Moore, 2004-02-23 This new edition of Jerry D Moore's Visions of Culture presents introductory anthropology students with a brief readable and balanced treatment of theoretical developments in the field New to this edition are pieces on Sherry Ortner Pierre Bourdieu and Eric Wolf an Epilogue that describes key current debates over theory This is an ideal text for classes on the theory or the history of anthropology

The Spiritual Quest Robert Mitchell Torrance, 1994 This treatise argues that the quest for the spirit is not a rare mystical experience but a frequent expression of basic human impulses rooted in our biological psychological and social nature It presents the quest in the myths and religious practices of tribal people throughout the world

A Problem of Presence Matthew Engelke, 2007-05-21 The Friday Masowe apostolics of Zimbabwe refer to themselves as the Christians who don't read the Bible They claim they do not need the Bible because they receive the Word of God live and direct from the Holy Spirit In this insightful and sensitive historical ethnography Matthew Engelke documents how this rejection of scripture speaks to longstanding concerns within Christianity over mediation and authority The Bible of course has been a key medium through which Christians have recognized God's presence But the apostolics perceive scripture as an unnecessary even dangerous mediator For them the materiality of the Bible marks a distance from the divine and prohibits the realization of a live and direct faith Situating the Masowe case within a broad comparative framework Engelke shows how their rejection of textual authority poses a problem of presence which is to say how the religious subject defines and claims to construct a relationship with the spiritual world through the semiotic potentials of language actions and objects Written in a lively and accessible style A Problem of Presence makes important contributions to the anthropology of Christianity the history of religions in Africa semiotics and material culture studies

Engaging Communities in Cultural Heritage Tuuli Lähdesmäki, Johanna Turunen, Andrei Terian, Renaud Garcia-Bardidia, 2025-09-30 This book explores the concepts and practices of participation and community engagement in cultural heritage examining the impact of the participatory turn in the heritage sector and the key opportunities and challenges it presents Participation has become a widely used umbrella term in the discourses of heritage institutions practitioners and scholars alike This participatory turn represents a shift towards the active involvement of communities stakeholders and the public in decision making processes moving away from traditional top down approaches towards more inclusive and collaborative models in which diverse voices contribute to cultural heritage While the pluralisation of heritage narratives meanings and practices can sometimes give rise to societal tensions this book argues that broader participation is essential for unlocking heritage s transformative potential and future oriented impetus The book explores these issues through 15 case studies drawn from across the globe and organised into three thematic sections social inclusion in heritage practices the role of digital tools in heritage participation and participatory heritage management and governance These case studies contribute to emerging debates on expanding the spaces where heritage participation and community engagement take place Interdisciplinary in nature this book is intended for scholars and professionals working on cultural heritage participation social inclusion digitisation management and community and audience engagement It is also well suited for undergraduate and graduate courses that critically examine heritage participation and community engagement in today s pluralistic societies

The Ideology of Ritual Frank H. Gorman, 1990-01-01 For the Priestly writers ritual was a fundamental form of theological reflection This study analyses the conceptual categories of space time and status in an effort to clarify the larger cultural and conceptual categories operative in the Priestly ritual system Drawing on interpretative models derived from cultural anthropology the author argues that Priestly creation theology forms a necessary context for understanding the Priestly rituals

African Cultural Personalities in a World of Change Ikechukwu Anthony Kanu, Ejikemeuwa J. O. Ndubisi, Kanayo Nwadior, 2018-08-16 This notwithstanding over the years the African culture in all its manifestations became the bulls eye for attack especially during the Atlantic Slave Trade Colonialism Racism During these periods Europe dealt coup de grace to the African personality to his is ness by destroying the African cultural values They disrespected African peculiarities languages enriched with traditions of centuries parables many of them the quintessence of family and national histories modes of thought influenced more or less by local circumstances local poetry which reveals the profundity of African literary wizardry A lot of these were altered against the background that the African in all his susceptibilities is an inferior race and that it is needful to give him a foreign model beacon to emulate and follow In our time of globalization bringing about a new sweep of changes on the African cultural values a more careful historically grounded interpretation of the cultural changes occurring on the continent is therefore needed and for it to be useful it should enable us to transcend the narrow and narrowing parameters that currently dominate the discourse on the processes and structures of change occurring in contemporary Africa This piece is a great accomplishment by African scholars to do a grounded hermeneutics of the structures of changes taking place in Africa The different chapters are the fruits of the 2018 International Conference of the Association for the Promotion of African Studies APAS The authors like artists combine originality with insightful imagination They have carefully treated the historical conceptual basic and substantive issues in cultural change in Africa Their coherent systematic and encyclopedic approaches have the capacity to expand the intellectual and professional horizon of its readers

the multiple meanings and functions of sacrifice in diverse religious texts and practices from the late Hellenistic and Roman imperial periods Sharing Our Worlds Joy Hendry, 2008-04 Women today are being instructed on how they can raise their self esteem love their inner child survive their toxic families overcome codependency and experience a revolution from within By holding up the ideal of a pure and happy inner core psychotherapists refuse to acknowledge that a certain degree of unhappiness or dissatisfaction is a routine part of life and not necessarily a cause for therapy Lesbians specifically are now guided to define themselves according to their frailties inadequacies and insecurities An incisive critique of contemporary feminist psychology and therapy Changing our Minds argues not just that the current practice of psychology is flawed but that the whole idea of psychology runs counter to many tenets of lesbian feminist politics Recognizing that many lesbians do feel unhappy and experience a range of problems that detract from their well being Changing Our Minds makes positive prescriptive suggestions for non psychological ways of understanding and dealing with emotional distress Written in a lively and engaging style Changing our Minds is required reading for anyone who has ever been in therapy or is close to someone who has and for lesbians feminists psychologists psychotherapists students of psychology and women s studies and anyone with an interest in the development of lesbian feminist theory ethics and practice Shamanism Mariko Namba Walter, Eva Jane Neumann Fridman, 2004-12-15 A guide to worldwide shamanism and shamanistic practices emphasizing historical and current cultural adaptations This two volume reference is the first international survey of shamanistic beliefs from prehistory to the present day In nearly 200 detailed readable entries leading ethnographers psychologists archaeologists historians and scholars of religion and folk literature explain the general principles of shamanism as well as the details of widely varied practices What is it like to be a shaman Entries describe region by region the traits such as sicknesses and dreams that mark a person as a shaman as well as the training undertaken by initiates They detail the costumes music rituals artifacts and drugs that shamans use to achieve altered states of consciousness communicate with spirits travel in the spirit world and retrieve souls Unlike most Western books on shamanism which focus narrowly on the individual s experience of healing and trance Shamanism also examines the function of shamanism in society from social political and historical perspectives and identifies the ancient continuous thread that connects shamanistic beliefs and rituals across cultures and millennia

Intercultural Encounters Wim M. J. van Binsbergen, 2003 This book brings together fifteen essays investigating aspects of interculturality Like its author it operates at the borderline between social anthropology and intercultural philosophy It seeks to make a contribution to intercultural philosophy by formulating with great precision and painful honesty the lessons deriving from extensive intercultural experiences as an anthropologist Its culminating section presents an intercultural philosophy revolving on the tenet cultures do not exist The kaleidoscopic nature of intercultural experiences is reflected in the diversity of these texts Many belong to a field that could be described as meta anthropology others are more clearly philosophical occasionally they spill over into belles lettres ancient history and comparative cultural and religious studies The ethnographic specifics supporting the arguments are diverse deriving from various African situations in which the author has conducted participatory field research Tunisia Zambia Botswana and South Africa Anthropological Theory R.
