Methodological Choice and Design Lina Markauskaite, Peter Freebody, Jude Irwin, 2010-11-04 Beginning and well seasoned researchers alike face significant challenges in understanding the complexities of research designs arising from both within and across methodological paradigms and in applying them in ways that maximise impact on knowledge, practice and policy. This volume engages educational and social researchers in a scholarly debate offering some crucial re-interpretations of established research methodologies in light of contemporary conditions and critical introduction to some contemporary research approaches yet to gain general recognition. This book is a contemporary vademecum for researchers, practitioners and graduate students on research methodologies and designs for educational and social change in today's world. The chapters chart and analyse the conceptual and practical complexities of a variety of research designs for contemporary educational and social work research. This anthology taken overall provides readers with the knowledge and understanding needed not only to design technically sound and coherent research studies but also to develop methodologically innovative research projects that cross the boundaries between different methodological traditions to the benefit of scholarship, policy and practice. The chapters cover nine research approaches: Design based research, Action research, Ethnomethodological research, Negotiated ethnography, Arts informed research, Historical analysis and postcolonial
