The Murderer Next Door Why Mind Is Designed To Kill David M Buss:

The Murderer Next Door David M. Buss, 2006-04-25 As acclaimed psychological researcher and author David Buss writes People are mesmerized by murder It commands our attention like no other human phenomenon and those touched by its ugly tendrils never forget Though we may like to believe that murderers are pathological misfits and hardened criminals the vast majority of murders are committed by people who until the day they kill would seem to be perfectly normal David Buss's pioneering work has made major national news in the past and this provocative book is sure to generate a storm of attention The Murderer Next Door is a riveting look into the dark underworld of the human psyche an astonishing exploration of when and why we kill and what might push any one of us over the edge A leader in the innovative field of evolutionary psychology Buss conducted an unprecedented set of studies investigating the underlying motives and circumstances of murders from the bizarre outlier cases of serial killers to those of the friendly next door neighbor who one day kills his wife Reporting on findings that are often startling and counterintuitive the younger woman involved in a love triangle is at a high risk of being killed he puts forth a bold new general theory of homicide arguing that the human psyche has evolved specialized adaptations whose function is to kill Taking readers through the surprising twists and turns of the evolutionary logic of murder he explains exactly when each of us is most at risk both of being murdered and of becoming a murderer His findings about the high risk situations alone will be news making Featuring gripping storytelling about specific murder cases including a never used FBI file of more than 400 000 murders and a highly detailed study of 400 murders conducted by Buss in collaboration with a forensic psychiatrist and a pioneering investigation of homicidal fantasies in which Buss found that 91 percent of men and 84 percent of women have had at least one such vivid fantasy The Murderer Next Door will be necessary reading for those who have been fascinated by books on profiling lovers of true crime and murder mysteries as well as readers intrigued by the inner workings of the human mind

Brute Force Dominic Lennard, 2019-11-01 It's always been a wild world with humans telling stories of killer animals as soon as they could tell stories at all Movies are an especially popular vehicle for our fascination with fierce creatures In Brute Force Dominic Lennard takes a close look at a range of cinematic animal attackers including killer gorillas sharks snakes bears wolves spiders and even a few dinosaurs Lennard argues that animal horror is not so much a focused genre as it is an impulse tapping into age old fears of becoming prey At the same time these films expose conflicts and uncertainties in our current relationship with animals Movies considered include King Kong Jaws The Grey Them Arachnophobia Jurassic Park Snakes on a Plane An American Werewolf in London and many more Drawing on insights from film studies art history cognitive science and evolutionary psychology Brute Force is an engaging critical exploration and appreciation of cinema's many bad beasts

Don Browning and Psychology Terry D. Cooper, 2011 Psychologist of religion ethicist theological psychologist cultural critic philosophical anthropologist marriage and family expert practical theologian and religion and law scholar these are some of the many labels one could use to describe the history of Don Browning's work Yet in spite of the multi faceted nature of Browning's work abiding themes and central concerns consistently emerge Perhaps the title which best describes Browning's noteworthy contributions is that of horizon analyst Browning is always at his best when he is helping us see the world of implicit assumptions and normative images which govern various perspectives He has an eye for metaphors which as his mentor Ricoeur famously said give rise to thought Perhaps Browning's greatest academic asset has been his ability to explore the philosophical underpinnings of various psychological theories This book focuses on Browning's rich investigative journey into Freud's dual instinct model the relationship between human biology and culture evolutionary psychology William James' instinctual pluralism Erik Erickson's notion of generativity the ethical implications of self actualization in the humanistic psychologies of Rogers and Maslow evil and self realization in Carl Jung the place of self injury in the thought of Heinz Kohut as well as other issues Beginning with a discussion of Browning's critical hermeneutical approach heavily influenced by Gadamer Ricoeur and David Tracy this book then systematically explores Browning's critical
