Filipino Crosscurrents Kale Bantigue Fajardo, How migrant Filipino seamen navigate alternative masculinities in the global shipping industry Transcultural Nationalism in Hispano-Filipino Literature Irene Villaescusa Illán, 2020-07-23 This book studies a selection of works of Philippine literature written in Spanish during the American occupation of the Philippines 1902-1946. It explores the place of Filipino nationalism in a selection of fiction and non-fiction texts by Spanish-speaking Filipino writers: Jesús Balmori, Adelina Gurrea, Monasterio Paz Mendoza, Guazán and Antonio Abad. Taking an interdisciplinary approach that draws from Anthropology, History, Literary Studies, Cultural Analysis, and World Literature, this book offers a comparative analysis of the position of these authors toward the cultural transformations that have taken place as a result of the Philippines' triple history of colonization by Spain, the US, and Japan while imagining an independent nation. Engaging with an untapped archive, this book is a relevant and timely contribution to the fields of both Filipino and Hispanic literary studies.

Theatre and Music in Manila and the Asia Pacific, 1869-1946 meLê Yamomo, 2018-07-20 This book examines the intersection between sound and modernity in dramatic and musical performance in Manila and the Asia Pacific between 1869 and 1948. During this period, tolerant political regimes resulted in the globalization of capitalist relations and the improvement of transcontinental travel and worldwide communication. This allowed modern modes of theatre and music consumption to instigate the uniformization of cultural products and processes while simultaneously fragmenting societies into distinct identities, institutions, and nascent nation-states. Taking the performing bodies of migrant musicians as the locus of sound, this book argues that the global movement of acoustic modernities was replicated and diversified through its multiple subjectivities within empire, nation, and individual agencies. It traces the arrival of European travelling music and theatre companies in Asia, which recast listening into an act of modern cultural consumption, and follows the migration of Manila musicians as they engaged in the modernization project of the neighboring Asian cities.
