Jacks And Jokers Matthew Condon:

Jacks and Jokers Matthew Condon, 2014-04-01 Continuing on from the bestselling Three Crooked Kings Jacks and Jokers opens in 1976 Terry Lewis exiled in western Queensland is soon to be controversially appointed Police Commissioner As for the other two original Crooked Kings Tony Murphy is set to ruthlessly take control of the workings of The Joke while Glen Hallahan retired from the force begins to show a keen interest in the emerging illicit drug trade Meanwhile ex cop and Bagman Jack Herbert collects the payments and efficiently takes police graft to a whole new level The Joke heralds an era of hard drugs illegal gambling and prostitution and leaves in its wake a string of unsolved murders and a trail of dirty money With the highest levels of police and government turning a blind eye the careers of honest police officers and the lives of innocent civilians are threatened and often lost as corruption escalates out of control Revealing more incredible facts and previously untold stories award winning journalist and novelist Matthew Condon once again exposes the shocking behaviour outside the law by the law Jacks and Jokers is the gripping second instalment of the rise and spectacular fall of one man an entire state and generations of corruption

Under a Bad Sun Paul Bleakley, 2021-11-01 Why do police officers turn against the people they are hired to protect This question seems all the more urgent in the wake of recent global protests against police brutality Historical criminologist Paul Bleakley addresses this by examining a series of intersecting cases of police corruption in Queensland Australia The protection and extortion of illegal gambling operators and sex workers were only the most visible features of a decades long pervasive culture of corruption in the state s law enforcement agency Even more dangerous and far harder to prosecute was the corrupt bargain between the police and the state s conservative government which gave law enforcement free rein to profit from criminalized vice in return for supporting the government s repression and persecution of its political enemies from punk music fans to gay men to left wing protestors While intimidating members of the political opposition the police also protected friends and allies from criminal prosecution even for offenses as serious as child sex abuse When journalists and investigators revealed this corrupt bargain in 1987 the premier was forced from office and the police commissioner went to prison But untangling politics from policing proved and continues to prove far more difficult in societies around the world This true crime story goes beyond the everyday violations of law and ethics to underscore how central honest equitable policing is to a truly democratic society

All Fall Down Matthew Condon, 2015-10-01 Continuing on from the bestselling true crime stories Three Crooked Kings and Jacks and Jokers All Fall Down follows Terry Lewis as he becomes police commissioner and the era of corruption at the highest levels of the police and government goes on As the Queensland police become more connected with their corrupt colleagues in Sydney the era of heavy drugs and crime also begins Tony Murphy and Glen Hallahan two of the original crooked kings become more enmeshed with The Joke which is run by bagman Jack Herbert All Fall Down introduces new characters more extraordinary behavior outside the law by the law and along the way it charts the meteoric rise of police commissioner Terry Lewis But with the arrival of the Fitzgerald Inquiry in the late 1980s many will fall and it's not always the people who should. Once again award winning journalist and novelist Matthew Condon has drawn from unprecedented access to Terry Lewis as well as hundreds of interviews with key players and conspirators to craft the definitive account of the rise and spectacular fall of one man, an entire state and over a generation of corruption. The Night Dragon Matthew Condon, 2019-03-04 He takes you in the middle of the night like an angel and you're gone for good. Witness at Vincent O Dempsey's committal hearing. In 2017 Vincent O Dempsey was sentenced to life in prison for the brutal murders of Barbara McCulkin and her two young daughters. It took over 40 years to bring him to justice. Feared for decades by criminals and police alike, O Dempsey associated with convicted underworld figures and has been linked to a string of haunting cold cases including the deadly Whiskey au Go Go nightclub firebombing that killed 15 innocent people. Award winning investigative journalist Matthew Condon has interviewed dozens of ex-cons, police and witnesses to put together a compelling picture of the calculating killer who spent his life evading the law before he was finally brought to justice. Policing Child Sexual Abuse Paul Bleakley, 2021-09-15 Policing Child Sexual Abuse provides a historical overview of the evolution of policing child sexual abuse in Queensland, tracing a legacy of failure even corruption in the decades leading up to the foundation of Task Force Argos, a branch of the Queensland Police Service created in part as a response to criticisms of police shortcomings in this area. The book uses archival material as a foundation to trace the shifting approach to policing child sexual abuse (CSA) from the 1960s when juvenile justice first became a central focus of policing in Queensland to the 2010s at which point Task Force Argos made international headlines for its primary role in bringing major international CSA offenders like Shannon McCoole, Benjamin Warhead, Faulkner and Richard Huckle to justice. Examining archival material to pinpoint the reasons that CSA was not dealt with effectively in the past, the book shows that often these reasons were political, unrelated to the policing of CSA at all. Policing Child Sexual Abuse stands as a testament to the victims of CSA who have been failed by the system in the past. In addition, the book acts as a case study of how a police force with such a negative track record in policing this area was able to correct its path and reform its practices to the point that it could emerge as a world leader in policing CSA. Though nominally focused on policing in one Australian state, the implications are global, with Task Force Argos's work naturally impacting on the CSA investigations of all of its partner agencies both in Australia and internationally. Demonstrating how even in contexts where police responses to CSA have been met with significant criticism, an opportunity still exists to reject historical failures in favour of a renewed commitment to proactive policing, this book will be of great interest to scholars of policing, historical criminology and child sexual abuse. Three Crooked Kings Matthew Condon, 2023-11-28 One of the landmark Australian true crime books with a new introduction following the death of disgraced Police Commissioner Terry Lewis, Three Crooked Kings is the shocking true story of Queensland and how a society was shaped by almost half a century of corruption. Operation Jungle John Shobbrook,2021-08-03 A gripping blend of memoir true crime and corruption in the tropics In the late 1970s criminal mastermind John Milligan and his associates conspired to import heroin into Far North Queensland via a remote mountain top airdrop In a story that is stranger than fiction it took them three trips through dense jungle to locate the heroin but they only recovered one of the two packages When narcotics agent John Shobbrook took on the investigation of this audacious crime codenamed Operation Jungle his career was on the rise within the Federal Bureau of Narcotics What he discovered unwittingly set in motion a chain of events that not only destroyed his own career but led to the disbanding of the Narcotics Bureau Operation Jungle is a gripping true story about the high cost of truth and the far reaching tentacles of greed and corruption that cross state borders and legal jurisdictions

