Formations of Modernity Stuart Hall, Bram Gieben, 1992-01 The Formations of Modernity Bram Gieben, Stuart Hall, 1993-01-04 Formations of Modernity is a major introductory textbook offering an account of the important historical processes institutions and ideas that have shaped the development of modern societies This challenging and innovative book maps the evolution of those distinctive forms of political economic social and cultural life which characterize modern societies from their origins in early modern Europe to the nineteenth century It examines the roots of modern knowledge and the birth of the social sciences in the Enlightenment and analyses the impact on the emerging identity of the West of its encounters through exploration trade conquest and colonization with other civilizations Designed as an introduction to modern societies and modern sociological analyses this book is of value to students on a wide variety of social science courses in universities and colleges and also to readers with no prior knowledge of sociology Selected readings from a broad range of classical writers Weber Durkheim Marx Freud Adam Smith Montesquieu Hobbes Locke Rousseau and contemporary thinkers Michael Mann E P Thompson Edward Said are integrated in each chapter together with student questions and exercises

Formations of Modernity Stuart Hall, Bram Gieben, 1995 Decolonial Politics in European Peripheries Sanja S. Petkovska, 2023-12-12 Decolonial Politics in European Peripheries Redefining Progressiveness Coloniality and Transition Efforts is a timely contribution to the project of theorizing Europe through decolonial perspectives on the Left as the European and global crisis has prompted new reflections on what it means to sit still at the European peripheries The book explores how the joint scholarship efforts of postcolonial and postsocialist scholars might come up with better grounded and more detailed theoretical and methodological insights into the process of globalization and subsequent peripheralization if framed under a progressive and leftist perspective The authors many from the South East Europe region use a variety of analytical lenses to demonstrate how the nexus of postcolonial postsocialist area studies and progressive developmental political thought could inspire changes in the future which are in dissonance with neoliberal and neoconservative capitalism As the side effects of global capitalism continue to accelerate scholars and activists in the postsocialist periphery are increasingly turning to the concept of decoloniality in the hope that it might offer more options on how to begin to build up their framework This book offers numerous examples of how decolonial theory can be applied to activist work in the fight against austerity and neoliberalization as well as examples of how decolonial critique can be mobilized to contest processes of Europeanization and Euro Atlantic integration This book will intrigue students and scholars of critical social scholarship in general as well as postsocialism and postcolonialism critiques of right populism and the rise of white nationalism in Europe and those studying the regions of South Eastern Europe and Eurasia more generally It will also interest activists organizers decision makers policy analysts and leftists both in the region and internationally

Who Runs the Artworld Brad Buckley, John Conomos, 2017-09-01 Who Runs the Artworld Money Power and Ethics examines the economics and mythologies of today's global artworld. It unmasks the complex web of relationships that now exist among high profile curators, collectors, museum trustees and corporate sponsors and the historic and ongoing complicity between the art and money markets. The book examines alternative models being deployed by curators and artists influenced by the 2008 global financial crisis and the international socio-political Occupy movement with a particular focus on a renewed activism by artists. This activism is coupled with an institutional and social critique led by groups such as Liberate Tate, the Precarious Workers Brigade and Strike Debt. Who Runs the Artworld: Money, Power and Ethics brings together a diverse range of thinkers who draw on the disciplines of art theory, social sciences and cultural economics and curatorship and the lived experience of artists. The contributors to this book are in their respective contexts working at the forefront of these compelling issues.

Theorizing Imitation in the Visual Arts Paul Duro, 2016-01-19 The theory and practice of imitation has long been central to the construction of art and yet imitation is still frequently confused with copying. Theorizing Imitation in the Visual Arts challenges this prejudice by revealing the ubiquity of the practice across cultures and geographical borders. This fascinating collection of original essays has been compiled by a group of leading scholars. It challenges the prejudice of imitation in art by bringing to bear a perspective that reveals the ubiquity of the practice of imitation across cultural and geographical borders. It brings light to a broad range of areas, some of which have been little researched in the past.

