Fundamentals of Fiction Earl J. Wilcox,David L. Rankin,1992-12-31 Fundamentals of Fiction is intended to give both the general reader and the beginning student of literature a comprehensive though basic approach to understanding fiction It provides detailed explanations of primary elements of fiction point of view description narration character plot language meaning and theme and examines some of the more subtle and elusive components of fiction including metaphor imagery symbolism subject tone and mood Five short works of fiction Odour of Chrysanthemums by D H Lawrence The Chrysanthemums by John Steinbeck The Destructors by Graham Greene Patricia Edith and Arnold by Dylan Thomas and Maggie A Girl of the Streets by Stephen Crane are used to integrate and support the discussions of fictional elements Created to enhance almost any anthology of fiction the text includes exercises for class discussion and writing exercises and an appendix listing both the fundamentals of fiction in fifty popular short stories and exercises for use with them Reprinted from the 1975 Allyn and Bacon edition

The Works of Graham Greene Mike Hill,Jon Wise,2013-03-14 A comprehensive reference guide to the published writings of Graham Greene this book surveys not only Greene's literary work including his fiction poetry and drama but also his other published writings Accessibly organised over five central sections the book provides the most up to date listing available of Greene's journalism his published letters and major interviews The Writings of Graham Greene also includes a bibliography of major secondary writings on Greene and a substantial and fully cross referenced index to aid scholars and researchers working in the field of 20th Century literature

Teenage Time Pamela Thurschwell,2025-07-24 Adolescence has been codified as an unpredictable experimental and liminal time Teenage Time reads this phase as queer in its framing and disruption of developmental narratives of modernity showing that the identity of the teenager as it has been culturally perceived in different epochs developing since the 1940s has shaped the temporal imaginary of the 20th and 21st century From the conception of the teenager after the Second World War through notions of rebellion and consumption peaking in the 1980s and 1990s to representations of their precarious futures amidst the political social economic and environmental uncertainties of today Pamela Thurschwell exposes British and American representations of the adolescent as both destructive and recursive in their disturbance of narrative and teleology in literature film and sub cultural history Calling on theories of queer temporality time studies psychoanalysis and Marxist accounts of modernity this book traces how the teenager is out of time and time travelling commodified anarchic futureless precarious with an uneven distribution of time in relation to race and how they confront dystopias in Young Adult catastrophe literature Covering a wide range of works this book features contemporary and YA fiction such as The Member of the Wedding American Pastoral Sula The Hate U Give The Fault in Our Stars How I Live Now Never Let Me Go The Hunger Games and They Both Die at the End and films including Donnie Darko The Breakfast Club Back to the Future Say Anything and Ghost World Original and conceptually sophisticated Thurschwell demonstrates how adolescence is formed in dialogue with a crisis in and of historical time revealing the promise and destruction of the modern teenager

The Facts on File Companion to the British

Short Story Andrew Maunder, 2007 A comprehensive reference to short fiction from Great Britain Ireland and the British Commonwealth With approximately 450 entries this A to Z guide explores the literary contributions of such writers as Joseph Conrad James Joyce D H Lawrence Rudyard Kipling Oscar Wilde Katherine Mansfield Martin Amis and others

