On the Foundations of Leninism Joseph Stalin,2024-05-09 In April 1924 not long after Lenin s death Stalin delivered a series of lectures at Sverdlovsk University that were published under the title On the Foundations of Leninism These talks given in early April were meant to codify Lenin s ideas into a coherent doctrine for party cadres Stalin covered topics ranging from Marxist philosophy to policy issues he emphasized the Hegelian roots of Marxism defended the dictatorship of the proletariat and discussed the nationalities question among other subjects Essentially this text was Stalin s systematic exposition of what he believed Leninism to be blending Marxist theory with Lenin s innovations Officially published in 1924 in Moscow as lectures this work was aimed at party and academic audiences The content systematically defines Leninism as it stood in Stalin s view Stalin asserts that Leninism is built on Marxism but adds emphasis on dictatorship of the proletariat as a weapon to suppress counter revolution He affirms that socialism must be internationalist yet tactically flexible in national questions He also declares Marxist philosophy to be dialectical materialism with Lenin s contributions as supplementary No comprehensive English title predated Soviet collections but later translations often use The Foundations of Leninism The book reads like an educational primer it states its theses up front and then elaborates with examples from recent history The importance of this work is twofold First it signaled Stalin s authority in defining official ideology in the post Lenin period By putting Leninism into formal language Stalin positioned himself as the chief interpreter of Lenin s legacy Second as a historical document it reveals Stalin s early 1920s priorities for instance chapters on philosophy and party organization show he regarded these as core The lectures were republished widely in the USSR and became part of Leninist textbooks They later served as a source of doctrine within the Communist International In short On the Foundations of Leninism helped solidify Stalin s doctrinal leadership just as the Party was wrestling with Lenin s funeral and succession struggles This modern Critical Reader s Edition includes an illuminating afterword tracing Stalin s intellectual relationships with revolutionary philosophers and politicians including Hegel Feuerbach Engels and Ricardo containing unique research into his intellectual development and economic metaphysical theories religious impulses masquerading as materialism a comprehensive timeline of his life and works a glossary of Lenin Stalinist terminology and a detailed index of his work works Combined with the scholarly amplifying material this professional translation is an indispensable exploration of Stalin s world changing philosophy which he manifested into one of the most terrifying authoritarian regimes ever created Dialectical

Materialism Gustav A. Wetter, 2024-11-26 Dialectical Materialism 1958 surveys the history of dialectical materialism from its Hegelian beginnings to the death of Stalin and its sequel in the celebrated XXth Party Congress of the C P S U It also presents a systematic account of the theory as it was formulated and discussed by the philosophers of the Soviet Union

The Poetry of Joseph Stalin Joseph Stalin, 2024-05-09 At age 17 Joseph Jughashvili later Stalin surprised his seminary peers by writing Romantic Georgian verse under the pen name Soselo In 1895 the prominent poet Ilia Chavchavadze published five of his poems in the Tiflis journal Iveria This collection assembles Stalin s earliest literary efforts The verses themselves simple odes to morning lilies and rural scenes reflect Stalin s early intellectual milieu rather than any revolutionary agenda They were originally written in Georgian Stalin never claimed them after he became a Bolshevik This edition contains the following poems To the moon 1895 To Rafiel Eristov himself 1895 To the poet singer of peasant labor Prince Rafael Eristavi 1895 A vial full of poison 1895 He walked from house to house 1895 And hopes will be revived 1895 When the moon shines 1895 Morning 1895 Old Ninika 1896 This modern Critical Reader s Edition includes an illuminating afterword tracing Stalin s intellectual relationships with revolutionary philosophers and politicians including Hegel Feuerbach Engels and Ricardo containing unique research into his intellectual development and economic metaphysical theories religious impulses masquerading as materialism a comprehensive timeline of his life and works a glossary of Lenin Stalinist terminology and a detailed index of his work works Combined with the scholarly amplifying material this professional translation is an indispensable exploration of Stalin s world changing philosophy which he manifested into one of the most terrifying authoritarian regimes ever created Soviet Russian Dialectical Materialism [Diamat] J.E.