Strategizing Management Accounting Chandana Alawattage, Danture Wickramasinghe, 2018-08-30 The theory and practice of management accounting should be seen within the context of varieties of global capitalism to appreciate its role as a calculative technology of capitalism which is practiced on factory floors, corporate boards, computer networks, spreadsheets and so forth. This new textbook is the first to introduce the field from a rounded social science perspective. Strategizing Management Accounting offers a theoretical discussion on management accounting's strategic orientation by accommodating two interrelated lines of analyses from historical and contemporary perspectives. The book illustrates how new management accounting has evolved into the form in which it exists today in its neoliberal context and how those new management accounting practices have become manifestos for the managers as calculative technologies of decision making, performance management, control, corporate governance as well as global governance and development within various forms of organizations across the globe. Each chapter draws on Foucauldian analysis of biopolitics explaining how neoliberal market logic informs a set of strategies and mechanisms through which various social entities and discourses are made governable by considering them as biopolitical entities of global governance. Written by two recognized accounting experts, this book is vital reading for all students of management accounting and will also be a useful supplementary resource for those wanting to understand and research accounting's vital role in contemporary society.

The Great Nation of Futurity Patricia L. Dunmire, 2023 The Great Nation of Futurity examines the rhetoric of American exceptionalism, the idea that the United States is an exemplary nation with a unique divinely sanctioned role within Cold War foreign policy discourse. Taking a discourse analytic approach Patricia L Dunmire focuses specifically on how images and visions of the future within exceptionalist rhetoric are used to promote and endorse the nation's foreign policy during the Cold War Cultural Theory and Late Modernity Johan Fornäs,1995 This text offers an overview of contemporary cultural theory Drawing together different approaches and traditions the author demonstrates the breadth of the field of cultural theory and proposes a multidimensional model for understanding culture in late modernity Journal of Social Studies Research ,2011

Twentieth-century European Cultural Theorists Paul Hansom,2001 Presents biographies of the men and women who wrestled with the complex theoretical problems of twentieth century culture Many of the theorists treated in this volume are concerned with the effects of mass culture technology and consumerism Contesting Islam, Constructing Race and Sexuality Sunera Thobani,2020-12-10 The current political standoffs of the War on Terror illustrate that the interaction within and between the so called Western and Middle Eastern civilizations is constantly in flux A recurring theme however is how Islam and Muslims signify the Enemy in the Western socio cultural imagination and have become the Other against which the West identifies itself In a unique and insightful blend of critical race feminist and post colonial theory Sunera Thobani examines how Islam is foundational to the formation of Western identity at critical points in its history including the Crusades the Reconquista and the colonial period More specifically she explores how masculinity and femininity are formed at such pivotal junctures and what role feminism has played in the wars against radical Islam Exposing these symbiotic relationships Thobani explores how the return of religion is reworking the racial gender and sexual politics by which Western society defines itself and more specifically defines itself against Islam Contesting Islam Constructing Race and Sexuality unpacks conventional as well as unconventional orthodoxies to open up new spaces in how we think about sexual and racial identity in the West and the crucial role that Islam has had and continues to have in its development Estudios sobre las culturas contemporáneas ,2000 Histoire Sociale ,2007 Modernity Stuart Hall,David Held,Kenneth Thompson,1995-01 This is a comprehensive textbook which provides an introduction to the history and sociology of modern society and to ideas and theories about it It is written for students and readers who have no prior knowledge of sociology and is designed to be used in a variety of social science courses in universities and colleges Cultural Identity Michael Francis Black,1997 Tradition Through Modernity Pertti J. Anttonen,2005 When studying social practices that are regarded as traditional tradition is usually seen as an element of meaning Whose meaning is it Is it a meaning generated by those who study tradition or those who are being studied In both cases particular criteria for traditionality are employed whether these are explicated or not The individuals groups of people and institutions that are studied may continue to uphold their traditions or name their practices traditions without having to state in analytical terms their criteria for traditionality This cannot however apply to people who make the study of traditions their profession especially those engaged in the academic field of the science of tradition a paraphrase given to folklore studies Traditions call for explanation instead of being merely described or used as explanations for apparent repetitions reiterations replications continuations or symbolic linking in social practice values meaning culture and history In order to explain the concept of tradition and the category of the traditional scholars must situate its use in particular historically specific discourses ways of knowing speaking conceptualisation and representation in which social acts receive their meanings as traditional This book argues that since the concepts of tradition and modern are fundamentally modern what they aim to and are able to describe report and denote is epistemologically modern as that which is regarded as non modern and traditional is appropriated into modern social knowledge through modern concepts and discursive means Modernity cannot represent non modernity without modern mediation which therefore makes the representations of non modernity also modern Accordingly the book deals with the modernness of objectifying representing and studying folklore and oral traditions The first section focuses on modern and tradition as modern concepts and the conception of folklore and its study as a modern trajectory The second section discusses the politics of folklore with regard to nationalism and the role of folk tradition in the production of nation state identity in Finland
