Lost Islamic History Firas Alkhateeb :

Lost Islamic History Firas Alkhateeb, 2014-01-09 Islam has been one of the most powerful religious social and political forces in history. Over the last 1400 years from origins in Arabia a succession of Muslim polities and later empires expanded to control territories and peoples that ultimately stretched from southern France to East Africa to South East Asia. Yet many of the contributions of Muslim thinkers, scientists and theologians, not to mention rulers, statesmen and soldiers, have been occluded. This book rescues from oblivion and neglect some of these personalities and institutions while offering the reader a new narrative of this lost Islamic history. The Umayyads, Abbasids and Ottomans feature in the story as do Muslim Spain, the savannah kingdoms of West Africa and the Mughal Empire along with the later European colonization of Muslim lands and the development of modern nation states in the Muslim world. Throughout the impact of Islamic belief on scientific advancement, social structures and cultural development is given due prominence and the text is complemented by portraits of key personalities, inventions and little known historical nuggets. The history of Islam and of the world's Muslims brings together diverse peoples, geographies and states all interwoven into one narrative that begins with Muhammad and continues to this day. Lost Islamic History Firas Alkhateeb, 2017 A lively and eye-opening popular history of Islamic civilization.

Summary of Firas Alkhateeb's Lost Islamic History Everest Media, 2022-05-13T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version, not the original book. Sample Book Insights: 1 The Hijaz is a dry mountainous landscape in the western part of the Arabian Peninsula. It was here that a new movement emerged in the early 600s, one that would change the course of history in the Arabian Peninsula and beyond. 2 The Arabian Peninsula is a landmass in southwestern Asia that has been largely ignored by outsiders. Its dry climate is barely hospitable even for the nomads who live there. Parched riverbeds run throughout the land, but they are hardly recognizable as rivers. 3 The Arab's life was based around the harsh environment in which they lived. Due to the desert's inability to support settled civilization, the Arabs were constantly on the move in search of fertile land for their flocks. 4 The pre-Islamic Arabs were almost exclusively polytheistic. The Arabs believed in the God of Ibrahim and Isma'il, but they believed he was one among many different gods. They carved idols to represent his attributes.
