, The Sociology of Community Connections John G. Bruhn,2011-07-18 Many of our current social problems have been attributed to the breakdown or loss of community as a place and to the fragmentation of connections due to an extreme value of individualism in the Western world particularly in the United States Not all scholars and researchers agree that individualism and technology are the primary culprits in the loss of community as it existed in the middle decade of the 20th century Nonetheless people exist in groups and connections are vital to their existence and in the daily performance of activities The second edition of the Sociology of Community Connections will identify and help students understand community connectedness in the present and future Encyclopedia of Deception Timothy R. Levine,2014-02-20

The Encyclopedia of Deception examines lying from multiple perspectives drawn from the disciplines of social psychology sociology history business political science cultural anthropology moral philosophy theology law family studies evolutionary biology philosophy and more From the little white lie to lying on a resume to the grandiose lies of presidents this two volume reference explores the phenomenon of lying in a multidisciplinary context to elucidate this common aspect of our daily lives Not only a cultural phenomenon historically lying is a frequent occurrence in our everyday lives Research shows that we are likely to lie or intentionally deceive others several times a day or in one out of every four conversations that lasts more than 10 minutes Key Features More than 360 authored by key figures in the field are organized A to Z in two volumes which are available in both print and electronic formats Entries are written in a clear and accessible style that invites readers to explore and reflect on the use of lying and self deception Each article concludes with cross references to related entries and further readings This academic multi author reference work will serve as a general non technical resource for students and researchers within social and behavioral science programs who seek to better understand the historical role of lying and how it is employed in modern society Disaster Management and Response Strategies Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-07-04

Global Citizenship for Young Children Margaret Collins, 2008-04-16

Citizenship education equips children with the skills necessary to play an active part in society and act as socially and morally responsible citizens. Margaret Collins has used her considerable experience to create another fantastic age appropriate practical resource for children aged 4-9 that widens the concept of citizenship so that it incorporates global issues. The book explores six topics: Basic needs, Environmental issues, Fairness, Exploring various cultures, Democracy, Global issues. Each section has an introductory page and ideas for resources followed by activities on the same topic differentiated for younger and older primary pupils. Clear guidelines are provided for discussion and activities which could take place in Circle Time. At the end of each section there is a story for children to consider accompanied by developmental activities and activity sheets as well as a page of reflections related to the global challenges we all face. This exciting resource will act as a starting point for stimulating teachers and encouraging children to widen their learning. Teachers will be able to use these activities to set further challenges to help explore current situations and to help with understanding present concerns. Margaret Collins is a former headteacher of infant and first schools. She is now Senior Visiting Fellow in the School of Education at the University of Southampton. She researches children's perceptions of health education topics, writes teaching materials for children books and articles on PSHE.