A War of Words Hamish McDonald,2014-05-01 He told her about his struggle in Melbourne to turn himself into a British style officer for the Australian Army the nights in tents by the Pyramids the terror of the landing under sniper fire and the scramble up the heights of Gallipoli the filth and danger of the trenches at Lone Pine He showed her the scar above his right eye There was a lot he didn t tell her Raised Japanese in a European skin at the turn of the 20th century fate and circumstance would ensure that Charles Bavier spent his life caught between two cultures yet claimed by neither The illegitimate son of a Swiss businessman Charles was brought up by his father s Japanese mistress before setting off on an odyssey that took him into China s republican revolution against the Manchus the ANZAC assault on Gallipoli and British counter intelligence in pre war Malaya Bavier s journey finally led him into a little known Allied psych war against Japan as part of the vicious Pacific War where his unique knowledge of Japanese culture and language made him man of the hour This is the story of a man regarded at times as a spy by both the Allies and the Japanese but who remained true to the essential humanity of both sides of a dehumanised racial conflict Though far from the glory he craved Bavier saved thousands of lives in the South West Pacific the Japanese soldiers who surrendered and the Americans and Australians they would have taken with them A War of Words traces the extraordinary life of Charles Bavier and is based on his own diaries and three decades of research by journalist and author Hamish McDonald The Australian Gamble Paul Bleakley, 2023-07-15 The Australian Gamble explores Jack Rooklyn's role as a thread that connects some of the best recognized characters and most pivotal events in Australian criminal history. It is a story that begins overseas with the origins of the Bally poker machine company, a scandal-prone business with a name that was fated to be forever linked with Rooklyn's. From humble origins in Al Capone's Chicago, Bally rode the amusement game wave to become one of the biggest players in the gaming industry worldwide, a status that made it an attractive target for takeover by America's Italian Mafia. Run out of Cuba on the heels of Castro's communist revolution, the Families were looking for new opportunities to expand their gaming ambitions both in the desert mecca Las Vegas and more quietly through clandestinely sinking their hooks into a financially struggling Bally Multiculturalism, Whiteness and Otherness in Australia Jon Stratton, 2020-07-17 This book examines the experience of race and ethnicity in Australia after the withering away of official multiculturalism. The first chapter looks at the formation of the Australian state, the role that multiculturalism has played and the impact of neoliberal ideas. The second chapter takes nightclubbing in the city of Perth during the 1980s, the peak period for official multiculturalism, to exemplify how diversity and exclusion functioned in everyday life. The third chapter considers the imbrication of Christianity in the Australian socio-cultural order and its impact on the limits of multiculturalism, with particular concentration on Islam and the Australian Muslim experience. Subsequent chapters discuss the exclusionary experience of various groups identified as non-white through the lens of films, popular music and television programs Australian Dictionary of Biography, Volume 19 Melanie Nolan, 2021-03-09 Volume 19 of the Australian Dictionary of Biography (ADB) contains concise biographies of individuals who died between 1991 and 1995. The first of two volumes for the 1990s, it presents a colourful montage of late twentieth-century Australian life, containing the biographies of significant and representative Australians. The volume is still in the shadow of World War II, with servicemen and women who enlisted young appearing, but these influences are dimming and there are now increasing numbers of non-white, non-male, non-privileged and non-straight subjects. The 680 individuals recorded in volume 19 of the ADB include Wiradjuri midwife and Ngunnawal Elder Violet Bulger, Aboriginal rights activist, poet, playwright and artist Kevin Gilbert, and Torres Strait Islander community leader and land rights campaigner Eddie Mabo. HIV/AIDS child activists Tony Lovegrove and Eve Van Grafhorst have entries, as does conductor Stuart Challender, the first Australian celebrity to go public about his HIV/AIDS condition in 1991. The arts are as always well represented, including writers Frank Hardy, Mary Durack and Nene Gare, actors Frank Thring and Leonard Teale, and arts patron Ian Potter. We are beginning to see the effects of the steep rise in postwar immigration, with flow-through to the ADB. Artist Joseph Stanislaw Ostoja, Kotkowski, was born in Poland. Pilar Moreno de Otaegui co-founded the Spanish Club of Sydney. Chinese restaurateur and community leader Ming Poon Dick Low migrated to Victoria in 1953. Often we have a dearth of information about the domestic lives of our subjects, politician Olive

Zakharov however bravely disclosed at the Victorian launch of the federal government's campaign to Stop Violence Against Women in 1993 that she was a survivor of domestic violence in her second marriage
