Manifestoes Of Surrealism Andre Breton:

Manifestoes of Surrealism André Breton,1969 Presents the essential ideas of the founder of French surrealism

Manifesto of Surrealism André Breton,2016-12-30 Two Surrealist Manifestos were issued by the Surrealist movement in 1924 and 1929 They were both written by Andr Breton Andr Breton was explicit in his assertion that Surrealism was above all a revolutionary movement The first Surrealist manifesto was written by Breton and published in 1924 as a booklet Editions du Sagittaire The document defines Surrealism as Psychic automatism in its pure state by which one proposes to express verbally by means of the written word or in any other manner the actual functioning of thought Dictated by thought in the absence of any control exercised by reason exempt from any aesthetic or moral concern Surrealism is a cultural movement that began in the early 1920s and is best known for its visual artworks and writings The aim was to resolve the previously contradictory conditions of dream and reality Artists painted unnerving illogical scenes with photographic precision created strange creatures from everyday objects and developed painting techniques that allowed the unconscious to express itself Manifestoes of surrealism André Breton,1969 Manifestoes of Surrealism André Breton,1972

Manifestoes of Surrealism André Breton,1969 André Breton in Exile Victoria Clouston,2017-09-22 Following the journey of Andr Breton the leader of the Surrealist movement into exile during the Second World War the author of this book traces the trajectory of his thought and poetic output from 1941 1948 Through a close examination of the major and as yet little studied works written during these years she demonstrates how Breton s quest for a new myth for the postwar world led him to widen his enquiry into hermeticism myth and the occult This ground breaking study establishes Breton s profound intellectual debt to 19th century Romanticism its literature and thought revealing how it defined his understanding of hermeticism and the occult and examining the differences between the two It shows how having abandoned political action on leaving the Communist Party in 1935 Breton nonetheless held firmly to political thought moving in his quest for a better world via Hermes Trismegistus across the utopian ideas of Charles Fourier and the magical practices of the Hopi Indians The author finally reveals Breton s misreading of the situation in postwar Paris on his return in 1946 and his failure to communicate the span of his ideas for creating a better society while at the same time maintaining a close connection between art and life

Cinephilia and History, or The Wind in the Trees Christian Keathley, 2005-11-24 Cinephilia and History or The Wind in the Trees is in part a history of cinephilia in part an attempt to recapture the spirit of cinephilia for the discipline of film studies and in part an experiment in cinephilic writing Cinephiles have regularly fetishized contingent marginal details in the motion picture image the gesture of a hand the wind in the trees Christian Keathley demonstrates that the spectatorial tendency that produces such cinematic encounters a viewing practice marked by a drift in visual attention away from the primary visual elements on display in fact has clear links to the origins of film as defined by Andr Bazin Roland Barthes and others Keathley explores the implications of this ontology and proposes the cinephiliac anecdote as a new type of criticism a method of historical writing that both imitates and extends the experience of these fugitive moments J.G. Ballard's Surrealist

Imagination Jeannette Baxter, 2016-12-05 Making the case that J G Ballard s fictional and non fictional writings must be read within the framework of Surrealism Jeannette Baxter argues for a radical revisioning of Ballard that takes account of the political and ethical dimensions of his work Ballard s appropriation of diverse Surrealist aesthetic forms and political writings Baxter suggests are mobilised to contest official narratives of postwar history and culture and offer a series of counter historical and counter cultural critiques Thus Ballard s work must be understood as an exercise in Surrealist historiography that is politically and ethically engaged Placing Ballard s illustrated texts within this critical framework permits Baxter to explore the effects of photographs drawings and other visual symbols on the reading experience and the production of meaning Ballard s textual spectacles raise a variety of questions about the shifting role of the reader and the function of the written text within a predominantly visual culture while acknowledging the visual contexts of Ballard s Surrealist writings allows a very different historical picture of the author and his work to emerge Beauty and the Object Corrado
