The Laughter Of Faith A Thesis Submitted To The Faculty Of Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary In Partial Fulfillment For The Degree Of Doctor Of Ministry:

The Laughter of Faith John L. Torres, Jr., 2005-11-18 This is my DMin Thesis for Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary I did not improve it or work to make it more readable Many have requested it so my producing it here is in response to them From the abstract This work is a study of laughter and its importance in congregational life from the perspective of pastors It is concerned with the history and theories of laughter in terms of how they connect with current pastoral attitudes towards it Questions of appropriateness are central to this exploration A primary premise of the work is that laughter is a significant component of pastoral ministry but its study seems marginalized by the church This incongruity is further aggravated by the fact that much of the rest of the world accurately sees laughter as a significant social force Except for the church almost all other entities in society interested in shaping society seem to know the power and place of laughter To address this inconsistency this study reviewed all available literature and the Scriptures in order to discover the theories and views of laughter leading theologians and philosophers have had and then apply the best of the categories emerging from this to a current understanding of laughter Both surveys and interviews uncovered what the current understanding of laughter is for a sample group of pastors within the geographical framework of New York s Hudson Valley The research findings led to the development of ideas for applying an enlightened view of laughter to pastoral ministry for the purpose of making it more effective

Rejoice Paul G. Krebs, 1992 A Ministry to the Raging Bull and the Weeping Willow Edward Allen Weimer, 1988 And God Laughed, a Revival of Humor Anthony J. Geraci, 1988 Laughter and the Grace of God Brian Edgar, 2020-01-01 We cannot really love anybody with whom we never laugh and this is true of our relationship with God Thomas Aquinas spoke of the sin of having too little laughter as well as the danger of having too much while Martin Luther said If you re not allowed to laugh in heaven I don t want to go there Having a sense of humour is essential for maturity in faith and holiness but sadly the role that laughter plays in life and spirituality have often been neglected Laughter and the Grace of God restores laughter to its central place in Christian spirituality and theology by examining its role in Scripture and highlighting its presence in unexpected places including the story of Abraham and the formation of the covenant and the tragedy of Job Laughter can be found in the incarnation the resurrection and even the crucifixion Jesus is himself the great laugh maker and it is nothing less than a participation in the life and love of God

Laughter Karl-Josef Kuschel, 1994 Theology is not a subject especially noted for its jokes though one of the chapters in this book has a good collection of them However since laughter is such an important element in life there would be something wrong if it could not be heard in theology not mocking laughter but the laughter which indicates delight and joy And that such laughter cannot be heard today in the Roman Catholic church in its wintry season is an important indication of its problems Dr Kuschel traces a fascinating story of laughter from Sarah in the Hebrew Bible through Homer Plato and Aristotle Mozart and Kafka to

Umberto Eco and The Name of the Rose There is a long chapter on Christian laughter and its foundations in the New Testament and there is a discussion of the Christian condemnation of laughter among the church fathers and the monastic tradition And sometimes laughter is out of place a lesson which our modern world has not really learned Jesus from whom Christianity arose was laughed at and his followers have known what it is to be laughed at too That recognition too is vital one more strand in what proves to be the rich vein of new theological insights offered here How much underlies laughter This is the kind of theology that we need the world in all its heights and depths everything clearly thought through brilliantly written and at the same time centred on the Christian message Hans Kung Karl Josef Kuschel teaches ecumenical theology and theological aesthetics in the University of Tübingen
