Markets without Limits Jason F. Brennan, Peter Jaworski, 2015-08-20 May you sell your vote May you sell your kidney May gay men pay surrogates to bear them children May spouses pay each other to watch the kids do the dishes or have sex Should we allow the rich to genetically engineer gifted beautiful children Should we allow betting markets on terrorist attacks and natural disasters Most people shudder at the thought To put some goods and services for sale offends human dignity If everything is commodified then nothing is sacred The market corrodes our character Or so most people say In Markets without Limits Jason Brennan and Peter Jaworski give markets a fair hearing The market does not introduce wrongness where there was not any previously Thus the authors claim the question of what rightfully may be bought and sold has a simple answer if you may do it for free you may do it for money Contrary to the conservative consensus they claim there are no inherent limits to what can be bought and sold but only restrictions on how we buy and sell
