The Cost Of Living Arundhati Roy:

The Cost of Living Arundhati Roy, 1999 From the bestselling author of The God of Small Things comes a scathing and passionate indictment of big government's disregard for the individual In her Booker Prize winning novel The God of Small Things Arundhati Roy turned a compassionate but unrelenting eye on one family in India Now she lavishes the same acrobatic language and fierce humanity on the future of her beloved country In this spirited polemic Roy dares to take on two of the great illusions of India's progress the massive dam projects that were supposed to haul this sprawling subcontinent into the modern age but which instead have displaced untold millions and the detonation of India's first nuclear bomb with all its attendant Faustian bargains Merging her inimitable voice with a great moral outrage and imaginative sweep Roy peels away the mask of democracy and prosperity to show the true costs hidden beneath For those who have been mesmerized by her vision of India here is a sketch traced in fire of its topsy turvy society where the lives of the many are sacrificed for the comforts of the few

Feminist Time Against Nation Time Victoria Hesford, Lisa Diedrich, 2009-12-01 Feminist Time Against Nation Time offers a series of essays that explore the complex and oftentimes contradictory relationship between feminism and nationalism through a problematization of temporality Although there has been much recent discussion in the U S of the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq and the War on Terror as signaling a new period of permanent war feminist voices have not been at all prominent in this discussion This collection considers not only the ways in which public spaces for dissent are limited but also the ways in which the time for such dissent is cut short Feminist Time Against Nation Time combines philosophical examinations of Women's Time by Julia Kristeva and The Time of Thought by Elizabeth Grosz with essays offering case studies of particular events including Kelly Oliver's essay on the media coverage of the U S wars on terror and in Afghanistan and Iraq and Betty Joseph's on the anti colonial uses of women's time in the creation of nineteenth century Indian nationalism Feminist Time Against Nation Time juxtaposes feminist time against nation time in order to consider temporalities that are at once contrary to but also drawing toward each other Yet Hesford and

Diedrich also argue that because as an untimely project feminism necessarily operates in a different temporality from that of the nation againstness is also used to provoke a rupture a momentary opening up of a disjuncture between the two that will allow us to explore the possibilities of creating a space and time for feminists to think against the current of the present moment
