The Intellectual Foundation Of Information Organization Digital Libraries And Electronic Publishing:

The Intellectual Foundation of Information Organization Elaine Svenonius, 2000 Integrating the disparate disciplines of descriptive cataloging subject cataloging indexing and classification the book adopts a conceptual framework that views the process of organizing information as the use of a special language of description called a bibliographic language The FRBR Family of Conceptual Models Richard P. Smiraglia, Pat Riva, Maja Žumer, 2014-10-29 Since 1998 when FRBR Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records was first published by IFLA the effort to develop and apply FRBR has been extended in many innovative and experimental directions Papers in this volume explain and expand upon the extended family of FRBR models including Functional Requirements for Authority Data FRAD Functional Requirements for Subject Authority Data FRSAD and the object oriented version of FRBR known as FRBRoo Readers will learn about dialogues between the FRBR Family and other modeling technologies specific implementations and extensions of FRBR in retrieval systems catalog codes employing FRBR a wide variety of research that uses the FRBR model and approaches to using FRBR for the Semantic Web Librarians of all stripes as well as library and information science students and researchers can use this volume to bring their knowledge of the FRBR model and its implementation up to date This book was published as a special issue of Cataloging Classification Quarterly

Philosophy of Emerging Media Juliet Floyd, James Everett Katz, 2016 The term emerging media responds to the big data now available as a result of the larger role digital media play in everyday life as well as the notion of emergence that has grown across the architecture of science and technology over the last two decades with increasing imbrication The permeation of everyday life by emerging media is evident ubiquitous and destined to accelerate No longer are images institutions social networks thoughts acts of communication emotions and speech the media by means of which we express ourselves in daily life linked to clearly demarcated stable entities and contexts Instead the loci of meaning within which these occur shift and evolve quickly emerging in far reaching ways we are only beginning to learn and bring about This volume s purpose is to develop broaden and spark future philosophical discussion of emerging media and their ways of shaping and reshaping the habitus within which everyday lives are to be understood Drawing from the history of philosophy ideas of influential thinkers in the past intellectual path makers on the contemporary scene offer new philosophical perspectives laying the groundwork for future work in philosophy and in media studies On diverse topics such as identity agency reality mentality time aesthetics representation consciousness materiality emergence and human nature the questions addressed here consider the extent to which philosophy should or should not take us to be facing a fundamental transformation