Blakeley, 2012-12-06 This book offers a critical outline of the sources of the history of the spirit and of the doctrines of present day Soviet Russian Dialectical Materialism Diamat i e of the philosophical foundations of Marxism Leninism It is scarcely necessary to stress the usefulness of a short outline of this kind as Russian sources are not easily accessible in the West and as it is of considerable interest to know the doctrines which make up the faith of the Communists in all countries The material for this book was first made public in a series of lectures at the University of Fribourg Switzerland first in French in the summer term of 1949 later in English at the Summer School in the same year The French text slightly expanded was translated into German by Miss M Hoerkens Dipl rer pol Various imperfections in the wording of the text and in the bibliography can be explained by the process of formation of this book The author hopes that such imperfections will not prove disturbing Essential Works Joseph Stalin, 2017-12-19 What can be said about this man which has not already been said Demonized by his enemies beloved by his supporters the self titled Man of Steel shaped the 20th Century like none other Who would have thought at the turn of the 20th century that the son of a shoemaker trained for the priesthood would oversee a global superpower the likes of which the world had never seen Upon his death in 1953 we find a body of work spanning many volumes This is a collection of those pieces which have stood as some of his most influential From his lecture on Leninism to his discussion on linguistics Stalin wrote a volume of work rivalled by few others From Dialectical and Historical Materialism to Anarchism or Socialism Joseph Stalin wrote in a manner which made complex subjects easier for the common person to understand Whatever else is written or said about the man Stalin was the man who like none other stood for the 20th Century Only by better understanding his own words can we fully grasp the weight of the era Works include Anarchism or Socialism Marxism and the National Question Concerning Questions of Leninism Dialectical and Historical Materialism Marxism and the Problem of Linguistics Economic Problems of the USSR Dialectical Materialism Gustav Andreas Wetter, 1973 The Proletarian Class and the Proletarian Party Joseph Stalin, 2024-05-09 On January 1 1905 Stalin published an article The Proletarian Class and the Proletarian Party which was a debate contribution on how the Social Democratic Labour Party should be organized Beginning with the observation that there is no such thing as Russia one and indivisible Russia long ago split into two opposite classes bourgeoisie and proletariat Stalin used military metaphors two big armies to illustrate class struggle He then drew parallels between the working class and its party if the proletariat is the army of workers then the Party must be the small disciplined group of leaders guiding that army This essay argued explicitly that Social Democracy must be a highly unified centralized organization with strict membership criteria a view in line with Lenin and directed against the Menshevik Martov's looser definition This piece appeared in 1905 pre revolutionary Russia likely in a Bolshevik journal as part of a row over the first paragraph of Party rules Its core content was a critique of Martov's formulation of membership accept the program and pay dues in favor of Lenin's position that members must actively work in party organizations Stalin insisted that a Party member not only accepts socialist ideas but must fight for them in a united cadre the party is not a loose club of sympathizers but a fighting organization of conscious leaders Thus he concluded only those fully committed one who fully accepts the program tactics and organizational principle and works in a Party organization can be a proper member In terms of historical importance this article has been cited as an early example of Stalin's organizational thinking It solidified the idea that the Bolshevik Party must be a tight fortress as Stalin later put it as opposed to Martov's more inclusive concept Published just before the 1905 Revolution's climax it attempted to prepare the party for mass struggle by emphasizing discipline Its significance was later amplified in Stalinist historiography as part of the narrative that Stalin backed Lenin's strict centralism from the start The essay itself is sometimes identified by quoting its military imagery or by its subject it did not have a catchy alternate title but it is often referred to in compilations as Stalin's reply to Martov on the nature of Party membership This modern Critical Reader's Edition includes an illuminating afterword tracing Stalin's intellectual relationships with revolutionary philosophers and politicians including Hegel Feuerbach Engels and Ricardo containing unique research into his intellectual development and economic metaphysical theories religious impulses masquerading as materialism a comprehensive timeline of his life and works a glossary of Lenin Stalinist terminology and a detailed index of his work works Combined with the scholarly amplifying material this professional
