Lankan cultural impact on other nations Reading Together, Reading Apart Tamara Bhalla, 2016-10-17 Often thought of as a solitary activity the practice of reading can in fact encode the complex politics of community formation Engagement with literary culture represents a particularly integral facet of identity formation and expresses of a sense of belonging within the South Asian diaspora in the United States Tamara Bhalla blends a case study with literary and textual analysis to illuminate this phenomenon Her fascinating investigation considers institutions from literary reviews to the marketplace to social media and other technologies as well as traditional forms of literary discussion like book clubs and academic criticism Throughout Bhalla questions how her subjects circumstances desires and shared race and class limit the values they ascribe to reading She also examines how ideology circulating around a body of literature or a self selected imagined community of readers shapes reading itself and influences South Asians powerful if contradictory relationship with ideals of cultural authenticity