British Literature and Culture in Second World Wartime Beryl Pong, 2020-05-14 British Literature and Culture in Second World Wartime excavates British late modernism's relationship to war in terms of chronophobia a joint fear of the past and future As a wartime between but distinct from those of the First World War and the Cold War Second World wartime involves an anxiety that is both repetition and imaginary both a dread of past violence unleashed anew and that of a future violence still ungraspable Identifying a constellation of temporalities and affects under three tropes time capsules time zones and ruins this volume contends that Second World wartime is a pivotal moment when wartime surpassed the boundaries of a specific state of emergency becoming first routine and then open ended It offers a synoptic wide ranging look at writers on the home front including Henry Green Elizabeth Bowen Virginia Woolf and Rose Macaulay through a variety of genres such as life writing the novel and the short story It also considers an array of cultural and archival material from photographers such as Cecil Beaton filmmakers such as Charles Crichton and artists such as John Minton It shows how figures harnessed or exploited their media's temporal properties to formally register the distinctiveness of this wartime through a complex feedback between anticipation and retrospection oftentimes fashioning the war as a memory even while it was taking place While offering a strong foundation for new readers of the mid century the book's overall theoretical focus on chronophobia will be an important intervention for those already working in the field Encyclopedia of the British Short Story Andrew Maunder, 2015-04-22 Provides a comprehensive reference to short fiction from Great Britain Ireland and the British Commonwealth featuring some of the most popular writers and works Guide to British Prose Fiction Explication Lynn Beene, 1997 Graham Greene Michael G. Brennan, 2010-03-18 In this significant rereading of Graham Greene's writing career Michael Brennan explores the impact of major issues of Catholic faith and doubt on his work particularly in relation to his portrayal of secular love and physical desire and examines the religious and secular issues and plots involving trust betrayal love and despair Although Greene's female characters have often been underestimated Brennan argues that while sometimes abstract symbolic and two dimensional these figures often prove central to an understanding of the moral personal and spiritual dilemmas of his male characters Finally he reveals how Greene was one of the most generically ambitious writers of the twentieth century experimenting with established forms but also believing that the career of a successful novelist should incorporate a great diversity of other categories of writing Offering a new and original perspective on the reading of Greene's literary works and their importance to English twentieth century fiction this will be of interest to anyone studying Greene Art, Emotion and Ethics Berys Gaut, 2007-05-24 Art Emotion and Ethics is a systematic investigation of the relation of art to morality a topic that has been of central and recurring interest to the philosophy of art since Plato Berys Gaut explores the various positions that have been taken in this debate and argues that an artwork is always aesthetically flawed insofar as it possesses a moral defect that is aesthetically relevant Three main arguments are developed for this view these involve showing how moral goodness is itself a kind of beauty that artworks can teach us about morality and that this is often an aesthetic merit in them and that our emotional responses to works of art are properly guided in part by moral considerations Art Emotion and Ethics also contains detailed interpretations of a wide range of artworks including Rembrandt's Bathsheba and Nabokov's Lolita which show that ethical criticism can yield rich and plausible accounts of individual works Gaut develops a new theory of the nature of aesthetic value explores how art can teach us about the world and what we morally ought to do by guiding our imaginings and argues that we can have genuine emotions towards people and events that we know are merely fictional Characterised by its clarity and sustained argument this book will be of interest to anyone who wants to understand the relation of art to morality The Routledge Companion on Architecture, Literature and The City Jonathan Charley, 2018-09-03 This Companion breaks new ground in our knowledge and understanding of the diverse relationships between literature architecture and the city which together form a field of interdisciplinary research that is one of the most innovative and exciting to have emerged in recent years Bringing together a wide variety of contributors not only writers architectural and literary scholars and social scientists but graphic novelists and artists the book offers contemporary essays on everything from science fiction and the crime novel to poetry comics and oral history It is structured into two sections History Narrative and Genre and Strategy Language and Form Including over ninety illustrations the book is a must read for academics and students Empire of Ruins Miles Orvell,2021 Americans have been fascinated by ruins as symbols of the past and now as symbols of the future Empire of Ruins tells the story of what ruins have meant to Americans and how their representation in photography often both beautiful and terrifying has shaped their meaning Slackonomics Lisa Chamberlain,2008-07-08 Why Gen Xers waiting for Boomers to retire have made the choices they have and how their creativity can save us from economic ruin Romans (Teach the Text Commentary Series) C. Marvin Pate,2013-01-15 The Teach the Text Commentary Series utilizes the best of biblical scholarship to provide the information a pastor needs to communicate the text effectively The carefully selected preaching units and focused commentary allow pastors to quickly grasp the big idea and key themes of each passage of Scripture Each unit of the commentary includes the big idea and key themes of the passage and sections dedicated to understanding teaching and illustrating the text The Pros & Cons of Dragon-Slaying Labriola, Anthony,2015-03 This collection shows us the battles fought lost and won when we strive to live life to the fullest In the fabled adventures in both this world and the next there are many quests to be embarked on with countless clashes with dragons seen and unseen In The Pros Cons of Dragon Slaying the characters struggle with the bewildering aspects of existence and try to prevail against the forces that are arrayed against them or that are besieging them from within Despite their multiple points of view which range from the farce to the surreal these crusade stories all speak in harmony as they reveal life s stunning surprises and twisted ironies The tales also speak for life against death for love against apathy and for the human spirit against all forms of oppression But as you weigh the pros and cons of dragon slaying take care to watch out for the tempters and demons of inwardness Beware the dragons of the mind Finding St. Paul in Film Richard Walsh,2005-11-07 Paul goes to the movies and finds himself Zelig like in many contemporary films Domicide Douglas Porteous,Sandra E. Smith,2001-10-17 Their eyes see rubble former exiles see home Globe and Mail 23 June 2000 Douglas Porteous and Sandra Smith begin their analysis by examining just how important home is to human life and community Using a multitude of case studies of displacement they derive a theoretical framework that addresses the methods effects of and motives for domicile Two case studies of resettlement resulting from hydro electric power development in British Columbia are used to test this framework Porteous and Smith assess the implications of loss of home evaluate current efforts at mitigation suggest better policies to alleviate the suffering of the dispossessed and as a last resort urge resistance against unacceptable projects
