critic's often surprising meditation on those places where life and books intersect and what might be learned from both. Once out of school most of us read for pleasure. Yet there is another equally important though often overlooked reason that we read to learn how to live. Though books have always been understood as life teachers, the exact way in which they instruct, cajole, and convince remains a subject of some mystery. Drawing on sources as diverse as Dr. Seuss and Simone Weil, P. G. Wodehouse and Isaiah Berlin, Pulitzer prize winning critic Michael Dirda shows how the wit, wisdom, and enchantment of the written word can inform and enrich nearly every aspect of life from education and work to love and death. Organized by significant life events and abounding with quotations from great writers and thinkers, Book by Book showcases Dirda's considerable knowledge which he wears lightly. Favoring showing rather than telling, Dirda draws the reader deeper into the classics as well as lesser known works of literature, history, and philosophy, always with an eye to what is relevant to how we might better understand our lives.

ABC of Reading Ezra Pound, 2010. This important work first published in 1934 is a concise statement of Pound's aesthetic theory. It is a primer for the reader who wants to maintain an active critical mind and become increasingly sensitive to the beauty and inspiration of the world's best literature. With characteristic vigor and iconoclasm, Pound illustrates his precepts with exhibits meticulously chosen from the classics, and the concluding Treatise on Meter provides an illuminating essay for anyone aspiring to read and write poetry. ABC of Reading displays Pound's great ability to open new avenues in literature for our time.
