions traditional periodisation and stylistic categorisation Giorgio

Vasari and the Birth of the Museum Maia Wellington Gahtan, 2017-07-05 Giorgio Vasari and the Birth of the Museum offers the first dedicated and comprehensive study of Vasari's original contributions to the making of museums addressing the subject from the full range of aspects collecting installation conceptual historical in which his influence is strongly felt Uniting specialists of Giorgio Vasari with scholars of historical museology this collection of essays presents a cross disciplinary overview of Vasari's approaches to the collecting and display of art artifacts and memorabilia Although the main focus of the book is on the mid late 16th century contributors also bring to light that Vasari's museology enjoyed a substantial afterlife well into the modern museum era This volume is a fundamental addition to the museum studies literature and a welcome enhancement to the scholarly industry on Giorgio Vasari A Companion to the Early Modern Cardinal Mary Hollingsworth, Miles Pattenden, Arnold Witte, 2019-12-30 A Companion to the Early Modern Cardinal is the first comprehensive overview of its subject in English or any language Cardinals are best known as the pope's electors but in the centuries from 1400 to 1800 they were so much more pastors inquisitors diplomats bureaucrats statesmen saints entrepreneurs and investors patrons of the arts of music literature and science Thirty five essays explain their social background positions and roles in Rome and beyond and what they meant for wider society This volume shows the impact which those men who took up the purple had in their respective fields and how their tenure of office shaped the entangled histories of Rome and the Catholic Church from a European and global perspective Rethinking the High Renaissance

Jill Burke, 2017-07-05 The perception that the early sixteenth century saw a culmination of the Renaissance classical revival only to degrade into mannerism shortly after Raphael's death in 1520 has been extremely tenacious but many scholars agree that this tidy narrative is deeply problematic Exploring how we can reconceptualize the High Renaissance in a way that reflects how we research and teach today this volume complicates and deepens our understanding of artistic change Focusing on Rome the paradigmatic centre of the High Renaissance narrative each essay presents a case study of a particular aspect of the culture of the city in the early sixteenth century including new analyses of Raphael's stanze

Michelangelo's Sistine Ceiling and the architectural designs of Bramante The contributors question notions of periodization reconsider the Renaissance relationship with classical antiquity and ultimately reconfigure our understanding of high Renaissance style
