Copyright's Arc Martin Skladany, 2020-09-03 In Copyright's Arc Martin Skladany rejects a one size fits all copyright regime Within developed countries copyright's incentives have spawned multinational corporations that create a plethora of slick hyped entertainment options that encourage Americans to overconsume whereas in developing countries extreme copyright blocks the widespread distribution of entertainment which impedes women's equality and human rights movements Meanwhile moderate copyright in middle income countries helps foster artistic movements that forge inclusive national identities Given these conditions Skladany argues that copyright should vary between countries following an arc across the development spectrum Waging War on Corruption Frank Vogl,2012-08-24 Never before has the call for good governance been greater The Arab Spring in early 2011 has inspired people all over the world to fight to end the abuse of power by politicians and civic officials and create more transparent accountable and honest governments In Waging War on Corruption Inside the Movement Fighting the Abuse of Power Frank Vogl one of the leaders of the worldwide anticorruption movement shares a history filled with stories of heroes and victims of corruption He chronicles the successful campaigns by enormously courageous civil society activists journalists and public prosecutors and explains the crucial challenges that now must be confronted At stake is nothing less than our global security the reduction of poverty the stability of our economic and financial systems and the cause of freedom and democracy Waging War on Corruption will be of interest to readers of politics and government business human rights and law Author Frank Vogl's website here Africa beyond Liberal Democracy Reginald M.J.
