Loves Executioner Other Tales Of Psychotherapy Irvin:

Love's Executioner Irvin D. Yalom, 2012-06-05 A NEW YORK TIMES BEST SELLER An utterly absorbing collection of ten classic tales from the therapist's chair by renowned psychiatrist and best selling author Irvin D Yalom Newsday Why was Saul tormented by three unopened letters from Stockholm What made Thelma spend her whole life raking over a long past love affair How did Carlos's macho fantasies help him deal with terminal cancer In this engrossing book Irvin Yalom gives detailed and deeply affecting accounts of his work with these and seven other patients Deep down all of them were suffering from the basic human anxieties isolation fear of death or freedom a sense of the meaninglessness of life that none of us can escape completely And yet as the case histories make touchingly clear it is only by facing such anxieties head on that we can hope to come to terms with them and develop Throughout Dr Yalom remains refreshingly frank about his own errors and prejudices his book provides a rare glimpse into the consulting room of a master therapist Love's Executioner and Other

Tales of Psychotherapy Irvin D. Tales of Psychotherapy Irvin D. Yalom, 1980 Creatures of a Day Irvin D. Yalom, 2015-02-24 The publication of Creatures of a Day is reason to celebrate Steven Pinker In this stunning collection of stories renowned psychiatrist Irvin D Yalom describes his patients' struggles as well as his own to come to terms with the two great challenges of existence how to have a meaningful life yet reckon with its inevitable end We meet a nurse who must stifle the pain of losing her son in order to comfort her patients' pains a newly minted psychologist whose studies damage her treasured memories of a lost friend and a man whose rejection of psychological inquiry forces even Yalom himself into a crisis of confidence Creatures of a Day is a radically honest statement about the difficulties of human life but also a celebration of some of the finest fruits love family friendship it can offer Marcus Aurelius has written that we are all creatures of a day With Yalom as our guide we will find the means to make our own day not only bearable but also meaningful and joyful Momma And The Meaning Of Life Irvin

D. Yalom, 2014-03-25 As the public grows disillusioned with therapeutic quick fixes people are looking for a deeper psychotherapeutic experience to make life more meaningful and satisfying What really happens in therapy What promises and perils does it hold for them No one writes about therapy or indeed the dilemmas of the human condition with more acuity style and heart than Irvin Yalom Here he combines the storytelling skills so widely praised in Love's Executioner with the wisdom of the compassionate and fully engaged psychotherapist In these six compelling tales of therapy Yalom introduces us to an unforgettable cast of characters Paula who faces death and stares it down Magnolia into whose ample lap Yalom longs to pour his own sorrows Irene who learns to seek out anger and plunge into it And there's Momma old fashioned ill tempered who drifts into Yalom's dreams and tramples through his thoughts At once wildly entertaining and deeply thoughtful Momma

Metzl,Suzanne Poirier,2005-07-15 In an increasingly diverse society it is essential that medicine be aware of matters of difference Medical humanities programs promote awareness of the social aspects of medicine and the Association of American Medical Colleges has recently instituted cultural competencies for clinical interaction for the training of medical students Yet these efforts to impart understanding of the cross cultural aspects of medicine are still hindered by a significant limitation within a medical system whose currency is diagnosis difference is primarily defined through disease This special issue of Literature and Medicine focuses on difference and identity in the context of disease and disability The articles collected here explore the complex ways in which notions of disease disability and difference are related and in which bodies marked by gender race disability sexuality and ethnic identities experience disease in specific ways The essays take a humanities based approach to the subject and emphasize an awareness and sensitivity to difference through forms of symbolic representation such as metaphor and narrative This volume provides a heuristic lens through which relationships between individual expressions of identity and communal experiences of difference can be considered Each article speaks to the process whereby individual stories and strategies shape and are in turn shaped by the institutions they seek to transform Literature and Medicine is devoted to exploring interfaces between literary and medical knowledge and understanding The journal showcases the creative and critical work of renowned physician writers leading literary scholars and medical humanists

Sacred Music, Religious Desire and Knowledge of God Julian Perlmutter, 2020-02-20 Many people find sacred choral music profound and deeply evocative even in societies that seem to be turning away from religious belief In this book Julian Perlmutter examines how in light of its wide appeal sacred music can have religious significance for people regardless of their religious convictions By differentiating between doctrinal belief and the desire for God Perlmutter explores a longing for the spiritual that is compatible with both belief and interested non belief He describes how sacred music can elicit this kind of longing thereby helping the listener to grow in religious openness The work of Thomas Merton is also analyzed in order to show that musically elicited desire for God can be incorporated into the Christian practice of contemplative prayer aimed ultimately at a union of love with God By exploring connections between desire knowledge and religious practice this engaging account illustrates how sacred music can have a transformative effect on one's wider spiritual life Of particular interest to philosophers and theologians the book makes a novel contribution to several topics including religious epistemology the philosophy of emotion and aesthetics

Unknotting the Heart Jie Yang, 2015-11-25 Since the mid 1990s as China has downsized and privatized its state owned enterprises severe unemployment has created a new class of urban poor and widespread social and psychological disorders In Unknotting the Heart Jie Yang examines this understudied group of workers and their experiences of being laid off counseled and then reoriented to the market economy Using fieldwork from reemployment programs community psychosocial work and psychotherapy training sessions in Beijing between 2002 and 2013 Yang highlights the role of psychology in state led interventions to alleviate the effects of mass unemployment She pays particular attention to those programs that train laid off workers in basic psychology and then reemploy them as informal counselors in their capacity as housemaids and taxi drivers

These laid off workers are filling a niche market created by both economic restructuring and the shortage of professional counselors in China helping the government to defuse intensified class tension and present itself as a nurturing and kindly power In reality Yang argues this process creates both new political complicity and new conflicts often along gender lines Women are forced to use the moral virtues and work ethics valued under the former socialist system as well as their experiences of overcoming depression and suffering as resources for their new psychological care work Yang focuses on how the emotions potentials and hearts of these women have become sites of regulation market expansion and political imagination
