These innovative contributions investigate the afterlives of a novel taught in a disparate array of courses. Frankenstein disturbs and transcends boundaries be they political ethical theological aesthetic and not least of media ensuring its vibrant presence in contemporary popular culture. Transmedia Creatures highlights how cultural content is redistributed through multiple media forms and modes of production including user generated ones from below that often appear synchronously and dismantle and renew established readings of the text while at the same time incorporating and revitalizing aspects that have always been central to it. The authors engage with concepts value systems and aesthetic moral categories among them the family horror monstrosity diversity education risk technology the body from a variety of contemporary approaches and highly original perspectives which yields new connections. Ultimately Frankenstein as evidenced by this collection is paradoxically enriched by the heteroglossia of preconceptions misreadings and overreadings that attend it and that reveal the complex interweaving of perceptions and responses it generates. Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press. School Arts, 1976 In the Arts and Crafts Style Barbara Mayer, 1992-10 Since its birth at the turn of the century the Arts and Crafts style an aesthetic that encompasses furniture fabrics tiles lighting fixtures and pottery has innovated home design. Each chapter of this lovely volume illustrated with some 150 color photos by Rob Gray examines a different facet of this aesthetic beginning with its European origins and proceeding to American classics including California's Mission style. Includes a source listing of dealers auctioneers and artisans associated with the style. 91 2x11 1/4 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
